CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

GOOD EVENING.

WASSON IN JAIL.—Morg Wasson was brought to Albany last night and placed in the county jail, having waived examination before the justice at Lebanon, being held without bail for the grand jury. The evidence before the coroner was substantially as stated by the DEMOCRAT, which, though, gave two names wrong. The liquor drummer present at the shooting was W H Carroll, of San Francisco, and not Smead Wallis, who, though, was in Lebanon at the time, and Wasson had been drinking at the saloon of J C Mayer instead of W H Guy's. During the shooting Mossholder and Carroll were sitting by a stove in the rear of the saloon, after having drank with Wasson and Grubbe as stated. Wasson drew his revolver while Grubbe was at the bar, and the latter followed Wasson to the door, endeavoring to take it from him. When just outside the door Wasson fired, hitting Grubbe near the nipple, severing the aorta artery, and the dying man only gasped once or twice, and was dead when Mossholder and Carroll reached the door. They did not see the shot fired. A DEMOCRAT man called on Mr Wasson at the jail. Since the affair he has been sick at his stomach, and not only looks bad, but dejected. He said he would make no statement at all. The sentiment at Lebanon is against him. At the same time Grubbe's record is not the best, which, though, what ever it is, has little to do with this case. When it happened he was unarmed. The case will excite general attention.

IT WILL BE LIGHT.—The DEMOCRAT is informed arrangements are being made by which Albany will have an increased electric light service, at least sixteen arc lights, at $13 a light, which number will be increased as the city's finances justify. Albany has one of the best systems on the coast, one that speaks for the city, when enough lights are used to illuminate the whole city.

A POETIC WORK.—Oregon has a poet. Mr Charles Grissen, of McMinnville, has issued, through Lewis & Dryden, a work in blank verse called "Idylls, a Romance of Seaside." A quick glance at it indicates considerable poetic genius, and that it is a work of merit, one that people of literary taste should possess. Send 50 cents to the author for a copy.

THEY HAVE MOVED.—Klein Bros are now in their new quarters in the Cusick block, and invite the public to call and see their metropolitan store, and as well inspect their large and fine line of boots and shoes, for men, women and children. They are prepared to meet all the demands of the public for foot wear.

NOTICE.—Friends of kindergartens let meet and attend school meeting at court house next Monday evening at 7 o'clock, March 6. You remember the question of making it a part of our school system, was discussed at last meeting, and action deferred. Come out and hear something interesting this time. Remember 7 o'clock March 6. KINDERGARTEN.

YOUNG LADIES are especially invited to the Illustrated Talk at the rooms of the Vial Co, in Baltimore block, Thursday at 7 p.m.

THEATRICAL.—"Edgewood Folks" is a very pleasing, simple story, prettily told. It is an easy, natural and singularly faithful picture of home life in a quiet out-of-the-way New England village. Tom Dilloway (Alba Haywood) is the central figure, but the other characters are very truthful life pictures (some of them very quaint and they are, without exception, well taken by the company. At the opera house Friday night.

LAUNDRY WORK. The new Albany Laundry have placed their rates at bottom figures. Owing to the small amount of accounts cash payments will be expected on delivery of goods, thus doing away with the necessity of extra trips for collection. Promptness in this respect will be greatly appreciated.

THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD.—For a purse lost in or about the city of Albany, on the road to my home near Tangent on Feb 27, containing about $240 in gold. I will pay the above reward to any one returning the same to me.

A J OLIN. MONEY TO LOAN.—I have money in sums of $500 to $20,000 to loan on improved farm lands in Linn and Benton counties, at lowest current rates, delay in furnishing the money. C G BURKHART Real estate agent, Albany, Oregon.

BOOTS AND SHOES.—I carry the largest line of medium priced and good wearing boys', misses and children shoes in the city, and have just added a line of steel shod school shoes which I recommend to the trade. Don't forget that I repair any shoe I sell free of charge.

1893.—During the year 1893, from beginning to end, Will & Stark propose to keep up their reputation of having the best stock of jewelry, watches, silver ware, etc., in the valley. If you want the best goods at reasonable prices call on them.

Miss Edith Harris, of Salem, will begin with her class of music, vocal and instrumental, on March 1st. She may be seen at this date on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, at Mrs Martin Payne's, opposite the Congregational church.

THE OREGON PACIFIC

The experts make a Good Report

A dispatch, dated Feb 25th, in the San Francisco Chronicle, is of great importance. It reads: Heavy Wood and E C M Rand, the railway experts employed by the bondholders' committee of the Oregon Pacific Railway to examine the property and affairs of the company have submitted their report. The experts estimate that the present value of the property of the Oregon Pacific is $1,500,000. They charge wasteful management and extravagance in construction. They were unable to determine the nature of the relations between the Oregon Development Company and the Oregon Pacific, except that the two companies are under the same management. They think that under careful management the value of the property could be largely increased. The joint report is supplemented by a statement from Expert Rand in which he says that between $350,000 and $400,000 of receiver's certificates have been issued which are invalid. He advises that the road be extended to Boise City on the east and that a line be built from Albany northward to Portland, thence over the ridge and along the coast to the harbor of Astoria. An address has been issued by the committee asking the bondholders to agree to an assessment of 150 on each bond and to authorize the committee to buy the property at the sale, which has been fixed for March.

CORVALLIS, Or, Feb 28.—The Oregon Pacific sale was postponed until Tuesday next.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Tuesday evening, Feb 28th, 1893. Present—Recorder, Marshal, Street Superintendent, City Attorney and Councilmen Whitney, Stewart, Pfeiffer, Burkhardt, Marshal and Wheeler. In absence of Mayor, Councilman Burkhardt was elected Mayor pro tem. The following bills were ordered paid: Stites & Nutting, $6.12; Santiam Lumber Co, $61.86; J Whitesides, $4.55; Wade & Co, $3.00; Train & Whitney, $7.84; Robt Brown, $6.60; Geo P Crauser, 50; Stewart & Sox, $9.85; N J Henton $37.20; city bills $5.90; street work, $119.05. W E Keeley, $36.20. Bill of W B Barr for $20.00 continued unanimously. Councilman Whitney moved an investigation by a committee of two of the bill of W B Barr, for $20, testimony under oath to be taken before the recorder, in writing, the object stated being to prevent the city paying $5.00 for a days work, when but a few minutes service has been done. Lost. The committee on streets and public property recommended that W U T Company be granted privilege of stretching wire over bridge under directions of committee on streets and public property. Bridges were ordered built over ditch on 8th and Vine and 9th and Vine by street commissioner, assisted by competent person, to be 18 feet wide, 8th street to be graded Calapooia to Vine. Claim of Sarah Dodder, for $10 on account of overcharge in sewer work, not granted. Recorder reported lumber contract signed by John Leedy. Street commissioner recommended that sidewalks Water to 9th street be repaired, mud holes filled and ordinance in reference to emptying spittoons on streets be enforced. Referred. The matter of the law in reference to per diem of City surveyor referred to City attorney and Councilman Whitney for interpretation at next meeting. Fred Bies granted one days grace in which to pay license, then to be granted. License to sell liquor was granted Kasper Vandran and Hernan Burlow.

TRIUMPH SULKY PLOW.

J I Case plow works, sole manufacturer, Racine, Wisconsin. To satisfy all that the Triumph sulky plow is lighter draft than a walking plow, our Mr N B Kizer will give an exhibition on the farm of H D Burkhardt, one half mile east of Albany on Saturday, March 11th, 1893, commencing at 10 o'clock a.m. At this exhibition a man will pull the Triumph cutting a full size furrow. Mr Kizer will have with him a dynamometer of the latest and most approved pattern, he will demonstrate by actual tests that the Triumph sulky draws lighter than a walking plow. He will explain to you the advantage of having a sulky plow with both furrow wheels under control of the pole, beam pivoted to the frame at two points, yielding connection between furrow wheels, bottom attached to the beam, not to the frame, bottom so it can be leveled from point to heel, foot lift to assist raising the plow, a loose pole, making no weight on horses necks, angled wheels, taking pressure from land-side and one that turns a square corner to right or left, relieves itself in stony or stumpy ground, lifts out point first, and enters point first, will open a land as desired. The Triumph has all these points. Come and see and be convinced. For sale by Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co, Albany Or.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Rev J Stewart, of Portland, was in the city to-day.

Remember the dancing school and social at the Opera House to-night.

Mrs Wm Power, of Salem, is in the city the guest of Ler son, Mr E L Power.

Mrs G L Thompson arrived from Albany today, and will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs B Rhogas, for a week, during her journal.

Charles Brown is now at his old stand opposite the Russ House, where he is prepared to do first class barber work. For a good shave call on him. He is prepared to satisfy the public.

An Oregonian dispatch says: The Rev J R N Bell, of Roseburg, is here in Washington and is looking over the field. He says very candidly that he will assist Mr Cleveland in running the next administration. He is a democrat and perhaps he has in his pocket just what he needs to make him the dispenser of democratic patronage for Oregon.

Dr E L Irvine informs the DEMOCRAT that his father is recovering rapidly, and that his recovery will be complete both mental and physically, and in fact the apoplectic stroke did not affect his intellectual centers from the first. The delirium was the result of fever only. He has been up all day today, conversing with friends and is able to walk without assistance. This good news will be welcomed by his many friends all over the state.

MINUTE

The new assessment law comes too late to be observed this year. The city recorder will assess Albany this year as usual and the marshal do the collecting. Next year it will undoubtedly be in full running order.

From a gentleman who has just returned from a trip up through the Willamette valley, it is learned that the crop outlook is better than it has been for many years. Farmers are busy plowing and preparing for seeding, and the winter wheat is looking fine. Fruit trees have stood the winter well, and have a healthy look.—Telegram.

There has been a general shaking up of employees on the Oregon Pacific during the past few days. Guy Powers, who has had charge of the Salem dock, went to Portland yesterday to go on the Hoag as purser. C B Miller takes charge of the Oregon Pacific dock at Salem. H H Cronise has resigned as agent for the company at Portland, and Mr Day, formerly purser on the Hoag, takes charge of the company's Portland office.—Statesman.

OAKVILLE.

The Columbian literary society meets every week, and besides a first class programme they debate one of the leading questions of the day, such as "The Tariff," "Supply and demand," "The Evil of Withholding the Cannon on Inauguration Day," etc. Some of the most talented men in the state take part in the discussion. If the DEMOCRAT had a reporter here he could get enough items to fill a whole page, but in getting a reporter he sure to get one that can spell correctly, and not spell out with a "oo" as an Oakville correspondent of a county paper did lately.

Improvements are the order of the day in the city.

Mr Martin, of Eugene, is visiting friends here and doing work in the cemetery.

The first church bell in the city will be put in place in the belfry of the U P church in the near future; then those who are too far away to hear it ring can see it ring.
