The brewery at Medford has gone into the hands of a receiver. This is the first case of the failure of a brewery the writer remembers—and it is explained by the paragraph announcing that there was a disagreement among the stockholders.— Statesman. One in Aibany failed once, for the same reason.

Ior the same reason. It has been reported that soda water costs 2 cents a gallon for bottling at Soda-ville. This, the DEMOCRAT is informed, is incorrect. It costs nothing, and as the springs are under control of the state, can-not cost anything. There is a rule for-bidding the getting of it from Friday evening until Monday morning, which will be enforced sometimes.

Where do the flies come from. Som where do the flies come from. Some one has figured it out that the toper makes the blue-bottle fly, the stern father makes the gad fly, the cyclone makes the house fly, the blacksmith makes the fire fly, the carpenter makes the saw fly, the driver makes the horse fly, the grocer makes the sand fly, and the boarder makes the butter fly. W A Smeltzer a former software boarder makes the butter fly. W A Smelizer, a farmer near Silverton, lost his dweling and barn by fire July 11th. He gave out the statement that at the time he was away in the mountains, and returning found nothing but ashes. He had an insurance of $500 on the building in the Pheenix Hartford Company. Thursday W A Bugely, the adjuster, went to the place to inquire into the particulars and fix the loss. The result was that Smelizer made a confession that he burned Smeltzer made a confersion that he burned the buildings.

SELFISH PORTLATDERS. — A Portland paper hits the moss-back bankers of that it who recently ordered that hereafter no checks or other obligations against interior banks will be accepted, except for collection, the following live hit: Over $3,000,000 of Portland money is to-day enjoying the sleep that knows no waking in the "wildcat" towns of Paget Sound, instead of being safely and profit-have made Portland a city. What have these dignified pawnbrokers, who have grown rich through no effort of theirs, ever done to advance or build up the great state of Oregon? What right have they engine the through legislation or by investment to build up the interior industries? The answer is no. They are not built that way. They think that the sun rizes on the west bank of the Willamette river and sets on Portland heights, and if they ever express any it would probably be on account of his misfortune in living outside of that sacred circle. Yo them there is nothing of value in the vineyards, orchards, foreste value in the vineyards orchards, foreste value in the viney are so if fact the role allowiel hands of the Willamette value yor the rolling praries of Eastern Oregon, all of which are in need of fin-ancial air. And as a matter of fact the interior banks are on a better financial footing today than a majority of the more pretentions pawnshops. SELFISH PORTLANDERS, - A Portland

A WONDERFUL SCHEME -- Owing to the

A WONDERFUL SCHEME — Owing to the stringency of the money market the hop growers begin to see that they will have difficulty in obtaining the needed money with which to pay hands for narvesting their crop. This state of affairs puts them at the mercy of the hop buyer who sets a price on the hops and compels ac-ceptance on account of the huyer's de-posit being the only ready cash obtaina-ble. It is purposed to remedy this by issuing money that will be acceptable by the laborers in hop fields and the mer-chants in surrounding districts. The farmers are to issue bills of credit in the denomination of one dollar each, to the extent of one hundred dollars or less according to their credit. These bills are to answer all the uptposes of any kind of money in the district. To this ex-change all hops are to be delivered, and sold, and bills called in, and returned to the party issuing them — Salem Inde-pendent. Terms, cash at F L Kenton's grocery

That Tin Can Case:

Scio, Or., July 22nd, 1892.

Scio, Or., July 22nd, 1892. I wish to explain the Press statement in regard to placing the small boys in the cooler. The Ed. must have been a little overloaded with tarrantular juice, (which he frequently overindulges in,) or he would not have made the statement that he did. The boys were not arrested for ranning the dog; but for inhuman treat-ment of the dumb animal. They dragged it from the bank on Main St. up to the Methodist church, choking, rocking and dragging it until it was almost dead. If have ever canned a dog in Scio I have no recollection of it. I want it distinctly understood from this on, that any man or boy who treats a dumb animal in the way the boys were treating this dog, will be "coolerized" to the full extent of the any the boys were treating this dog, will be "coolerized" to the full extent of the starmanuar juice had the ascendency when he wrote the case up. An Oregon exchange gets hilarious as follows: The Willamette valley is now in the midst of her three months clear summer season. The skies are a pale cerulean blue; the billowy clouds are soft and fleecy like the lace work around a bride's neck; the mornings greet you as deliciously cool as when you open the door of an ice chest, the evenings are bracing from a stiff Pacific breeze.
