

GOOD EVENING.

CRAWFORD MONUMENT.—A short notice to the right as you enter the cemetery may now be seen one of the monuments in Oregon if not on the list. It has just been placed in position by the pioneer citizen, Mr. John A. Crawford, by T. G. Harkins, of 226 Salmon street. The monument is one that is admired by all for its solid, massive appearance and tasteful architecture. It is 9 feet high, and 12 feet wide, being built from the level of the ground, and weighs 16,000 pounds. The monument is made of granite, and is set in its place by the Crawford family. The monument is a fine example of the art of the sculptor, and is a fitting memorial to the pioneer citizen. The monument is a fine example of the art of the sculptor, and is a fitting memorial to the pioneer citizen.

O. P.—The following from the Democrat by one of the men present at the meeting referred to: "The meeting of employees of the Oregon Pacific railroad, held in Albany last night, Judge J. C. Fullerton, who was present, made the following statement: 'I am not here to get your money. I am here to get your business. I am not here to get your money. I am here to get your business. I am not here to get your money. I am here to get your business.'"

GERVAIS FAILURE.—The failure of Gervais bank seems to be an unfortunate one. The Gervais merchants got money out of deposit, while outside money failed to be on hand. County Judge Egan has attached the property of the bank, and the president of the bank has been arrested. The bank at Junction, Link and Sheridan. The bank at Junction, Link and Sheridan. The bank at Junction, Link and Sheridan.

BOGUS DETECTIVE.—The Oregonian says that H. J. Thompson, the bogus detective, who was arrested by Officer Carey Sunday night, was tried for carrying a concealed weapon. He endeavored to claim that he had a perfect right to do so, as a representative of Gervais' detective agency. Judge Carey thought differently, and Thompson $100. There is a good deal of talk as to who this man is, as he is said to be an Albany man.

WILKES was heard from yesterday morning at Eugene through a letter from Dr. H. Michner at Halsey. He is sick and unable to talk. His condition is evidently caused by a fatal overstrain, and his nervous system is quite broken up. He may be able to return to his work in a week or two. He was no doubt suffering from a slight mental aberration when he left, and must have taken the train somewhere below Eugene.

RECEIVED PAYMENT.—Frank Landry received Sunday a draft for $850 drawn on the treasury of the United States. It is in payment of the loss sustained by Landry in the destruction of his house and other property on Bear creek by the war of 1878. He was allowed $850, but $90 went to his attorney. G. D. Anderson also received payment of his claim, about $200—Pendleton E. O.

THEATRICAL.—Our citizens will soon be treated to a great theatrical treat. The Corday troupe on the evening, February 24, will present "Humbert" and "Wife and I" and on the afternoon of the 4th matinee, the "Bankers Daughter." The biggest houses of the season are expected. The Democrat will thoroughly report its readers before the date men.

PRICE.—To all Indian War Veterans. War Veterans are requested to call on and make application for Land Warrant, which they are entitled. No charge is successful. Call and get terms and details, free.

MONTAGNE & HACKLEMAN.—Will move Feb. 15th. From new unbleached cloth Boots and Shoes recently reduced prices in order to reduce large stock before moving in our new store. Respectfully,

Last evening the employees in the finishing department of the Woolen Mills tendered the popular superintendent, Mr. D. M. Walters, a surprise party, which proved one of the happy events of the season. Several hours were passed in a pleasant manner. A feature of the evening was the presentation to Mr. Walters, by Mr. William Galbraith on behalf of his fellow workmen of an elegant gold headed cane in honor of his 42nd birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. McHargue, Mr. and Mrs. Bruckman, Mr. and Mrs. Walters, Mrs. Laport, Misses Maggie Shupp, Lillie McHargue, Eva Turner, Fannie Tins, Mary Webber, Nellie Latty, Vena Stewart, Phillips, Jessie Haley, Phoebe Rhoades, Linda Miller, Bessie Dorris, Messrs. IS MARRIAGE A FAILURE.—An Albany man says that recently while ill he had plenty of time and figured it out that in the limit of his knowledge marriage had been a failure in six cases out of ten. Recently the Democrat mentioned how a Corvallis woman was in Albany after her husband. The Times says: Mrs. Mary Snell, concerning whom mention was recently made in these columns, called at this office yesterday morning and in a flood of tears told a story of unhappiness and wretchedness caused by the desertion and alleged cruel and inhuman treatment of her husband, J. P. Snell, of this city. The statements made, which are denied in toto by her late protector and provider, are not such as to warrant their being paraded before the public as matters of interest, but simply indicate that the married life of Mr. and Mrs. Snell, which only began last June, has been a stormy one and that the present separation will secure the greatest good for the greatest number. It is proper to remark that until the law dissolves the marriage contract and transfers Mrs. Snell to the care of others, it is Snell's duty to contribute a sufficient amount of his earnings to place her beyond the necessity of working from 4 a m to 11 p m which she claims she is required to do in her present position.

MISFITS.

The Oregonian says that Miller of Linn, one of the most active and promising new members in the lower house, gained his first important victory this afternoon in securing the passage of a bill for the construction of a highway at Oregon City falls. Miller made a sensible and energetic speech.

Here is something from the pen of Sam Simpson, Oregon's pioneer poet. It refers to the dying gasp of the republicans in Oregon:

The committee girls,
With their bangs and curls,
Are among them as of yore;
And a furtive kiss,
In a time like this,
Is good for a heart that's sore.
Let soon to die,
Let the last hour fly,
On the fragrant wings of joy;
For they soon will say,
To Old Nick's dismay,
We're glad to meet you boy!"

TO FURNISH THE Y. M. C. A. ROOMS.—The new rooms of the Y. M. C. A. will soon be completed. It is desired to furnish them just as neat and attractive as the means at command will allow. We are depending on the proceeds of the entertainment Friday evening in the opera house to supply this aid. A little help from every one will accomplish this worthy object, in which every citizen of Albany is interested.

READ Dr. Lowe's final announcement in another column. He leaves on the 1st of February. He has fitted a number of people in Albany with glasses who could never be suited before. If your sight is defective see him at once. His office is with Dr. Littler, the dentist.

An important thing to consider.
