Ought to be smaller—the great, gripping, old-fashioned pill. There's too much unpleasantness for the money. Ought to be better, too. They're big enough, and make trouble enough, to do more good. That's just what Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do,—more good. Instead of weakening the system, they renovate it; instead of upsetting, they cleanse and regulate it—mildly, gently, and naturally. They're the original Little Liver Pills—the smallest but most effective, purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, and easiest to take. Only one little Pellet for a gentle laxative—three for a cathartic. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels are promptly relieved and permanently cured. They're the cheapest pills you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get. It's a plan peculiar to Dr. Pierce's medicines.

FORMERLY OF ALBANY.

The New York Herald tells of the following very sensational affair in which a former Albany man, Paul D. Heiry, is an important character: The elopement of the wife of a prominent official of the state of Washington with a music teacher who deserted his wife; the flight of the guilty couple across the continent with the erring woman's daughter; the pursuit of the husband and his capture of the child, following close upon an attempt of the mother to destroy herself and her little one, is a romance in real life that ended in an East Side lodging-house last Thursday morning. Assistant Attorney-General Paul D. Heiry, the injured husband, with his daughter Orba, now occupies a room at the Hoffman house. Mrs. D. Heiry, until last evening, was still at 168 Third Avenue, in a room over a restaurant, where the husband discovered her. Under a threat of instant death, Edward G. Morse, who eloped with Mrs. D. Heiry, led Mr. D. Heiry and a friend to the house where he had been living with Mrs. D. Heiry, and then disappeared. Mr. D. Heiry two years ago secured the services of Edward G. Morse as a music teacher for his wife. The wife became infatuated with the musician, but the husband had no reason to doubt her until weeks after the elopement. Through the efforts of D. Heiry the musician secured many scholars among the wealthiest people of Seattle. When his income was sufficiently increased, Morse sent to San Francisco for his wife and daughter. Morse's child died about a year ago and Mr. D. Heiry paid the expenses of the little girl's illness and funeral. When Mrs. D. Heiry asked her husband last November for permission to come East to visit relatives in this city he readily consented. Without his knowledge, Mrs. D. Heiry sold two cottages in Seattle belonging to her, on which she realized $10,000. Mr. D. Heiry gave her $200 more in cash before she left home, and gave her a ticket over the Northern Pacific for herself and daughter Orba, who is 9 years old. Accompanied by Morse and his daughter, she went to San Francisco, where they stopped at the Palace hotel as E. G. Morse and wife. While there, Morse secured all Mrs. D. Heiry's money and spent it lavishly. December 1 the guilty pair went to Chicago, thence to Washington and Philadelphia, and finally to New York, where D. Heiry found them.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

A Big Failure. LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 22.—The startling announcement of the failure of the Capitol National bank was made a short time after 11 o'clock tonight, and with it came the statement the state treasurer was caught in the crash to the extent of $250,000. It is stated the failure is a bad one, but the exact condition can not be ascertained tonight. The deposits amount to $825,000, and of this amount between $175,000 and $250,000 are state funds, for which the bond of the treasurer will be responsible. A Tremendous Freeze. TOLEDO, O., Jan. 22.—Not in the history of the present generation has Lake Erie been frozen as it is now. Special dispatches indicate an unbroken field of ice from the Detroit river to Put-in-Bay. Fishermen have driven fifteen miles out from Monroe and returned with the statement that the ice is solid all the way, and it extended as far as they could see. The entire Lake Erie archipelago is frozen up, and the fishermen are compelled to suspend business. Have Been Forgiven. NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—The Herald says in regard to the story of Assistant Attorney General Paul D. Heiry's long chase after his eloping wife from Seattle, that it is informed that D. Heiry has forgiven his wife and is anxious to have her return with him and Orba to Seattle. D. Heiry believes his wife left him during a fit of temporary insanity, and that her infatuation for Morse was due not to any love for the man, but her passion for music. After Money. TACOMA, Jan. 22.—As George Starkweather was returning home at 2:30 o'clock this morning he was held up by two men. They relieved him of $10 and some change, also a watch. One of the robbers, noticing the watch was silver, swore because he had no gold one. He said it was not worth taking, so gave it back to him, saying it was cash they wanted to buy food and that silver watches would not be worth the taking. A Disciple of Briggs. NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dyke, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Fifth Avenue and 37th Street, told his congregation today that if the theory of original scriptures were to be set up as a test of his orthodoxy, he would be driven from the Presbyterian church. Dr. Van Dyke's note of warning was uttered in unmistakable language, and he pointed out the dangers if the Briggs case were pushed on to the end. Lynch Justice. NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 22.—Last night a mob overpowered the jailer at Convent, St. James parish, and took out two negroes, Robert Landy and Pickett George, carried them a short distance to a shed, where they were hanged. The bodies were still hanging this morning. The offense charged against them was murder and robbery. ATTENTION. Spiced pigs feet, Sweet pickles in bulk, Sour pickles in bulk, Raisins, citrons, Lemon peel, extracts, etc., For the Holidays, can be found at F. E. ALLEN & CO.
