

STAND ON THE PLATFORM.

The Telegram has an article headed as above, addressed to democrats, urging the duty of all to stand by the democratic platform adopted at Chicago. It claims that the platform pledges the party, unconditionally to free and unlimited coinage of silver, in that it demands "that both gold and silver shall be made standard money of the country." The platform does not pledge the party to free coinage or any coinage of silver except upon the express condition that "the dollar unit of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value, or be adjusted through international agreement, or by such safeguards of legislation as shall ensure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets and in payment of debt." Now, these are the conditions upon which the mints were to be opened to free coinage. But the Telegram would enforce free and unlimited coinage without conditions, and because thousands of unswerving democrats all over the country feel that, in view of the changed conditions, it would not be safe to attempt to carry unqualified coinage into operation without any of these conditions being compiled with, it assumes to say they have deserted the platform upon which the party gained so signal a victory last fall. This is very unwise, for the effect of the Telegram's course will be to breed divisions among democrats in this state where unity should exist. Every democrat in the party has an equal right to judge for himself whether any or all of these conditions should be compiled with. Suppose a democrat believes, (as thousands do,) that if we were to open up our mints to free, unlimited, independent coinage it would result in flooding the country with a depreciated dollar, such democrat could not be accused of having left his platform, for one of the essential conditions of the platform is that every silver dollar put in circulation must be of equal, intrinsic and exchangeable value. The Telegram undertakes to judge for itself about this matter and to bind every other democrat to its judgment. This will not do among thinking, intelligent men.

Dr Robert Fischer, of Vienna, is authority on the use of cosmetics, and his testimony as to their great vogue among the ladies of Austria is most interesting. No Viennese lady with any regard for her personal beauty, the doctor says, fails to make use of the latest and most scientific lotions and even mechanical appliances for removing natural blemishes and increasing her good looks. To attain this end the doctor is in constant demand by a large clientele of the fair to banish freckles, pluck out superfluous hairs, transform moles into beauty spots, and even to increase the secretion of the lacrymal glands by means of a "tear pump," an innocent looking white object like a diminutive wax taper. But the one taste which the doctor finds most universal in Vienna is for blond hair, and he has metamorphosed "countless tresses" (to use his own words) of dark beauties into blonds. The most popular complexion in Vienna at the present moment, so the doctor says, is the strawberries-and-cream tint, which is nature's finest art-work, and of which she is correspondingly chary.

Why! why!! why!!! Just think of it! Hon Binger Hermann, in a "private letter," holds the democracy responsible for the present hard times. We hold a jackass responsible for the existence of Binger, and we have greater evidence for the correctness of our opinion than Binger has for his.—E O.

It is evident from the tone of their editorials that there are many republican papers that would be sadly disappointed were times to get good at once and without allowing them an opportunity to make at least some political capital out of the misfortunes of the people. We have no reason to exclude the Oregonian from the list.

Speaking of Voorhees of Indiana, the Oregonian says: "Voorhees in his speech on the financial question makes an utter fool of himself." The Telegram speaking on the same subject says: "His (Voorhees) attitude is one of downright stupidity." How these twin newspaper establishments dwell together in unity.

Catarth Cannot be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarth is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarth Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarth Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. CREATING PREJUDICE.

"Colonel E. H. Hoyer, Commander of Oregon division, Sons of Veterans," made a speech before a meeting of that body the other day in which he took occasion to say some things very much at variance with well known facts. For instance: "The administration seems to be afraid too much money will get into circulation among the people." Now as a matter of fact it is not the business of an administration to put much or little money into circulation. This question of granting pensions does not hinge on that of putting money into circulation. It is true that many men have urged the granting of large and liberal pensions on the grounds that it would put much money into circulation, but these are fanatics and cranks on the subject of pensions. The question with the administration is to determine whether a pensioner is entitled under the law or not. Under the rule adopted by Raum, which was palpably in conflict with the pension act of 1890, many pensions have been granted that were not authorized. It is the sworn duty of the president to see the pension law duly executed. This is to be done by suspending pensions granted under Raum's rule 164 and notifying those to whom they were granted to make proof that would entitle them to the pensions granted. There is to be no attack upon any honest pensioner. Every one justly entitled to a pension will be protected in his right. That many fraudulent pensions have been granted admits of no doubt. To segregate these fraudulent pensions from those that are not, is the work in hand of that true and tried veteran, Judge Lochren, the pension commissioner. To separate wheat from chaff one must needs manipulate the wheat as well as the chaff, but this handling of the wheat to separate it from the chaff is no attack upon the genuineness of the wheat. So the temporary suspension of payment of an honest pension to determine which are and which are not fraudulent among those granted under the Raum rule is no attack upon those legally granted. It may work some inconvenience on legal pensioners to have payment of their pensions suspended, but the blame for this lies at the door of Raum and not that of Judge Lochren. Mr Hoyer says: "Not a man who has been suspended but would be on the rolls still at the same or a higher rating if the government would abide by the laws congress has passed, and which it has no right to set aside." This is mere twaddle. The administration is simply attempting to right the wrongs instigated by the last administration. And whatever of violation of laws there has been is attributable to the last and not to the present administration. Let it be understood once for all that this administration opposes fraudulent pensions.

20 Miles from a Doctor But Hood's Sarsaparilla was Equal to the Emergency

Pleurisy, Chills and Fever—Milk Leg—Perfect Cure. "After my baby was born I got into very serious condition, having pleurisy, chills and fever, gradually developing into milk leg. We live 20 miles from a physician and did not know what to do. Finally after a great deal of suffering I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and when I was using the third bottle I could see it was doing me good. I continued with another bottle, and recovered so rapidly that now I am in good health. I cordially recommend it as a good medicine." Mrs. A. M. ALLEN, Ferry, Washington.

Cleared away—all the troubles and ailments that make woman's life a burden to her. She's relieved, cured, and restored, with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Periodical pains, weak back, bearing-down sensations, nervous prostration, all "female complaints," are cured by it. It improves digestion, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength. It's a powerful general, as well as uterine, tonic and nerve, imparting vigor and strength to the entire system. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to derange digestion; a legitimate medicine—not a beverage.

If you're a tired, nervous, or suffering woman, then the "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine that's guaranteed, in every case, to bring you help. If it doesn't give you satisfaction, you have your money back.
