The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will give an old folks concert on Dec. 8.

The church reception at the Presbyterian church last evening was a pleasant affair greatly enjoyed by those attending.

Miss Wood, sister of Mrs. Fish, who has been in Albany the past year, left this noon for San Francisco by way of Yaquina.

Miss Maud Hoffman is the guest today of Mrs. Winslow. Miss Hoffman will have a little opportunity to show her promising talent, as well as her rare beauty, in the part of the Player Queen in 'Hamlet' next week.—Boston Herald, Sunday, Oct. 8.

A tea party was given yesterday evening by Mrs. Dr. Kelley in honor of her daughter Mrs. C. C. Hogue. Those present were: Misses Dr. C. C. Kelley, C. C. Hogue, Thos. Hopkins, E. W. Langdon, M. J. Irving, M. J. Train, Henry Hopkins, A. B. Wood, J. W. Althous, M. J. Henton, Misses Rose Train and Gay Hogue.

Rev. Father Jurek is now in charge of the Catholic societies of Corvallis and Newport. He is a young man who but a year since returned from a stay of eight years in Rome, Italy, where he completed the studies necessary to the responsible position he now occupies. He is familiar with several languages and we are informed is quite a linguist.—Gazette.

A few friends gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Huston last evening to acknowledge the arrival of Bob's birthday. He had just reached the 31st mile post and last night he looked as if he was good for twice as many more. The evening was pleasantly spent shuffling cards and swapping anecdotes and the town clock tolled the midnight hour before the guests departed.—Corvallis News.

The Detroit Free Press says: Mrs. Dolph, wife of the senator from Oregon, is said to be one of the most popular women in Washington society. Although she is middle-aged, and has a son and daughter married, she retains much of the beauty which made her a belle on the Oregon farm where Senator Dolph met her. Her black hair is unstreaked with gray, her dark eyes have the brightness of youth, and her whole face sparkles with life and energy to which years have only given greater depth and graciousness. Altogether, she is in appearance and manner, just what every patriotic American citizen thinks all middle-aged American women should be.

OF INTEREST TO ALL.—Wholesale merchants in the Eastern states have offered us great inducements and we want to give our customers an opportunity as well, provided you will buy now. We have made great reductions in the price of our dress goods, fine shoes, caps, jackets, etc, for cash, and intend to sell them as fast as possible. Eighty-five cents in most cases will buy a dollars worth of goods and some times more. Come in and make your selections. Our goods are nearly all new, and can't be bought elsewhere in Linn county for the prices we will sell them at if bought now.

WHO does your washing? It is to be hoped you send it to the Albany Steam Laundry, thus patronizing a first-class home institution that employs only white labor. The work too speaks for itself, not after the fashion of the loud smelling Celestial washing, but on account of the superior manner in which it is done.

YES, YOU CAN see the finest line of samples for suitings in the state at W. R. Graham's, where he has a tailor with few equals on hand to make them up on short notice. Get the best and most stylish suits of him. A new feature will be the making of ladies' cloaks to order, or the altering of cloaks to the latest styles, and the repairing of cloaks. Prices are bottom ones.

PATRONIZE the Central Fish and Poultry Market, on Ellsworth street, between Second and Third, for your dressed poultry, game and fish of all kinds in season, oysters, clams and crabs. Everything fresh in our line may be had at reasonable figures. Call and see us. SENDERS & CO.

You probably have the Albany Steam Laundry do your work. A large lumber do, but not all. Some c'ing to the Celestials. Better reform if you do, and patronize white labor.

Mrs. Lou Osterhoudt has resumed dress making at her old place of business.

MISCELLANEOUS

The Corvallis News makes a very silly attack on F. Co. of this city because the members have received some new suits, including overcoats, referring to it as pauper business, etc. The members of the Albany company are all gentlemen and first-class young men, paying their way in life in a very commendable manner. They only wear their uniforms on military occasions. The Mau A'out Town never favored the too large appropriation; but that does not excuse such a contemptible and uncalled for sling.

The DEMOCRAT recently published an item about S. P. Barger meeting an old army friend while attending the K of P at Heppner. The Brownsville Times after publishing the same tells also the following: While Mr. Barger was in the city of Portland on the way to Heppner, he stepped into a store to purchase an umbrella and there was given a pleasant surprise. While he was inspecting the articles in question the proprietor was carefully scrutinizing his face, and at last concluded that he had seen him. He informed Mr. Barger that at the battle of Lexington (the same as heretofore mentioned) when Mulligan surrendered to Price, he was standing within ten feet of Mr. Barger who was a member, marched into the fort and took possession of it. The merchant's name is John Graham. It seems indeed strange that after so many years he could recognize in the quite aged face, now covered with gray beard about ten inches long, the smooth and then youthful face of his opponent, S. P. Barger. But it is different now—the blue and the gray met, not to battle, not as captive and captor, but as friends and on equal terms. Mr. Barger was presented with an excellent silk umbrella by Mr. Graham, which he prizes very highly.

AN OLD DIARY.—A man whose grand mother was a cousin of Duncan M'Dougal, one of the founders of Astoria, writes a Salem man that he has in his possession the diary of Duncan M'Dougal from September 6th, 1810, to October 28th, 1813. Mr. M'Dougal, who died in Montreal in 1818, was one of the partners of John Jacob Astor in the Pacific Fur company and was one of the parties who sailed from New York City on September 10th, 1810, for the mouth of the Columbia river and founded the city of Astoria, Or. He was empowered by Mr. Astor to act as his proxy and is frequently mentioned in Washington Irving's 'Astoria.' His ring and the trunk he carried with him on the voyage are also in possession of the living descendant. The diary gives a full account of the voyage from New York to the Columbia's mouth and also of all the events following the landing and up late in the October, 1813.

Is it not worth while to make sure that your tea, coffee, sugar, baked goods and innumerable other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the prices of the best and the worst that it does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy. The best is always the cheapest, because the most satisfactory and durable, and the very best of everything in the grocery line is kept at Parker Bros.
