WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our regular Correspondent. Washington, July 24, 1893.

The old story, started in the first month of the administration, about there being a disagreement between President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle as to the financial policy of the administration has been revived and given a new dress, it being stated now that the President intends to use the vacancy in the Supreme Court to get rid of Secretary Carlisle.

Speaking of that Supreme Court vacancy, I have just had a talk with a gentleman who is as close to President Cleveland personally as any man in the world on the rumor which has at various times connected the names of three members of the cabinet with the vacancy.

Commissioner Lochren isn't worrying over the fact that is being made because of the suspension of the pension of Justice Charles D Long, of the Supreme Court of Michigan.

Secretary Carlisle nailed another misstatement when he said that neither himself nor any official of the treasury department was engaged in the preparation of a tariff bill, and that neither he nor the President had ever contemplated such a thing.

An attempt was made to make it appear that the acting director of the mint had done something extraordinary in refusing to pay more than the London price for silver bullion and there was for a while a lot of wild talk about bringing "the usurpation of authority" to the attention of congress.

Trains will hereafter run to Idaho on the eastern end of the Oregon Pacific Monday morning and Wednesday and Saturday evenings.

JOHN W. JOHNSON, Pre

There's nothing left of Catarrh, when you use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. With the poisonous, irritating stuffs and strong, caustic solutions, a good deal is left. They may, perhaps, stop it for a time, but there's danger of driving it to the lungs. They work on false principles.

But Dr. Sage's Remedy cures it, no matter how bad the case, or of how long standing. Not only Catarrh itself, but Catarrhal Headache, Cold in the Head—everything catarrhal in its nature. The worst cases yield to its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties. So will yours. You may not believe it, but the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Remedy do.

And to prove it they make you this offer:

If they can't cure you, they'll pay you $500 in cash. It's a business proposition from a responsible house.

But do you think they'd make it if they, and you, couldn't depend upon their medicine?
