Colorless, Emaciated, Helpless A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Otsego Co., N. Y. "Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the gravel, and have since been troubled with my Liver and Kidneys gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to HOOD'S PILLS are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, cure headache and biliousness.

SHEDD NOTES

January 3rd, 1893. A Blaker spent his New Years in the city. Frank Harris, of Seio, is attending school here. A new blacksmith shop opened yesterday. A lively competition is looked for. Chas E Parrere was the proud possessor of a ten pound son on the morning of the 31st. A young bachelor, who resides west of here, pays the burgh a visit every Saturday night. He dresses in his best attire and looks rather suspicious. There was a grand shooting match at this place on the 31st. The number present was estimated at 250. Frank Bayne, one of Peoria's fine riflemen was present. A dime social was given by the ladies of the W C T U at the M E church, on last evening. This was perhaps the happiest gathering Shedd has seen in many a day. Word reached here from Shaver and Hensley this morning. They have succeeded in trapping thirteen beaver and nineteen mink. The snow, although about six feet deep, has not disheartened these energetic men.

Scott's Emulsion not only stops a cold but it is remarkably successful where the cough has become deep seated.

The Forum 1893. THE FORUM contains articles about what men are now doing in the world. The problems and the tasks of your own life and thought, and of our own country, and of our own time; the education of your children; the latest results of research in your own special study; the great books of the period; the real leaders; the large movements—are these not the most interesting subjects? The secret of THE FORUM's hold on its readers is that its writers make it helpful to all who think. Its readers form the dominant part of every profession, craft, and class—those who are succeeding because they have a correct measure of the intellectual forces and of the larger activities of American life, the best-informed, and the most ambitious. Its writers are the leaders of thought and of action everywhere and in all kinds of important work. Ask the best informed man in your community what he thinks of THE FORUM, or send to us for the written opinions of some of the leading men in your State, and in all other States.
