

A Salem Celestial has learned to ride bicycle.

You can go to Chicago for $25, but it costs regular fare to come back.

E. C. Bernhart, who was reported to have cut his throat in a cheap lodging house, has turned up at Corvallis. He is said to have been on foot. He is evidently attempting to create a sensation.

Mr. Julius Gradwohl, Albany agent of the German American Insurance Company, informs the DEMOCRAT that Mr. A. F. Hamilton, of Sweet Home, insured in that company for $2800, and who was recently burned out, has been paid in full, dollar for dollar. This is prompt payment.

Salem will send a five man team to Chicago in September to compete in the World's tournament at inanimate targets. Albany could send a strong team in P. J. Baltimore, L. W. Dwyer, George and Grant Froman and D. B. Montefelt.

There are people who like troubles so well that they make themselves miserable over their past, present and future troubles. If you are bound to be miserable confine yourself to present troubles, and let the others go.

M. E. Kellogg, M. K. Griffin, F. W. Griffin, E. Kelley, S. E. Murray, M. E. Griffin, J. Parker and C. Griffin, have located the "Green Horn Bar" on the north side of the Santiam one mile north of the junction of the south fork and Soda fork.

H. L. Cranor has been appointed manager of the Albany base ball club, to succeed Mr. Wheeler, who will be obliged to be in the country during the summer. A new pitcher will be employed and the club strengthened to meet the other increasingly stronger clubs.

Several were interested this morning in seeing a special train transferred from the Southern Pacific to the O. P. track and go west. It was simply Koehler and Fields special being transferred to the West Side, and did not justify any wild rumors.

At a meeting of the Jefferson Institute the following teachers were employed for the coming school year: Principal, Prof. Louis Larzee of the Sodaville seminary; first assistant, Miss Minnie Watkins, of Linn county, and primary, Mrs. Steves, also of Linn county.

Mr. L. C. Jeffers was arrested last evening on complaint of Jos. Meyers for assault and battery, and fined $5 and costs by Justice Curl. The affair arose from a dispute about the recent charges against Mr. Jeffers of opening a letter while working for Mr. Meyers.

The Statesman says: Yesterday Manager Douglas C. Minto brought the Salem team to this city and will have the diamond at the fair grounds fixed up this week, ready to contest the Oregon City team next Saturday. On Saturday next the visiting team and the home team, headed by the Second Regiment band will parade the streets before the game. Joe Leveque of the California league will be here Thursday to pitch for the team.

Mr. Hadley of the Oregon Pacific writes Crook county people that strenuous efforts are being made to raise money to build the O. P. to the Deschutes. Let this be done so that Eastern Oregon is fairly tapped, and the business of the road will be wonderfully increased. It will be a ten stroke. The terminus would prove the shipping point for the products of the country for many miles in all directions.

At the regular meeting of the Epworth League of the M. E. church held last evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: President, May Edwards; 1st Vice, John Connelin; 2nd Vice, Lillie Rideout; 3rd Vice, Bertha Swartz; 4th Vice, Anna Huston; secretary, Winnie Chamberlin; treasurer, J. A. DuMont; organist, Emma Cougill; assistant organist, Lizzie Starbuck; chorister, J. M. Isham; ushers, Collins and Luther Elkins.

Last evening the case of the State against Z. J. J. charged with obstructing the Santiam at Niagara so that fish cannot pass to the river, was tried before Justice Newport. J. R. Wyatt and Game Warden H. P. McGuire appeared for the prosecution, and H. H. Hewitt and J. K. Weatherford for the defendant. Justice Newport heard the testimony of the prosecution, the defense introducing none, and took the case under consideration until tomorrow.

J. A. Gwynn, chief engineer of the government snag boat, The Corvallis, was in the city today. The Corvallis is on Luckiamute bar, where she is going to put in a dyke. This is the worst bar in the river and shuts off navigation about it for at least a month each year. Even now it is almost impossible to get above it. The dyke will be 700 feet long, five feet high and sixteen feet wide. It will take about six weeks to complete it and will deepen the water on the bar three feet more. Independent.

A WHOLESALE MERCHANTS EXCURSION.—The Oregon Pacific railroad company have arranged to run a Wholesale Merchants' Excursion from San Francisco to Albany on July 27th. The steamship "Willamette Valley" will leave with this party on the evening of that day, arriving at Yaquina on the 29th or 30th. The San Francisco Board of Trade will attend this excursion in a party. It is the intention to entertain them in the same way that they entertained the Oregon merchants on their recent trip. It is desirable that these merchants should visit as many points in the Willamette valley as possible. They will be allowed five days to spend throughout the valley. Another Merchants' Excursion will probably be started for San Francisco on Aug. 14th. All arrangements will be made to entertain them nicely upon their arrival in San Francisco.

NEW PHOTOGRAPHER.—I have opened a new gallery in the Y. M. C. A. block, 2nd street, Albany, and will try hard to please all who will favor me with their patronage. I will take all sizes and styles of photos as good as the best and as cheap as the cheapest. I am now traveling photo here today and gone tomorrow, but have come with wife and children to make a home in your glorious climate. I have come to stay. Please call and see me and try my work. Very respectfully yours, S. A. HANMILL, Late of Toronto, Canada.

Latest effects in carpets and portiers to arrive with this week's steamers freight for Albany Furniture Co.

Call for Cords, Ropes and Green's Dyeing, Small Size Dyeing, 25c per batch.

Mr. George W. Dodder is lying at his home seriously ill.

Mrs. Henry Backensta, of Dallas, is visiting Albany friends.

Mayor J. L. Cowan and son Will, left this noon on a trip to Portland.

Miss Carl Hitchens, of Corvallis, is in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. O. Lee.

Mr. Will, of Will & Stark will leave tonight on a trip to his former home in St. Joe, Mo., the World's fair, etc.

Mr. Lucian Gotsch, of San Francisco, arrived in Albany this morning and is the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Ben Brenner.

Mr. G. F. Simpson has leased the old Foster warehouse at the foot of Broadalbin street, which he will improve and use for storage of wheat.

Vice-president and Mrs. Adlai Stevens will be in Oregon in about two weeks on their way east from a trip to the coast, first going to San Francisco.

G. Steiner left today on the 11:47 train for Sodaville to join his family. Mr. Steiner expects to spend two or three weeks rusticated. The family will remain all summer. —Salem Independent.

Captain J. Koch went to Albany on important business on yesterday morning's early train. He will probably return home this evening. —Eugene Guard.

The Childrens Montefiore society gave a party yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. A. Cohen. Several hours were spent in music, sociability and in partaking of a delicious repast. A number of the parents and friends of the members enjoyed the occasion with them. The society consists of Lillie, Eva and Charlie Sternberg, Lillie and Edna Brenner, Theresa and Oscar Baumgart, Minnie Gottlieb and Marion Cohen.

Irwin Smith, a young farmer, of Benton county, advertised in an eastern paper for a wife. It resulted in an engagement with Millie E. Little, of Kansas. Yesterday the young lady arrived in Corvallis and was met at the depot by the young man. They immediately secured a license and were married. While such marriages are hazardous affairs, though perhaps little more than marriages generally, the DEMOCRAT wishes this one will prove fortunate.

Six loads of Albany people left early this morning for a day's outing at Waterloo, where they will hold a picnic dinner and return tonight. They were Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Barr, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Blain, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Canthorn, Mrs. Baltimore, Mrs. Burmeister, Mrs. S. E. Young, Mrs. Henrietta Brown, Mrs. F. M. French, Mr. and Mrs. James Nanny, Mrs. C. H. Stewart, Miss Sarah Alt-house, Messrs and Misses Edgar Hodgett, Ava Baltimore, Carlton Sox, Mildred Burmeister, Percy Young, Clara Davis, Clem Irvine, Mae Pollock, Hettie Miller and Mrs. Nutting.

This is the way some new comers in Albany get "shown up" by a paper in their former home: Dr. T. C. Mackey has moved from Gardiner, in this county, to Albany, where he has located for the practice of his profession. He has practiced medicine in Gardiner for nearly eighteen years, twelve years of the time making that town his home, and during that time his business has been extensive, and he has enjoyed the confidence and esteem of the people to the fullest extent. His qualifications as a physician and his many excellent qualities as a citizen are beyond question. Not only Gardiner, but the entire county, experiences a loss in the removal of Dr. Mackey and his estimable family, and we trust the Albany people will appreciate the gain at our expense. The best wishes of a host of friends follow them to their new home.

Eternal Vigilance

Is the price of health. But with all our precaution there are enemies always lurking about our systems, only waiting a favorable opportunity to assert themselves. Impurities in the blood may be hidden for years or even for generations and suddenly break forth, undermining health and hastening death. For all diseases arising from impure blood Hood's Sarsaparilla is the unequalled and unapproachable remedy. It is King of them all, for it conquers disease.

JOHN W. JOHNSON,

President.

EXECUTOR'S SALE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned executors of the last will and testament of Owen Bear, deceased, late of Linn county, Oregon, will pursuant to an order of the county court for Linn county, O. O. No. 4, duly made and entered of record on the 5th day of June, 1893, authorizing and licensing the undersigned as executors of said estate, to sell the lands hereinafter described, will on the 16th day of September, 1893, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. of said day, at the Court House door, in the city of Albany, Linn county, Oregon, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, all of the right, title and interest the said Owen Bear had at the time of his death in and to the following described real estate to-wit:

Beginning at the N. E. corner of the donation land claim of Owen Bear and wife, Not No 2240 and claim No 41 in 12 S R 4 W 1/2 of the Willamette meridian and running thence west along the north boundary line of said claim 62.60 chains to the N. E. corner of a tract of land sold to V. W. Robinson and J. C. Robinson by Owen Bear and wife; then south 2 chains, thence S 31 45° E, following along the center of a slough 14.24 chains, thence south 2.90 chains, thence east parallel with the north line of said Owen Bear's claim 35.10 chains to the east line of said claim, thence north 17 chains to the place of beginning, containing 101.80 acres, all in Linn county, Oregon. Terms of sale one-half cash in hand on day of sale and one-half in six months from day of sale with interest at 8 per cent per annum secured by mortgage on the land sold.

This the 8th day of July, 1893.

A prominent drycleaner in Boston needed an errand boy, so he advertised in the morning column. One reply read this way: "I won't do things as you want 'em, and can hustle. Most folks ain't got no use for a boy—bates hel how hard times is. I want the job, Joe White." This rather shocked the minister, but it made an impression. Of many letters this one held his attention; it pulled on both his curiosity and sympathy, and he took to the boy's frank and original way of putting it. "Joe" got the job. —Ex.

Last week, says the Oregon City Enterprise, as Col. Nevius, of Portland, was out in a skiff with his wife, who was up here for the purpose of looking about the city to see how she would like to live here, and was leisurely rowing about on the now placid Willamette, he was suddenly astonished by the appearance of a huge something from the water at the side of his boat which springing into the air struck him a blow upon the face which nearly dazed him, and then falling back rested for an instant or two on the oar which the colonel was holding, and then with the raising of the oar slid off into the river. The sturgeon for such it must have been, was six feet long and was doubtless a surprised fish.

The newspaper business in Astoria is full of interest. The Budget says: It is getting to be fashionable to go up Salt river. It is said that the poor old Astorian is preparing for the journey. She has been on the ragged edge for a long time, and mortgages have undermined her constitution and hungry creditors have so long gnawed at her vitals that she is frail and almost ready to totter over into the boneyard where lie bleaching the bones of the Advocate, the Independent, the Gateway Herald, Pioneer, Transcript, Columbian, the hobo sheet, Bulletin, Shipping List and the fresh and odious carcass of the defunct Examiner, which died of starvation and an overdose of gall on the river.

After Breakfast

To purify, vitalize and enrich the blood, and give nerve, bodily and digestive strength, take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Continue the medicine after every meal for a month or two.

GOOD NEWS

For the millions of consumers of 19 to 0.—That is the score people make who trade with Perry Conn, the dealer in fresh groceries, produce and crockery ware. They shut out hard times and give clean bargains. Plenty of home runs and a return for more goods. The game is umpired on the square, and there is never any kicking. Prompt and courteous treatment. A steady thing. Doors open early and late. If you would be on the winning side call on Conn.

WE HAVE TO EAT anyway. The better the groceries the more enjoyable life is, and while we do not all live simply to eat, we certainly eat to live. If you get your groceries and baked goods of Parker Brothers you are bound to live well if it is only on a loaf of rye bread. They keep the best in everything, and sell at prices that satisfy regardless of times. Call on them.

THE VERDICT is unanimous that Will & Stark carry the best line of silver ware in the valley. They have the variety and quality, a combination that counts in buying goods. An inspection always carries conviction.
