GOOD EVENING

Religious Services.—M. E. Church Sunday services: Preaching at 11 a. m. by the pastor. Subject, "Jesus in the Midst." Sunday school at 2:30 p. m. Junior League at 3:30. Epworth League at 6:30. At 7:30 the anniversary of the Linn County Bible Society will be held. Following is the program:

Song.
Invocation by Rev. Wm. Trow.
Reading scriptures by Rev. C. G. Harmon.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Wilson.
Song.
Address by Rev. Mr. Prichard.
Address by Rev. P. C. Hetzler.
Prayer by Rev. Mr. Fisher.

Song.
Benediction by Rev. Mr. Weimer.

At the United Presbyterian church there will be service at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. T. J. Wilson. There will be no evening service. Sabbath school at 2:30, followed by the teachers prayer meeting and the Junior Society of Christian Endeavor. The Christian Endeavor at 6:30 o'clock. All are welcome to these services.

At the Congregational church there will be preaching at 11 a. m., followed by the communion. Sabbath school at 12:15 and Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:45. All are invited. There will be no evening service.

It is for you to remember that tomorrow Prof. Howland of Albany College and late from the east will discuss a very interesting subject at the meeting at 4 p. m. in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. All are invited to come prepared to write on slips of paper what the greatest sin of the age is.

Scio.—On Monday, George Ferguson, superintendent, engineer, conductor and general factotum of the Scio branch of the S. P. railroad, sent to Chicago for telephone instruments, wire, etc., for the purpose of erecting a telephone line from this city to West Scio.

Scio is again in darkness, the wire cable having given away. Mr. Coffey is unable to assign a definite cause for the breaking of his cables. The one used to communicate power to Myers' planer has been in use for four years and is in a good state of preservation, yet this cable (the second within a year) is useless after three months wear.

Messrs. Roy Gill, Robert Cary, John Goins, Marshall Richardson, Haman and Lee Gaines and Misses Rosa Moore, Alice Cary and Maggie McDonald, students at the Monmouth Normal school, came home for the holiday recess last Friday. Messrs. Alfred Hemphill of Pendleton and Carl Roe of La Grand, fellow students, came up with them to spend the holidays.—Press.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.—A very pleasant school entertainment, and necktie social, was given at Knox Butte school house Monday evening Dec. 25. The entertainment consisted of music, tableaux, dialogues and recitations, and was well rendered by the teacher and pupils of the school. The teacher, Miss Nellie Lambson, deserves much credit for the able manner in which this entertainment was conducted, as well as for faithful and conscientious work in our school during this term. After the entertainment, the neckties were auctioned off for the benefit of the school. Then followed a supper furnished by the ladies of the district; and the remainder of the evening was spent in social talk, music games and a good time generally.

A FRIEND.

LIVELY MILL CITY.—Matt Smith was arrested early in the week for an assault and for breaking up the dance last Friday night. Justice Badlong fined him ten dollars and costs, and a short period in the county jail. A man by the name of Sweeney pulled off his coat to wade in with Smith, but lucky for him that he did not.

Wm. Sullivan was taken under arrest yesterday on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon.—Gazette.

ONLY A RUMOR.—The Scio Press says: It is rumored that the Southern Pacific contemplates taking off one of the trains on the Oregonian route, and the train of the Lebanon branch. In lieu thereof a train is to be run from Woodburn to Lebanon, and another from Albany to Nation. This arrangement will probably suit nobody unless it is the S. P. company. Wonder if the railroad commissioners could not be prevailed upon to give an injunction on the railroad company to stop any such contemplated move.

WATCH NIGHT MEETING.—The Epworth League will hold a watch night service at the M. E. church this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. The first part of the program will be an entertainment entitled "An Evening With Bells," after which a social hour will be spent. Then will follow a Bible reading and song service. At 11:30 the pastor will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion. All invited.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—Beginning on Sunday Rev. May C. Jones will begin evangelistic meetings. Preaching at 11 and 7:30 by Mrs. Jones. Morning services followed by communion service. Sunday school at 9:45 A. M. Young People's meeting at 1:30 P. M. Evangelistic services every night except Saturday at 7:30. Bible reading and prayer service at 3 P. M. except Sunday. All will receive a genuine welcome to these services. Geo. W. Hill, pastor.

The funeral of Mrs. W. M. Orton, who died at G. O. Wendale, Wash., a few days ago, will be preached, at her request, at the Evangelical church tomorrow morning at 11 a. m.

AN INVITATION

To a wedding is held with delight, as an exhortation to save money is listened to with attention, and if needed should guide you to the store of C. E. Brownell.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Goodbye 1892.

Mr. Bernard Marks, of Lebanon, county secretary Y. P. S. C. E., is in the city.

The annual business meeting of the Linn County Bible society will be held this evening at the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

Go to Carter's Grocery, opposite the Russ House, for live and dressed chickens, choice fresh butter, eggs and other groceries.

The Oregonian says that it is in receipt of a letter dated at this place from a man who signed his name J. H. Listman, who confesses having set the Jefferson fire. No person known of such an individual having been in this city.—Mill City Gazette. Probably a fake.

Several dollars have been raised for the orphan's home by several little girls with autograph albums. For 5 cents you can put your name in it, and everybody does. Who wouldn't when asked by a bright little girl with blue eyes, golden hair, and a smile that some day may cause many a heart to palpitate.

Tickets for F. C. Co's masquerade ball Monday evening are now on sale at Will's music store. Ball tickets $1.50; reserved seat gallery tickets 50 cents; general admission to gallery 25 cents. A costume will be up from Portland with a nice assortment of costumes to rent. Arrangements have been made to render this a grand affair. A large attendance is expected including many from neighboring towns.

Boots and Shoes.—I carry the largest line of medium priced and good wearing boys, misses and children shoes in the city and have just added a line of steel shod school shoes which I recommend to the trade. Don't forget that I repair any shoe I sell free of charge.

S. E. Young.
