A PIONEER DEAD.—Nathaniel Greene... McDonald, a pioneer of 1845, died at his... home near Seio yesterday afternoon at the... age of 76 years. The following excellent... sketch of his life appears in the Statesman:... Mr McDonald was born in North Carolina... August 10, 1816. He went to Missouri... when a young man and near St. Joseph, in... that state, he married Miss Rebecca J... Munlockers, and the young couple came... overland to Oregon in 1845 and settled in Clack-... annas county near Oregon City. A little... later, however, he removed to Linn county... and took up a donation land claim of 640... acres. Mr McDonald took part in the... organization of the first county formed on the... Pacific coast—Clackamas. Upon the break-... ing out of the Cayuse Indian war in 1846... Mr McDonald volunteered his service and... he performed valorous service in the ranks... under Captain Gilliam. In one of the en-... gagements of the campaign Mr McDonald... was shot through the right lung, the bullet... passing entirely through his body. The... wound thus received never fully healed and... it gave much trouble during the remainder... of the old soldier's life, hard worker though... he was. Nine children were born to Mr... and Mrs McDonald, the eldest of whom... was the mother of Hon Jeff Myers. She... died a dozen years ago. Two others of the... children are deceased; the others are all in... Oregon. Mrs McDonald survives. Mr... McDonald was always a warm democrat. Within... the past year he united with the... Cumberland Presbyterian church. He was... a man of sterling honesty and he stamped... his individuality upon what ever he was... identified with. He never sought for polit-... ical honors.
