An effort is being made to have the stores of Albany close at 7 o'clock except Saturday evening.
The Corvallis Street Railway is to be sold at sheriff's sale on Nov 9th, to satisfy a claim of $7,604.30.

The ladies of the First M E church will give a chicken pie supper at the W C T U Hall next Wednesday evening, Oct 25th.
It is rumored that Governor Penney will attend the meeting of O P creditors at Mill City to-morrow. Probably nothing in it.

Several tickets are sold daily to the Portland fair. Little noise is made about it, but a good many are bound to see the N W's greatest show.
A special meeting of the Ladies Aid Society will be held tomorrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs H J Hopkins. Business of importance.

E C Smith and Charles Beadle, of Eugene, have rented the Dr Davis' hayrack near Harrisburg for a period of one year at an option for five years.

The eleventh census has so far cost over nine millions of dollars, and it is to take $300,000 more to finish it. Six names for a dollar. Isn't that outrageous.
If you desire a luxuriant growth of healthy hair of a natural color, nature's crowning ornament of both sexes, use only Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer.

The Orphan's Home is now completed with the exception of a few finishing touches. One more thing needed is a windmill and water tank. Then the Home will be in a condition above criticism.
F P Norton's Bonner won the free for a trotting race at Yreka week before last, the fastest being 2:28 1/2, which was the fastest time ever made on that track. Norton's Red Oak won the 3-year-old trot, best time 2:17.

The new battleship Oregon is to be launched on the 26th. The boat will be christened by Miss Daisy Almsworth, representing the state of Oregon and launched by Miss Eugenia Shelby, representing the city of Portland.
Willamette University has a foot ball club with C A Atwood as captain and Chester Murphy as secretary and treasurer. It is now in order for the Albany College to organize a club and wipe out the Salemites on Thanksgiving day.

News was received in the city this morning that the residence of G W Hollister near Stayton was burned this morning. The building was completely destroyed with nearly all its contents, loss about $600. Insurance in the State of Salem for that amount.—Salem Journal.
Next Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock Mrs Helen Harford will address the Y P S E of Albany in a union meeting to be held at the Congregational church, to which the young people of the city generally, are invited. By order of the president, Q E Propst.

The F M B A recently passed resolutions demanding "that mortgage tax law be re-enacted and that all honest indebtedness be exempted from taxation," and also "resolved" to the effect that they will not support any candidate for the legislature who is not pledged to re-enact such laws.—Roseburg Plaindealer.
The following from a Lebanon paper is very suggestive of the possibilities of this county: C A Zahn visited Halsey and Harrisburg this week. Mr Zahn says that great quantities of apples are being snipped from Halsey to the East, $6,000 having been paid to the farmers of that vicinity this year for apples.

The tax roll for Douglas county this year foots up $5,168,491, about $1,000,000 more than that of last year. The board of equalization will reduce the assessment to per cent, probably thinking the state board will raise it ten per cent. The state board takes its life in its hand if it does any raising this year.
Advices from Chicago place to the credit of Oregon the most remarkable peaches exhibited there. These peaches were grown at Ashland by Mr Max Pracht and forwarded by him. One box of 17 sent to Chicago weighed 14 pounds 6 ounces net. They were perfect in flavor and brilliant in color, rare quality in peaches maturing so late.

J F Cook, of Mehama, was intending to go to Oregon City this afternoon but was compelled to postpone the trip on account of a painful hurt received this morning while climbing over a barb wire fence. It seems that his foot caught in the wire and that one of the barbs passed through his boots and struck his ankle bone. His foot began to swell while at the depot awaiting the train, and at last grew so painful that he had to give up all idea of his trip.—Salem Independent.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Bert Magors, formerly of Albany, is now a resident of Silverton.
A Linn county young attorney who went out to see the fair will bring her home.

Mrs J H Upham went to Portland this noon on a several weeks visit with her son Harry.
Mr and Mrs Wm Ralston left this noon for Olex on a several weeks visit with their sons L. O. and Joe.

Miss Williams, of Albany, is holding a revival meeting in the Baptist Church. A good deal of interest is being manifested.—Stayton Times.
J B Taylor of Marquam accompanied by G W Young an Albany merchant was a caller at this office Wednesday.—Oregon City Enterprise.

J E Miller has been spending the summer at Albany, returned home Saturday looking hale and hearty for one who will be eighty years old in December.—Newport News.
Capt N B Humphrey walks the streets of Penelton glad to be again in a country where God's sunlight shines alike on the just and unjust for the greater part of the time. The captain looks better than for years before. He prescribed to a cadaverous-looking youth who talked with him, unlimited quantities of egg nog, saying that it had saved his own life and brought him to robust health.—E. O.

Speaking of the appointment of Rev R B Dilworth, to the position of superintendent of S S work for the Presbyterian church in Oregon the Astorian says: "It seems as if the Presbyterian church in Astoria was a stepping stone to high preferments in the larger field of the state. Rev E N Condit, the first pastor of this church, is now principal of the Albany college, the Presbyterian seat of learning in Oregon. Rev J V Milligan, while still the pastor of a large Portland church, is not only stated clerk of this Presbytery, but also of the synod of Oregon, a place of more importance probably than any other in this field of the church."

OF INTEREST TO ALL.—Wholesale merchants in the Eastern states have offered us great inducements and we want to give our customers an opportunity as well as possible. We have made great reductions in the price of our dress goods, fine shoes, capes, jackets, etc, for cash, and intend to sell them in most cases at a dollar's worth of goods and some times more. Come in and make your selections. Our goods are nearly all new, and can't be bought elsewhere in Linn county for the prices we will sell them at if bought now.

READ, PEACOCK & Co.
WHO does your washing? It is to be hoped you send it to the Albany Steam Laundry, thus patronizing a first-class home institution that employs only white labor. The work too speaks for itself, not after the fashion of the loud smelling Celestial washing, but on account of the superior manner in which it is done.

YES, YOU CAN see the finest line of samples for suitings in the state at W R Graham's, where he has a tailor with few equals on hand to make them up on short notice. Get the best and most stylish suits of him. A new feature will be the making of ladies' cloaks to order, or the altering of cloaks to the latest styles, and the repairing of cloaks. Prices are bottom ones.

You probably have the Albany Steam Laundry do your work. A large number do, but not all. Some cling to the Celestials. Better reform if you do, and patronize white labor.

DIED.
WALLACE.—At her home in Salem on East Court street, Thursday morning, Oct. 19, 1893, shortly after 12 o'clock, of pneumonia, Mrs Sidney S Wallace, aged about 69 years. The deceased was the wife of Hon J M Wallace, president of the Salem Water Co.

CURRIE.—At Oakville, Linn county, Oregon, on Thursday evening, Oct. 19th, of consumption, Mr. Alfred E. Currie, at about the age of 32 years. The deceased was born in Ohio, coming to Oregon with his parents in 1866, when a small boy. He was a young man of exemplary habits, and was well liked by all who knew him. The deceased leaves a wife and two children. His parents, and brother Gus, reside in Portland. Funeral services occur tomorrow.

These are rustling days for the farmers. The live farmer is making the present splendid weather count. He does not trust to the future. He strikes early and keeps it up. While on the subject it may be remarked that the farmers of this valley is better off than in any other part of the U. S. to-day.

Some time ago Anna D Van Houten, of Spokane, formerly of Eugene, where she taught school, sued Asa P Morse, of Cambridge, Mass, for divorce. The case was recently tried at Boston, and on Oct 4th, after a seven day's trial, a verdict of $40,000 was rendered in favor of the plaintiff, who cried tears of joy. What woman would not. Morse is a bank president, 75 years of age, and wealthy. The evidence showed that the defendant bought the plaintiff a wedding outfit, insisting that the clothing should be marked "M" and had her destroy all her former clothing marked "V" as he disliked that name; he sent her to watering places, and expensive boarding places, paying all the expenses, besides lavishing other attentions upon her. He purchased her a $500 engagement ring. He addressed her in numerous letters as "Dear" and "Dear Ann," etc, closing them with "Much love" and other endearing terms.

A WATCH is a necessity nowadays. If you want one call on Will & Stark, whose stock is large and varied, and prices the most reasonable. They can give you a bargain in this line as well as in jewelry generally.

My fall line of MACINTOSHES and GOSAMERS, including many novelties for ladies, misses and children, is now sale. S E Young.

NEW YORK LETTER.

NEW YORK, October 13th, 1893.
The ocean record has again been broken. The Cunard Line ship Lucania, established a new westward record, making the passage from Liverpool to New York in 5 days, 13 hours, and 25 minutes. The Lucania is a sister ship to the Campania, and was launched last August. The previous record was held by the American Line steamer Paris.

As both the political parties have held their state conventions, a lively and animated off year campaign will be at once inaugurated. At the democratic convention at Saratoga, last week, the Hill-Murphy-Crocker machine, made a ticket, without opposition from the Cleveland wing of the democracy. The nomination of Maynard for the Court of Appeals bench is causing no little trouble for the state machine. It will be remembered that it was Maynard who took the corrected returns from the State Comptroller's office, which gave the legislature to the democrats. The New York Bar Association condemned the act of Governor Flower in appointing such a man to the Court of Appeals. The paper which the Bar association issued, stated the facts in the case, and was presented at the meeting at which it was adopted by an almost unanimous vote, by a committee of seven, five of which were democrats. James O Carter, Frederic R Courdert and William B Hornblower, recently appointed to the United States Supreme Court, were among the framers of the resolution which called upon the legislature to impeach Maynard, as he had committed a theft which was a states prison offence, the penalty for which is five years imprisonment. The "Buffalo Courier," a staunch democratic newspaper, openly bolts the ticket. The "New York World" also openly condemns the nomination. The fact that the republicans have nominated a fair state ticket, with the well-known lawyer Edward T Bartlett of this city at the head, will give the Hill-Murphy-Crocker combine a good fight, and the result will be watched with interest by all citizens who disapprove of the election of a thief to the most important judicial office in the state.

The band did not play "Rule Britannia" last Saturday night, but it did play "Hail Columbia." New York is crazy over the yachts. In the clubs, hotels, banks and on the cars, everyone is talking about the great yacht races.

[On account of the full reports given of the races and a lack of space, the DEMOCRAT omits the well written account of the contests.]
