

THE FARMERS HOPE.

Our elevators are bursting with wheat for which the farmer can command but little more than 60 cents a bushel.

Not the sea, for it costs no more to send a bushel of wheat abroad than to send a letter in the mail, but the McKinley bill, which takes from the farmer, or his middleman, one-third or one-half of the commodities for which he might exchange this surplus wheat in foreign markets as a fine for not buying those commodities from some protected home producer.

It is clear, then, that whatever direct benefits may come to classes from release of taxes on the necessities they consume on materials with which they work, the great general good to be sought in tariff revision is a healthy expansion of foreign commerce.

Under the new revenue tariff enacted in that year it swelled by 1860 to $687,000,000, a growth of more than 200 per cent in 14 years.

These figures speak volumes, but their chief encouragement is for those who produce the surplus products that must have other markets besides our own for remunerative sales.

The tariff of 1846 made a vent for our surplus products by opening a market for the things which, and which alone, other peoples had to exchange for them.

The party of low tariff and revenue duties is not about to try a new and dangerous experiment. It has no new fangled theory which it wishes to test upon the body politic.

McKinley, bankrupt but for the gifts of those whom he secured beneficial legislation at the expense of the masses, talks on the financial situation. Archaus Ward would call it "sarkasm."

Mr. Churchill, formerly of Churchill & Taylor, surveyors and civil engineers, Mt. Vernon, Washington, writes: "Southern California was my home for many years. When I came here I began to be afflicted all over with Rheumatism."

It is the farmers' duty to get anything for their wool either the McKinley bill or the Democratic party should be repealed.

We have been trying the McKinley bill now for three years and as it has proven an utter failure in the way of securing good prices for wool, the only logical course to pursue is to repeal it and the party that imposes it upon an unwilling people.

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD CUTS THE RATE IN TWO.—Rates named by the Northern Pacific are now reduced about one-half, and are the lowest rates ever named by any line from Portland. This will give every one an opportunity to go east and visit the Yellowstone Park and the world's fair.

Strawberries as F. L. Kenton's every morning.

Senator Edmunds attributes the "hard times" to the Democratic Administration, and then proceeds to confess that they are mainly due to the Sherman law, for which he is sorry he voted, which was passed by a Republican Congress, signed by a Republican President and which, after its disastrous operations had been clearly demonstrated, the Republicans of the succeeding Congress refused to aid in repealing because, as they patriotically acknowledged, they wished to "put the Democrats in a hole."

The health department of Berlin reports that the juice of the lemon and orange, or the acid it contains, is fatal to the bacilli of cholera. Those who use it freely are not subject to attacks of the disease.

Mr. Black has entered upon his duties as collector of customs. He says no changes will be made right away. He says that he has decided upon but one name yet, that of Fred of Roseburg for assistant collector.

The price of wheat and corn in Chicago was promptly advanced when the president's proclamation convening congress was made public. Wheat advanced 3 cents and corn 1 1/2 cents.

Queen Victoria has contributed $100 to the fund for the benefit of the families of the Victoria victims. The Queen rarely raises the $100 limit for charity.

Under the new ruling of the pension commissioner badness is no longer regarded as sufficient disability to entitle an applicant to a pension.

Prof. Felix L. Oswald predicts this country will have 300,000,000 inhabitants in 1993.

THE GREAT CIRCUS.—That the Printers Art keeps pace with modern progress, in fact in advance of it, can be seen by an inspection of Sanger & Lent's advertising material; by far the finest paper ever posted in our city. Jno J. Holland, the globe trotter and veteran circus agent, says this show has eight hundred and forty kinds, all different size shows bills, from 10 by 28 inches to 7 feet by 100. The American printer excels in every particular. The Great Shows will exhibit here on the 4th of July.
