GOOD EVENING.

A NEW YEARS FIGHT.—Word comes to the DEMOCRAT that on last Saturday evening some kind of literary entertainment was given at Grange Hall just across the river from this city. A row was provoked between an old gentleman aged about 60 years and a young man by the name of Morg Hopper. According to the account given by Hopper and some others began a course of guffing the old man, when he started to leave the room to go home being disgusted with their conduct. They followed him outside the hall when Hopper attacked him. The old man struck out from the shoulder cutting some ugly gashes in the young man's head with a lantern completely laying him out. The young man was worried so he had to be helped home. It is said that the couple over there think the young man deserved all he received.

A STREET FIGHT.—An exciting affair occurred yesterday in front of S E Young's store, which has caused considerable comment. The version given the DEMOCRAT is this: Henry Williams, the well-known saloon-keeper, and Geo Carroll, who works for F L Such, across the river, and who run the ferry at one time, met, when Williams asked him for an account due him for some time for liquor. A quarrel followed, resulting in Williams knocking Carroll down. A couple bystanders interfered, and one man told Carroll to run, which he started to do, when Williams it is claimed, set his bulldog, Patsey, on him. The dog grabbed Carroll by the leg, throwing him down. Then he sprang at his face, just scratching it a little, and not biting a big chunk out as at first reported. Carroll said he did not want any notoriety and refused to have any warrant issued.

LINN COUNTY BIBLE SOCIETY.—A meeting of the Linn County Bible society was held at the Y M C A rooms Saturday evening, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. Rev E R Prichard, president; Rev G W Weimer, secretary; vice presidents, resident ministers; John Foshay, treasurer and depository. Executive committee, J B Coughlin, L H Montanye, D H McCullough, W F Read, R M Robertson, J G Cherry, E W Achison, and Fred Grimmer, from the several churches. The report of the depository showed a sale of bibles amounting to $8.80. Sunday evening a public meeting was held at the M E church, and addressed by Rev E R Prichard and Rev Hetzler the agent.

SKATING CARNIVAL.—A pleasant time was had at the mask skate Saturday night, a big crowd being present besides 45 maskers, in a variety of taking characters. A committee consisting of Dr Hill, Ed Houston, Mark Hulbert, Chas Casey, and C W Watts awarded the prize to Frank Hess, of Salem, for the best sustained tireless character, a monkey; Lillie Bell, as Red Riding Hood for the best painted ladies character; Paul Costel and Le Sanders for best skating couple; amusing characters attracting particular attention, Charley Farrell as drum major and Wm Acheson as the belle of China. No skate tonight; on Thursday the big one.

RAISING THE ASSESSMENT.—The state board of equalization Saturday raised the assessment on lands of all kinds 10 per cent in Linn and several other counties, and implements 10 per cent, improvements and town lots 30 per cent, horses and mules 20 per cent; cattle 10 per cent. The total increase in the county will be $1,000,000 approximately and $250,000 in the state. Mortgages would be equalized. This after assessment is considerable of a nuisance, when one's own county affected.

A FOX CHASE.—A large crowd was in town this afternoon to witness the fox chase which proved a rather meager affair. Only four dogs were entered and they ran more by sight than scent. After shaking the fox out of its refuge in a tree the dogs were given a second or third chance, and finally a bound belonging to F M Blair overtook and killed him. Guard.

INSTALLATION.—On tomorrow evening an installation of officers of Safety Lodge No 13 A O U W will take place at their hall, conducted by Grand Master B J Hawthorne of Eugene. It will be public to members, their families and invited friends. Exercises will commence at 7:30 p.m.

RESIGNA.—Mr Wooley who has charge of C P church in this city since its organization has been called to do missionary work for the church and hence resigns his charge here. R S F Longbottom will succeed to the charge in this city and will hold services hereafter on the second and fourth sabbaths of each month.

ARM BROKEN.—Last evening Roger, a year old son of Jay W. Blain, fell from a chair, striking on the floor in a break one of his arms. The arm was set and the little boy is doing well.

THE MINES.—Notwithstanding the weather work is progressing on the tunnel of the Albany mines in the m. district. The prospect increases, and once into the ore bed there will be a big find for the mines, as then the ore is gotten out at a small cost.

GREAT INVENTION.—Is the self heating coffee and tea pots. With them in pour coffee or tea without turnspits. Wonderful. None of the old fashioned way. Coffee cooks sure and cannot burn, and tea to perfection. You raise the light lid and the coffee or tea runs from the spout. If you could have the finest thing in the world you would have this. The local agent is J. H. W. W.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

G L Blackman and daughter, of Portland, are in the city.

One of the spriest men in Albany is Olney Fry, Sr, who is 91 years of age in a few days.

Senator Alley arrived here last night from Florence on his way to the legislature. He was compelled to walk the entire distance as the road is blocked by hundreds of fallen trees. —Eugene Guard.

Another unfortunate young lady is reported at Prineville. Miss Mina Wilson is now the wife of an editor and her name is now Mrs Fred E Wilmarth, her husband running the News, and calmly boasting in the face of two to support that he has had a subscription stopped in every precinct in the county. May they overcome the many obstacles in their path and be happy, and prosperous if possible.

A New Years leap year party was given at the residence of Mayor Cowan Saturday evening. Several hours were passed in a pleasant manner, and a delicious banquet was spread. The young ladies receiving and doing the leap year honors were Misses Lana Vance, Flora Mason, Vesta Mason, Bertha Ellis, Emma Houck, Lida Galbraith, Anna Houck, Lida Galbraith, Maud Van Horn, Minnie Van Horn, Lena Marshall, Zula Winn, Eva Cowan, Mrs T L Wallace, Mrs Thos Monteth; while the fortunate gentlemen were J A Wilson, J J Charlton, W J Oriel, E D Cusick, C B Winn, E L Quinn, J A Cumming, W D Lyon, F Fortmiller, A Leimert, E M Horton, W S Phillips, W H Cowan, T L Wallace and Thos Monteth.

Miss Ollie Butler gave a party last evening at the residence of her uncle, Green H Butler, in honor of Russell Wyatt, our promising young attorney of Albany. Each vied with the other in contributing to the entertainment of those present, stopping only in their merriment long enough to partake of an excellent lunch. At a late hour the guests dispersed vowing Miss Butler a royal entertainer. Those present were: Mesdames, Green H Butler, J W Ling, J B Morin and E B Holman; Misses Ollie Butler, Florence Bussey, Cecil Rampey, Edna Douglas and Dollie Reams, and Messrs John Butler, Green H Butler, J W Ling, J R Wyatt, R D Cooper and J B Morin. —Harrisburg Courier.

MARKETS.

Some one estimates that it will take $4,000,000 for Oregonians to visit the Worlds Fair, putting 10,000 as the number who will go. Too high.

The Portland Welcome rejoices as follows: A matter to be thankful for is the fact that the Rip Van Winkle corps of assistants at the post office will soon be superseded by a crowd of wide-awake and capable democrats with some local knowledge of matters and things generally.

The Salem Journal puts the improvements in that city for 1892 at $974,325. For a good many years the annual improvements have been given as nearly a million dollars, and yet the total city assessment is only about $2,000,000. Some of the improvements given are state improvements, Capitol dome, $92,000; insane asylum, $50,000; state prison, $24,000; Salem Light & Power Co, $150,000. The showing though is a splendid one, outside of the padding.
