GOOD EVENING.

HE TRAMP NUISANCE.—Tramps are ming more numerous and law'ess y day. It is now estimated that there oo scattered along the road from burg to Sacramento, California. ay night's freight brought in thirty- in one car and they were tough ones. y came up on the overland from Port- d to Albany Thursday night, and de- Conductor Houston and his brake- with draw revolvers. At Albany were taken off with the assistance of police, and the next day started south. e of the gang entered Joe Micelli's e near the bridge Saturday, and were ht in the act of carrying off a sack of r and other articles; and made to dis- e. They afterwards eluded the city shal and escaped arrest.—Roseburg iew.

NEARLY STARVED. — An immigrant ily with ten children arrived at the Kenzie bridge the first of the week from lahoma, having been on the road since middle of April. The night previous their arrival at the bridge they camped the summit of the Cascades in the snow, h not a bite to eat. When they arrived Power's they were in a pitiful condition nearly starved, and ate raw potatoes dily not waiting for a meal to be cooked. y were taken care of by Mr Powers and nished with all the food needed, and y were about the happiest mortals in the te.—Guard.

A JOKE.—Several hundred dollars go m Albany every month for lottery kets, hence the drawing day is always e of interest to particularly fifty or sixty ople. Yesterday was the day for the awing. Last night an Albany man shed into the headquarters for the lottery this city with a pretended list of figures at had drawn the capital prizes as tele- aphed from Portland. The list was ex- ined and it was found that a First street erchant had drawn $20,000. Great ex- tement prevailed until it was learned by a ivate dispatch that there was nothing in The matter was simply a joke.

EARLY HIGH WATER.—A Salem paper s the Willamette has not been so high as ly in the season since 1851. It is now feet at this city above low water mark. r J McClung, who was in the city today, ys it was higher in 1857 when the largest at ever put on the Upper Willamette me to the city twice, and then went to n Francisco as it was too big for this ffic. Next.

A LITTLE TILT.—The sheriff and the unty Judge had a little tilt over a bill t in by the latter at the recent term of urt. The bill was for expenses occurred visiting the asylum of the recent Chinese ots, and it is said the argument grew ble warm. The sheriff won, however, o of the commissioners taking his view f the matter and voting to allow the bill — Salem Democrat.

A GENUINE CLEARANCE SALE in ladies ine shoes. Within the next 15 days we propose to dispose of 12 dozen pairs of French and Dongola kid, hand turned and machine sewed, opera and common sense lasts, sizes from 2½ to 4 in all widths. These goods must go regardless of cost. Ladies wearing shoes in these sizes will do well by calling on Klein Bros.

CORSETS.—All our Kabo corsets are made with the new patented soft eyelets which are warranted not to pull out or cut the lacers. Their use prevents the back of the corset showing through the dress, and avoids staining of underclothing, which is the case when metal eyelets are used. We confidently recommend them, not only as a perfect fitting corset, but the most durable one in the market. Made in medium, extra long, and extreme long waist. For sale by Samuel E Young, Albany, Oregon.

WHO does your washing? It is to be hoped you send it to the Albany Steam Laundry, thus patronizing a first-class home institution that employs only white labor. The work too speaks for itself, not after the fashion of the loud smelling Celestial washing, but on account of the superior manner in which it is done.

MILLINERY.—Mrs M Buoy and daughter desire to inform the public that they have moved into the rooms lately occupied by Mrs Sower and are supplied with a line of millinery goods of quality and prices to suit the present hard times. Be sure to call and examine their goods before purchasing elsewhere.

YES, YOU CAN see the finest line o samples for suitings in the state at W R Graham's, where he has a tailor with few equals on hand to make them up on short notice. Rumor has it that a party of O P officials will soon pass over the line of the proposed road. Provided, however, the man sent ahead does not report over two inches of snow on the summit of the mountains. This rumor is quite encouraging, to say the least. We may get to see the men.—Prineville News.

Mrs E E Parrish's watch lost in the recent fire was found this morning among the debris. In the DEMOCRAT'S account of the fire it stated that the property was insured in the Albany company about a week ago. Mrs Parrish informs the DEMOCRAT the policy was simply a renewal of an old one and that the renewal was made on Sept 30.

The Review devotes two columns to the tournament, giving the entire score while the News says in the game of baseball played here this week the Prineville club came out victorious. We have not been able to get hold of the score.

RUSTLING FOR BUSINESS.—The State Insurance Company of Salem, now in the same relationship to the Pacific Union as the Albany company, are now advertising to do what this company can also do. It reads: The State Insurance company has done the leading insurance business in this state for 10 years. It has paid over 1000 different losses upon property located in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr Wallis Baldwin has returned from a several weeks sojourn at Nashville.

Miss Ella Mead has returned from her visit East, having been absent about a year.

Mr H W McElmurry, one of the substantial citizens of Albany Prairie left today to visit his old home in Arkansas.

M M Davis, receiver of the Niagara Mill Co., went up to the mill on the Santiam yesterday, having received word that between 800,000 and 1,000,000 feet of logs had broken away from the boom at that place. The heavy rains seem to have been general throughout this section of the state, as the streams are all up.—Corvallis News.

Mr John Green, Eugene City's leading citizen since Capt Van Alstine's exit, was in Albany today on his way home from Corvallis, where his friends in that town had apparelled him in a manner that would make him the envy of the Duke of Veragua. Mr J M Nolan, the enterprising merchant had left a very conspicuous sign on his stove pipe—as well as an immense button hole bouquet on his breast. He was the center of attraction at the depot.

THE CONUNDRUM T.

at the Congregational church last evening was certainly a success so far as quality was concerned, both in management and the character of the T., and also in the sociability of those fortunate in being present. The bill of fare will be appreciated by our readers, and speaks for that part of the affair. Each person ordered according to numbers, causing amusement where mistakes were made in guessing. The substantials were: Outside the bases, an unruly member, intoxicated bovine, shortened staff; the relishes, women of grit, skippers home, compounded condiment, fruit of the vine, what a boy does in strawberry time; the pabulum, celestial, dainty digits, well rounded confusion, food of our ancestors; the gold in the morning, forbidden fruit, small boys quest, better than wine; the nectar, what asthmatic people are, Boston's overthrow, Oregon's plenty. Miss Catherine Althouse received the prize for guessing the most correctly, getting all but one, practically all.

MR AND MRS CROSBY'S PARTY.

Last evening Mr and Mrs W F Crosby gave a party at the St Charles to their Albany and other friends. The rooms were elegantly decorated in ivy and flowers for the occasion. The evening was spent in cards in the parlors and dancing in the dining room. Music was furnished by Spanglers Orchestra of Corvallis, assisted by Wm Richards, of this city. At 12 o'clock a sumptuous repast was served, consisting of the choice viands of the day. Those present were: Mr and Mrs H M Beall, Dr and Mrs G W Maston, Mr and Mrs Thos Monteith, Mr and Mrs W R Bilyeu, Mr and Mrs J H Wood, Mr and Mrs Thos Hopkins, Mr and Mrs H J Hopkins, Mr and Mrs F H Pfeiffer, Mrs D VanHorn, Misses Anna Houk, Alice Porter, Minnie VanHorn, Velle Irving, Lida Galbraith, Hattie Galbraith, Nina Parker, Zella Wood, Bettie Giblin, Mr and Mrs J O Wilson, Messrs J A Walker, O G Hopkins, and R E Mulcahy, of Corvallis, Dr La Mer, of Salem and Messrs J A Wilson, E M Horton, J A Cumming, W J Ortel, E D Cusick, Arthur Leimert, Dr W H Davis, J M Irving, Will Merriman and C B Winn, of Albany.

On a Conservative Basis.

OWING to the present monetary stringency and during the existing condition of the financial market, I find it compulsory to run my business on a very conservative basis. Sugar, as you are aware, is handled on a very small margin of profit; so small in fact to scarcely pay for the handling of it, and the terms upon which it is bought are very strict (cash only.) While money was plentiful and collections good, I was able to allow sugar bills to run 60 days; but conditions at present are such that I will sell sugar for cash only. I assure you I was very reluctant to make a rule of this kind, but the conditions of the market are such as to make it imperative. Trusting you will look at this in the proper light and also understand that this rule applies generally.

MISFITS

The Independence West Side editor says of the state editorial association: "Forty editors proper attended the meetings, but one hundred and forty ate at the banquet. The hangers on in journalism are the ones who make our annual meetings such a farce. Next year let no badges be given those who do not attend the meetings. The number of editors may be less, but the profession will be more honorable." The men who make themselves the most conspicuous at the meetings of the association are about as much editors as a Yaquina Bay clam.

A paper down the valley refers to a "widow women" just as if all widows were not women. It speaks also of a "capitol building" just as if "capitol were an adjective.—Statesman.

Then there is another valley paper always resorting to petty criticisms of its contemporaries that came out with a scare head the other day, "The Vigilant Wins First." The boat that wins, you know, always comes out first.—Journal. A live hit by the way. Sensible papers never criticise the grammar of their exchanges. To err is particularly human with newspapers.

As the following is on the subject we place it under this head: The Statesman man should not be to severe upon the Press association. He may be an editor himself sometime.

AT MEAL TIMES do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It might be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your tea, coffee, sugar, baked goods and innumerable other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the prices of the best and the worst that it does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy. The best is always the cheapest, because the most satisfactory and durable, and the very best of everything in the grocery line is kept at Parker Bros.

The young men and boys are making a foot walk up State street.

Elmarian Smith, of Halsey, is visiting relatives here.

Prof Gibson made a hurried visit to our town the fore part of the week.

J E Hamilton will go to Portland tomorrow. He will visit the Mechanic's fair. He expects to meet his wife on her return from Kansas. Mrs Hamilton has been gone about four months visiting her parents and friends.

J M Marks made a short visit to this place last week.

Having some leisure time last Thursday we made a visit to the fruit drier of Millhollen & Stone. We found Mr M busily engaged with a drier full of prunes, and although he was alone he took time to show us around. This company have dried plums from the time they began to ripen until prunes were ripe enough to dry. They have averaged over 600 pounds of dried fruit every 24 hours. Mr M gave us a sample of German petite prunes which are superior in taste to California raisins. We presented a portion of them to our postmaster and he has them on exhibition at the postoffice. Mr M says they have already had an offer for their dried fruit, but will hold a while yet. A crop of prunes is worth more than a crop of wheat. Mr M says that they are only experimenting this season, and thinks a drier as large again as the one they are using will be as easily managed and think the fruit industry will be very remunerative. Mr David Millhollen sold ten dollars worth of prunes, the product of one tree, after giving a share to Millhollen & Stone for drying, and he sold in the local markets. At this rate an acre of land in prunes is worth a thousand dollars. The time of cheap land in the Willamette valley is past and fruit raising is just in its infancy, and today the man with ten acres of bearing trees is worth more than a man with two hundred acres of farm land. The experience of the past twenty years makes it plain that the farmer cannot realize more than a good living by raising wheat, while the experience of the last six years fully demonstrate that there is a good profit in fruit of all kinds.
