

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.
GOOD EVENING.

THE MACCABEES.—The institution of the Tent of the Maccabees was held in the G. A. R. Hall last Saturday evening when twenty-six members were initiated and the following were elected officers:
Dr. M. H. Ellis, Past Sir Knight Com. mander.
A. L. Lamb, Sir Knight Commander.
Matt Scott, Sir Knight Lieutenant.
J. W. Heagles, Sir Knight Record Keeper.
E. U. Will, Sir Knight Fin. Keeper.
Geo. Meyers, Chaplain.
W. E. McPherson, Physician.
John Campbell, Sir Knight Sec'y. ent.
R. N. Morris, Master at arms.
G. W. Willis, 1st Knight of Guard.
J. I. Livingston, 2nd Knight of Guard.
Benj. Barker, Sentinel.
Joe Meyers, Picket.

The Rev. S. F. Loughbottom, of Brownsville, and pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of this city, delivered an address at the W. C. T. U. Hall Saturday evening before a fair sized audience, under the auspices of the Knights of the Maccabees. The gentleman is enthusiastic regarding the sheltering provided for widows, orphans and dependents, by becoming a member of this order, of which he is a member and is now Commander of Brownsville Tent.

A CANARD.—It is now claimed that the man published in the DEMOCRAT and other daily papers about two men being frozen to death up the Santiam, was simply a canard. The Portland Telegram was the guilty party; but was probably imposed upon.
One of the men, F. W. Hull, alleges with good deal of warmth that he was not frozen and was not even on a hunting trip, and writes a card to the press as follows: "I think the narrative is a canard, false from beginning to end. Whoever set such a story afloat intended a false personification of myself (in my opinion). Still, there may be a person by the name of F. W. Hull in Melama or Marion county. I think not do not know of three hunters as named in said relation; nor the old bachelor trapper Wolf, nor have I heard of any such calamity happening to any hunters at all this season."

STOOD UP.—One evening last week a high load of merry young people from Astoria neared Astoria, after a pleasant trip to Adams, when the cry, "Stop or I will shoot!" was heard. Soon a shadowy figure loomed up by the roadside, and a man emerged from the darkness. He gazed at the faces of all the sleigh's occupants, especially the girls, who had in the meantime been clinging in fright to their seats, and then gave the order to drive on. This was promptly obeyed. Later, the Weston members of the party were engaged in relating their exciting experience with a highwayman, when the true facts came out. The mysterious supposed road agent was Deputy Sheriff Stamper. It seems he had been sent in pursuit of a young lady who had been in the habit of slipping away to dances at Adams without her parents' knowledge, and on this very evening was out on a "hark." Mr. Stamper stopped the sleigh in the belief that she might be on board.—Pendleton E. O.

RECOVERED DAMAGES.—The jury in the case of Lorenzo Pavich vs. The Oregonian Publishing company handed in a sealed verdict last Saturday. When opened it was discovered that Pavich had been awarded $1500 damages. Several months since the complainant, then working on the Oregonian building, fell down an elevator shaft sustaining serious injuries. The Oregonian company put in the claim that it was not in control of the structure at the time, and that the contractor, if anybody, was responsible for the accident.

MONTANA MINES.—The Engineering and Mining Journal gives the following as the dividends paid by Montana mines, which publish their statements, in 1892: Gold Butte, $20,000; Bambster, $6,000; Elmore, $200,000; Elk Horn, $320,000; Granite Mountain, $300,000; Hecla Consolidated, $180,000; Helena and Victor, $20,000; Iron Mountain, $135,000; Jay Hawk, $33,375; Mountain, $32,000; Panhandle, $3,000; Parrot, $216,000; Rocky Fork Coal, 100,000; Total, $1,805,875.

REACHED THE CLIMAX.—They have a man in the Washington legislature who knows how to express himself. In explaining his vote he indulged in this criticism: "You may hang Puget sound on a tree to dry, you may place Mount Rainier on a nail leg, unbundle the belly-rod of eternity, but you will never get me to vote for a man I do not believe entitled to a seat in this house."

THE PRESENT DELAY in opening the newly surveyed lands for settlement, is owing to discrepancies in the field notes which takes time to correct. The British settlers will therefore be obliged to wait until the correction is made. Notice will be published in due time, however, by the land office officials of the full acceptance and the date of commencement of filing.—Mill City Gazette.

RED GLOVES from $1.50 pair up. I carry all lines of leading brands in black and colored. Will receive no orders for the holidays. Agent for the celebrated Centimeter glove. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

STOP at Will & Stark's when you are after diamonds, the best watches, and the finest silverware to be secured. They save them.
A HANDSOME PRIZE.—A beautiful silver water pitcher, now on exhibition at F. L. Keaton's grocery store, will be given away on Washington's birthday. A ticket is given for every 40 cent cash purchase.

MISFITS.
According to local papers the Salem City council are not dwelling together in unity enough to attract much attention. The opposite is evidently true.
Oregon will get about $5,000 a year for public surveys. That is a very insignificant sum in the hands of the average civil engineer. Some of them could hardly cross a river with that amount.

Walla Walla Statesman: Don't "dun" anybody on a postal card. A Pendleton man is in trouble for dunning a delinquent on a postal card. The postoffice regulations forbid the mailing of a postal card upon which is written a dun, which most people don't know.

Edward F. Searies, who is enjoying the Hopkins millions, will build for Bowdoin college the finest and best equipped structure for the study of the sciences that skill, money and care can provide in making it superior to any other of its kind in the country. That is the kind of a man who ought to get somebody's millions.

It is probable that the only way in which an appropriation can be secured for the World's Fair will be an item in the general appropriation bill. The Governor has been understood to say that if the legislature passes the $60,000 appropriation over his veto he will be tempted to resign.—Journal. Why not pass it then.

The city of St. Petersburg is preparing to build a bridge over the Neva to cost $14,000,000. The plans and specifications were drawn by Eiffel, the distinguished French architect and engineer, just sentenced to several years imprisonment as a fraud.

Portland and the sound cities are already talking about league baseball, and are figuring Salem in the circuit with Portland, Seattle and Tacoma. This is the same gag they worked on us last year, and it won't succeed a second time. They will have to spring something new if they expect us to bite.—Statesman.

The Portland Welcome looks at it this way: "The repeal of the indebtedness clause subjects to assessment nearly $17,000,000 worthy of property owned by millionaires and heretofore non-assessable. This enormous sum, even at 2 per cent, will furnish $340,000 annually. In the past the people of Multnomah county have been robbed of this amount, now the capitalists will have to pay for protection like common persons."

This is the last week of the biennial meeting of the state legislature and lacy clerks at Salem. Some good bills have passed, and some poor ones. Most members have worked hard to serve their constituents and get a name for themselves. Linn county has been well represented. There are members from a few counties though who would never have been heard of but for the local papers' $25 writeups illustrated.
For the past week or two there has been a bitter famine in Roseburg, not a pound of that article being obtainable in any of the stores. It is not the fault of the merchants, for they are willing, even anxious to supply their customers, but the low price of 30 cents per pound does not seem to justify the cow owners in making any undue exertions to fill "a long felt want." It seems queer that the Oregon butter cow should so neglect her business in the winter season.—Roseburg Plaindealer.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

H. F. Merrill and sister went to Portland this noon.
Mr. Sid Dorris is home from a trip to California.
Alba Haywood is coring this way, one of the best comedians ever in Albany.
Miss Maggie Murray, who has been attending school in Salem, is home on a visit.
Miss Hade Black, a legislative clerk, spent Sunday in Albany with her sister, of the public schools.
Licenses have been issued for the marriage of A. B. Burrell and Della McKinney and Jas. E. Mundy and Ida Maple.
Mrs. P. Y. Duncan, who has been lying seriously ill, is reported some better, a fact her many friends will be glad to learn.

Remember the social and entertainments at the old U. P. Church tomorrow night. St. Valentine may have something for you at it.
Mayor Alexander, of Pendleton, has resigned because Councilman Pickinger used insulting language to him on the streets.
Miss Eva Davenport, who has been obtaining notoriety in Portland on account of a divorce case between Geo. F. Brackett and his wife, is said to be Miss Eva Harris, formerly of Albany.

A LECTURE.—The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church of this city has been fortunate in securing the Rev. J. A. Brown, D. D. of Portland, to deliver his celebrated lecture, "Father Time," on the evening of the 24th. Wherever Dr. Brown has lectured he has captivated his audiences. The public of Albany may be assured of a good thing in the hearing of this lecture.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE

SPECIAL TO DEMOCRAT.
SALLEM, Or., Feb. 13.—House: Resolution by Upton requiring state officials to make enrollment returns for fiscal year, adopted. Upton specific contract bill lost. Geer, bill to exempt all credits from taxation special order Tuesday, 4 p. m. Manly bill relating to assessment and collection of taxes, one place, one time and to one officer. Ormsby bill fixing hours of labor on street railways at twelve and one half out of twenty-four, recommended to affix penalty clause. Upton bill to make county commissioner court board of equalization, passed. Daily bill for south eastern Oregon graded schools five thousand dollars, passed. Currin bill relating to pharmacy passed. Ford called up motion to reconsider bill creating state board of stenographic examiners. House special order this afternoon: 133 Governors veto World's fair bill. Bill to increase powers state board horticulture, 3 o'clock.
Senate: To regulate rates on railroad traffic at The Dalles, 2:30; Weatherford bill to fix maximum salaries all public officers, 2 o'clock.

INJUNCTION SUITS.—A Hackleman, J. H. Mollen and J. A. Brown, have brought injunction suits against the city of Albany to restrain it from selling certain property for street improvements as advertised. It is claimed the work was poorly done. Mrs. M. E. Farrell, whose property was advertised at the same time, paid the amount of the assessment under protest, to await the result of these suits.

NO BOTTOM TO THEM.—The Sheridan, Junction and Gervais banks seem to have been run on a decidedly shallow basis. All the assets to the Sheridan bank the Sheriff could find was $12,507.18 and some of that was good for nothing. The books showed more; but it was mostly a poor showing. People should not trust banks without a standing. The collapse is always very unpleasant.

SERVICES at the Cumberland Presbyterian church conducted by Rev. L. S. Loughbottom yesterday were most impressive, the attendance good and the pathos and feeling of the clergyman was conveyed to the congregation, and tears unbidden would start in response to the parental kindly words so eloquently spoken. In the evening E. W. Acheson was ordained Elder, and kind words and cordial grasp of the hand caused all to feel encouraged and resolved to sustain both pastor and elder. H. V.

HOME AND ABROAD

Regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. tomorrow afternoon at the hall.
The Dayton Times recently burned out is again with us in an entirely new dress.
Motor makes five trips daily to Viereck's addition. Lot there on instalments of $1 per week.
The Willamette this afternoon was 165 feet above low water; at 7 o'clock a.m. it was 153 feet; and at 5 o'clock last night, 12.4 feet.

Even now large numbers of Chinese pheasants are in the San Francisco market, shipped from this valley. The offenders should be prosecuted in a red hot manner.

The front to the new Klein store is going to be a fine one. Large plate glass sets it off to great advantage. Mr. Klein proposes to have the handsome shoe store in the state south of Portland without an exception.

Judge Marquam, of Portland, has agreed to pay W. C. Avery $5000 for the death of Mrs. Avery, caused by her falling down the elevator shaft of the Marquam building.

The Capitol Engine property in Salem has been sold to Thos. Holman for $15,000. The company will have a new house further from the law in its part of the city.

The Excelsior creamery of Humbolt Co., Calif., paid a cash dividend of 20 per cent last year. The average price received for butter was 25 cents. Many creameries, though, pay the other way.

Mr. R. G. Watson will move his grocery store into the new Wood brick, opposite his present store, in a few days. Mrs. Mueller, who owns the building vacated, will move it to a lot owned by her a short distance east.

Mr. Wallace Hallwin has a Sandwich Island paper of Jan 31st, containing many matters of great interest on account of the great civil upheaval there. Most Oregonians would like to see these islands a part of the U. S. Certainly no other government has any claim on them.

Bob Johnson, formerly editor of the Corvallis Times, the other evening in addressing the legislative committee on counties, said that if the proposed counties of Lincoln and Blaine were created, Benton would have nothing left but the court house and cemetery.

The East Oregonian asserts that Senator Jeff Myers "likes to be mentioned by the newspapers." It might add with the truth that the newspapers like to mention Senator Myers. He is a favorite with the press gang, and he deserves to be.

A BIG STAGE.—"All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players; They have their exits and their entrances." One of their principal entrances leads into Parker Bros grocery and bakery. The finest groceries and the freshest produce are kept, and their baked goods are beyond comparison, consisting of a big variety of breads and cakes, plain and fancy, skillfully and well made. An important thing to consider.

The Union Pacific have published a very neat pictorial World's Fair folder, containing colored lithographs of the various Exposition buildings, bird's eye view of the grounds, with a complete map of the city, showing location of the fair, hotels, railway depots, street car lines and city parks. Copy of same may be had by addressing W. H. Hurlbert, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Portland, Ore.
