

Return of J. HARRY GAY

Ophthalmic Optician, Optical Specialist,

Will again be in Albany next week 4 days, with office at Revere House, beginning Monday, July 10th.

GOOD EVENING.

IS IT WRECKED.—The O P train, due here at 11:13 o'clock, left Chitwood this morning at 8:30 o'clock and has not been heard from since.

Later.—The cause was a burning tree falling across the trestle work.

OREGON STANDS HIGH.—An interesting album of crop statistics has been issued by the department of agriculture at Washington.

OREGON SALMON.—The Chicago Inter Ocean of June 29th says: Yesterday the Oregon commission sliced a Royal Chinook salmon weighing seventy-two pounds into steaks to be distributed among their Chicago friends.

MUST RETRENCH.—Besides the general quiet times all over the U. S. Florence, in Lane county, is being affected seriously by a local matter.

RUN INTO.—Geo M Starr, of Philomath, was run into by the O P train and more or less hurt. Mr Starr is quite deaf and is 76 years of age.

WILL PLAY BALL.—Independence and Albany play base ball at this city tomorrow and Sunday, beginning at 2:30 o'clock.

CAP. ALL RIGHT BUT ONE LEGGED.—Yesterday evening Mrs. Burmeister, sister of Capt. N. B. Humphrey, who lost a leg on the 4th of July by a railroad accident, telegraphed him for news of his condition.

LAWN SOCIAL.—The ladies of the Christian church will give a lawn social at the home of R F Crosby, corner of 5th and Jefferson streets, on Tuesday evening July 11.

Hodges & M. Farland, the leading druggists, Albany, O.

Latest efforts in carpets and portiers to arrive with this weeks steamer freight for Albany Furniture Co.

A nice line of Negligee shirts from 47¢ up at Read, Peacock & Co's.

HOME AND ABROAD

A span of horses costing $125 sold in Corvallis for $11. Tough on the horse market.

The circus to be in Albany on July 27th is Leon W Washburne's Great European Railroad shows.

A gentleman from Chicago is in the city today engaging the growing prune crop.

Among the features of the 4th of July celebration at Waterous was a speech by Mr B F Ramp, of this city.

Whether a big or small person, Walter Irving is prepared to whip the man who stuck four pins in his pneumatic tire.

The Kings Daughters society will give a social at the W C F U hall tonight. Ice cream and cake 15cts. All are cordially invited.

Wilson Bros last week sold the Corvallis opera house to Rev W C Crawford, under whose management it is understood it will be conducted in the future.

Rev Robert Collyer, whose date for a lecture was recently cancelled in this city, is to lecture in Corvallis tonight. A big ad with Mr Collyer's picture graces the pages of the Times.

The Portland exposition will open Sept. 27th and close Oct. 28th, this year. The prospectus, just issued, is an elegant affair, and the best yet produced.

The receipts of the Denver and Rio Grande R R for the past year were $9,315,457; operating expenses, $5,280,903. Net earnings, $4,034,554. No fuzzards on that.

Among the exhibits at the World's fair will be a pack of cards that were captured from Chief Gerolim, of the Apaches, and which are made from human skin.

Matters are lively in Oregon, compared to Colorado, where the governor has been petitioned to call a special session of the legislature for the purpose of passing an act staying the proceedings for the collection of debts.

At the Dallas celebration Rev J R N Bell received the prize for being the biggest footed man. Ben Taylor, of Salem, won the bicycle race for men, and Miss Mary Sprenger, of Albany, the bicycle race for ladies.

Blonde, the Oregon horse that lowered the world's record of 4:24 1/2 for two mile trot to 4:48 at Salem Wednesday, is not standard bred. But a dash of Oregon blood does not seem to hurt.

The executive committee of the people's party of Linn county met last Saturday. Mr Lewelling was appointed to fill the vacancy of A Jack Adams.

An Industrial Legion was organized at Lebanon with 25 members recently. B F Ramp made the speech of the occasion.

In its account of the 4th of July celebration at Eugene the Register says: The horse race in the evening was won by the Rescuers, they making a run of 300 feet to the hydrant and laying 150 feet of hose in 29 seconds.

The Rev Wallace, of Monroe, has surely got the "old scratch" by the foretop and given him a flip. He was the direct cause of thirty-seven people who attended the camp meeting at Belfontaine last Sunday coming over to Christ.—Corvallis Times.

Cusick, one of the circus change fakirs, was arrested at Salem for swindling a young man out of several dollars.

The Lebanon 4th of July celebration had some funny features. The wheel-borrow race was won by a woman, Mrs J G Reed, J E Miller was the highest kicker, J B Charlton had the largest feet, Mrs Buzenles the largest lady's feet, Addie Simpson was the best looking lady; Mrs Springle had the best looking baby under 1 year of age.

A BUSHING BUSINESS.—The Red Crown Roller Mills are now running night and day to meet the large orders ahead. In the past two weeks one thousand barrels of flour have been shipped away.

A LIVE TIME.—Carlyle Laughhead, the popular engineer, was the first man to make a bling in "10-4." He located a claim at the land office door in Oregon City Sunday evening at 6 o'clock and remained until 9 o'clock.

THE SALEM RACES.—Yesterday at Salem the three-eighths mile dash was won by Ronok in 35 seconds. The one mile dash was won by Nipper in the good time of 1:47 1/2.

A PANHANDLE.—Oregon has a panhandle. It has been discovered at the school land office that the legislature is describing the boundary of Lincoln county, a strip on the west side of the county, between Polk and the Siletz reservation belonging to Tillamook was left out.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr Robert Huston, of Corvallis, is in the city.

Hon Cyrus Westlake, of San Jose, Calif., is in the city.

Miss Bert Enos, of Portland, is in the city, the guest of her mother.

Mr Thomas Kay, of the Salem Woolen Mills, was in the city today. He has just returned from a business trip to Alaska.

E F Sox and family returned this noon from the World's fair, including Carlton, who has been attending the Monmouth College.

Messrs Shea and Mullens, of the Albany club, went to Salem today to make arrangements if possible for the removal of the Independence club to that city.

Wednesday morning there was united in the holy bonds of wedlock two of society's very choicest people, Professor Covell, of the State Agricultural College, and Miss Mollie Spencer, who is well known as a teacher in the Corvallis Public schools.—Times.

Miss Maud Hoffman, who recently made her debut as Juliet in Boston, has been engaged by E S Willard for next season.—S. F. Evening Post. Mr Willard is one of the leading managers of the country and Miss Hoffman's engagement is to be accepted as a strong evidence of success.

William F Herrin, of San Francisco, has been appointed chief of the law department of the Southern Pacific R. Co. His salary will be about $40,000. W F H his other business he will have an income of about $75,000. Mr Herrin is only 38 years of age. He obtained his reputation principally in the Sharon-Hill case. An interesting thing in connection with his life is the fact that he was born and raised in Jackson county, in this state, and was educated in the Agricultural College at Corvallis.

DOWN GO THE RATES.—The Union Pacific now lead with reduced rates to eastern points, and their through car arrangements, magnificently equipped Pullman and Tourist sleepers, free reclining chair car and fast time, make it the best line to travel. Two trains leave from Portland daily at 8:45 a m and 7:30 p m. The rates are now within reach of all, and everybody should take advantage of them to visit the World's fair and their friends in the east.

W H HURLBURT, Ass't Gen'l Pass. Agent, U. P. Portland, Or.

WAS CELEBRATING.—Many will appreciate the following from the Lumberman: On Tuesday last J C Young had a very narrow escape from being burned out. Mr Young's little four-year-old son, who had been firing fire crackers, built a fire under the corner of his father's place of business, and when discovered, was quietly piling on fuel to make the blaze larger.

A WATCH IS NECESSARY nowadays, if you want one call on W J Stark, whose stock is large and varied, and prices the most reasonable. They can give you a bargain in this line as well as in jewelry generally.

Only $1.50 for latest styles Oxford Ties at Read, Peacock & Co's.
