ABSOLUTELY PURE

They Never Fail.

J. N. Harris, 3 Fulton Market, New York City says:

"I have been using Brandreth's Pills for the last fifteen years. There is nothing equal to them as Pile Cure and Liver Regulators. But I wish to state how remarkably they cure rheumatism, and how easily: I was affected by rheumatism in the legs. My business (wholesale fish dealer) naturally leads me to damp places. I could not walk, and at night I suffered fearfully; I tried Balsams, Sarsaparillas and all kinds of tinctures but they did me no good and I was afraid of being a cripple. I finally commenced using Brandreth's Pills. I took two every night for ten nights, then I began to improve. I continued taking them for forty days and I got entirely well. Now, whenever sick, I take Brandreth's Pills. They never fail."

MONEY TO LOAN.—I have money in sums of $500 to $20,000 to loan on improved farm lands in Linn and Benton counties, at lowest current rates. delay in furnishing the money.

QUARTZ FROM BLUE RIVER.—Geo. A. Dyson and W. S. Powell came down from the mines in the Blue River country the first of the week with a lot of quartz and about 50 pounds of it was shipped to San Francisco for an assay. They are confident they have a good paying ledge in sight and the quartz sent off indicates a good supply of gold. Work in the mines has ceased for the winter and these gentlemen returned to their homes in Brownsville Monday morning. It is probable the Blue River camp will be likely next season after the roads is completed.—Eugene Register.

Salem has telephone communication direct with Seattle and the denizens of the Capital can hear the sound every day.—Statesman. Not today, some other day.

A NEW AND FAMOUS BOOK.

Darkness and Daylight, or Lights and Shadows of New York.

An entirely new, important and original pictorial work. A woman's narrative of mission work in tough places, with thrilling personal experiences among the poor, the homeless, the vicious, and the depraved in the great underworld of New York. Including an account of Christian and rescue work in regions of poverty and vice; an all-night mission service; a journalist's account of little known phases of metropolitan life; and a detective's experiences and observations among the dangerous and criminal classes; with hundreds of thrilling anecdotes, incidents and tales of tender pathos portraying life and scenes in darkest New York by day and by night. Written by Mrs. Helen Campbell, author and philanthropist, Col. Thomas W. Knox, Mayor and journalist, Inspector Thomas Byrnes, chief of the N. Y. detective force, Rev. Lyman Abbott, D. D., editor of the Christian Union and Rev. Beecher's successor as pastor of Plymouth church. Superbly illustrated with 250 engravings from photographs taken from life express for the work mostly by flashlight, an reproduced in exact fac-simile by eminent artists.

We do not know when 740 pages have given us more genuine pleasure. If we speak warmly of the book, it is because it richly deserves it. It is sold only by agents, and is meeting with an enormous sale. Agents who introduce such a work ought to be cordially welcomed. A better work has certainly never come our way by old and young, with ever increasing interest and better results.

The work is published by the old and well known firm of A. D. Worthington & Co., Hartford, Conn., whose imprint is sufficient guarantee of the excellence of this first-class volume. Royal Octavo, 740 pages, 252 fine plates, portraits, and text illustrations.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Saw Twenty Devils;

PORTLAND, Dec 21.—Gotfried Gremer, a German, aged 37, committed suicide this morning about 8 o'clock at the Park hotel, corner of Washington and Sixteenth streets, by hanging himself with a piece of clothes line wire.

Gremer came here about three months ago and stopped with Nicholas Abuhl, proprietor of the park hotel. He was here but a few days, but exhibited to Mr. Abuhl several hundred dollars in gold, a fine gold watch and other valuable jewelry. His occupation he was a farmer and was looking for a farm which he might purchase. He went from here to Tacoma, where he remained some time, returning here last Friday, and again he repaired to the Park hotel. He told Mr. Abuhl that his watch and jewelry were gone and that all in the world he had left was $1 in silver. He wanted to stay at the hotel till he could get work. He said while in Tacoma he saw 15 angels and 20 devils. About 9:40 o'clock a clerk went upstairs, and, stepping inside the water closet, found Gremer lifeless and hanging by a piece of wire which he had wound about his neck. He got the wire from the washhouse where it was kept, and put one loop over the corner of the door and the other about his neck. He was cold when found.

A Big Storm;

SPOKANE, Wash. Dec 21.—The blizzard continues to blow tonight, and incoming rains report the storm as general all over the west. The Great Northern's east-bound train is now bound at Harrington, in the Big Bend. The Washington Central incoming train is side tracked at Creston. The coming train from Coeur d'Alene City did not leave the incoming Union Pacific train, due here at 7:15, had not arrived, and the wires are all down, the officials here are unable to locate it.

Fears of a Panic

WASHINGTON, Dec 21.—A serious financial panic is feared by every public man here in Washington, who is brought face to face with the financial problem. Men like United States senators, who have large investments, and are either debtors or creditors to any considerable extent, appreciate, more than any other people here, the danger that threatens. A great deal of the panicky feeling results from the continued exports of gold, and the fear that perhaps the secretary of the treasury will not maintain the gold reserve by the selling of bonds, although he has said rather positively that he would do this.

To Fight a Duet

PARIS, Dec 21.—The report that Clemenceau, editor of La Justice, and Deoulede have serious intentions as to a duel tomorrow is fully confirmed. The conditions agreed upon will show the two men to be remarkably lacking in nerve if there are no fatal results. They are to fight with pistols. They are to be stationed 25 yards apart, but with the privilege of advancing five paces. As both men are considered good shots it is generally believed that one or both will be killed.

THE MAZE,

A ringing noise in the ears, headache, deafness, eyes weak; obstruction of nose, discharges falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, bloody and putrid; offensive breath; smell and taste impaired, and general debility. Not all of these symptoms at once. Probably only a few of them.

That's Catarrh.

A medicine that by its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties has cured the most hopeless cases. One that will cure you, no matter how bad your case or of how long standing. A medicine that doesn't simply palliate for a time, but produces perfect and permanent cures.

That's Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

A cash payment of $500, not by you, as you might expect, but to you, if you can't be cured. It's an offer that's made in good faith, to prove their medicine, by responsible men, the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Remedy.

That's the kind of medicine to try. Doesn't it seem so?
