Special Sale of Millinery.

For a few days I will sell at cost all the latest styles in millinery. Call and see my goods and prices. J. M. BUSH.

GOOD EVENING.

MERE CURIOSITY.—The following from Roseburg will be of interest: "The statement that Superintendent Fields and an engineer had inspected, on behalf of the Southern Pacific, the Oregon Pacific's property, is declared by Manager Koehler to be without foundation. The fact which probably led to this report is simply this: Superintendent Fields and Master Mechanic Younger, while on an inspecting trip over Southern Pacific lines, stopped off at Albany. They put in a half hour's leisure time in looking at the roundhouse of the Oregon Pacific at that place. This was all. The inspection made by them was exclusively for the purpose of gratifying their own curiosity." Mr. Fields, though, was in Albany two half days, and the inspection, from certain things that happened, was undoubtedly more than curiosity.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—An accident occurred about noon last Saturday, which resulted in the death several hours later of David Gerrard, who lives five miles southwest of Philomath. Mr. Gerrard was en route to Philomath, and while descending Bier's Hill it is supposed that the break of the wagon gave way, the wagon ran on to the horses and a runaway resulted. After running over a couple of small stumps, the wagon struck a third, and was overturned. The unfortunate man was thrown out, the wagon seat fell across his back and the wagon bed fell on top of the seat. He was picked up shortly after in an unconscious condition and was taken to the residence of Augustus Koverstein. Dr. Logan was summoned and found that six ribs were broken and blood was pouring from his ears. Without recovering consciousness, Gerrard lingered until Sunday 4 p. m., when he died.—Corvallis Times.

A BIG INDUSTRY.—H. B. Plummer, agent for Meeker in the hop business, has made a canvass of the hop industry in Polk county, and kindly furnished us with the following figures as the output of 1893: Number of bales, 6,305; at 150 pounds to the bale, 7,157,500 pounds. At 18c per pound this would bring into the county the neat sum of $296,210.00. This beats wheat raising away yonder in more respects than one. The acreage is nothing beside wheat and the amount of money put in circulation during caring for them is $50 to $1 in comparison to say nothing of the neat margin that is reaped by the raiser. Now wait till our prunes get started, and then we'll show you something.—Transcript.

EGYPTIAN WHEAT.—R. C. Kiger has recently learned the name of a certain kind of wheat which had a prodigious growth on his place this season, mention of which was made in these columns. It is Egyptian wheat and the original seed came from Florida. The yield of the little patch grown by Mr. Kiger this season is estimated at 65 bushels per acre. He sowed thirty acres of it during the first rains little more than a month ago and its growth has been so marvellous that it is now ready to be sheeped. Mr. Kiger refused five dollars for a single bushel of this wheat.—Corvallis Times.

SAVED HIS HAND.—Will Conch, of Albany, who owns and operates a wood saw about town, met with a painful accident late Tuesday afternoon. He was in the act of feeding a number of small oak sticks to the saw, when the back of his right hand came in contact with the saw, which ripped its way nearly through four of his fingers, near the knuckles. Two of the mutilated fingers were amputated by Drs. Farra & Wilson.—Corvallis Times.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—Rev. I. B. Fisher of Salem will preach in the Evangelical church tomorrow evening, and also Sunday at 7:30 p. m. Communion services after the sermon Sunday evening.

CORSETS.—All our Kalso corsets are made with the new patented soft eyelets which are warranted not to pull out or cut the laces. Their use prevents the back of the corset showing through the dress, and avoids staining of underclothing, which is the case when metal eyelets are used. We confidently recommend them, not only as a perfect fitting corset, but the most durable one in the market. Made in medium, extra long, and extreme long waist. For sale by Samuel E. Young, Albany, Oregon.

Col F J Parker, of the Walla Walla Statesman passed through Albany today for his home, from the Bay. He gave the Man About Town a piece of fine building rock from his ranch, and claims he has a valuable prospect in it.

We are informed that the man Dr. Spongie left Empire City, Coos county, suddenly a few months since on account of his connection with a woman, that was not to his credit. This time he seems to have successfully evaded the officers as nothing has been heard from him since his leaving the hotel.—Eugene Guard.

A man who has just arrived from the Gray's Harbor country gives a very deplorable account of Gray's Harbor City. He states that there are upwards of 100 buildings there, but they are all deserted. A few fishermen dwell near the shore in their own rude shanties. Some of the deserted buildings are handsome structures, one business block having cost upwards of $20,000.

Mrs Wallace Indicted

Special to Democrat. EUGENE, Or, Oct 26.—Mrs Patterson Wallace was indicted by the grand jury for practicing medicine without license or diploma. Will enter plea tomorrow.

A HAND HIT.—Call. Van Cleve, editor of the only paper printed in Lincoln county—the Leader—lately alluded to Gov. Penzance as "our handsome and over-dressed governor." His excellency says that he considers this as one of the hardest "hits" he has ever received. Anyone who has seen Oregon's governor will readily admit that he is handsome but when it comes to being "over-dressed" he is far from that. The honored gentleman wears plain, everyday clothes in keeping with his official position. He is not as much of a "dude" as Van himself.—Statesman.

MILLINERY.—Mrs M Buoy and daughter desire to inform the public that they have moved into the rooms lately occupied by Mrs Sower and are supplied with a line of millinery goods of quality and prices to suit the present hard times. Be sure to call and examine their goods before purchasing elsewhere.

PECULIAR FIGURES.—The sermon of the Rev J W Bushong Sunday night on "The Lean Cattle," was listened to by a very large congregation. The discourse went a long way out of the beaten track, was largely statistical and very interesting throughout. Mr Bushong dilated at length on the amount of money annually expended in this country on luxuries—horses, carriages, fashions, cigars, wine, and dogs, and then summed up the cost of the honorable adjuncts to the comfort of civilization—education, science, churches, and libraries. By this means he proved conclusively that the people of the United States paid more money annually for the keep of their dogs, than they did for the maintenance of their ministers. Coming down to local applications, he showed how in Astoria $86,500 were spent on luxuries every year, and how $36,100 were provided for the propagation of the gospel, temperance, and education, leaving over $50,000 wasted in this city every year on useless things. "You pay your eight ministers here about $8000 a year," said the doctor, "and you spend on your dogs just about $7,000, so, in Astoria anyway, I am glad to see that the preachers are a little ahead of the dogs."—Astorian.

My fall line of MACINTOSHES and GOSAMERS, including many novelties for ladies, misses and children, is now on hand. S E Young.

DIED.

GEARHARD.—At the Russ House, in Albany, on Thursday morning at 7 o'clock, Oct. 26th, 1893, after a long illness, Mr. Lawrence Gearhard, at the age of 64 years.

Mr Gearhard came to Oregon from Boston, Mass. in about the year 1868, and resided in Corvallis for a good many years, until a few years ago, when he moved to Albany. He was never married. He was an uncle of Mr Conrad Meyer, of this city, and leaves many friends here and at Corvallis who will regret his death.

Funeral services will take place at the Catholic church at 3 o'clock p. m. tomorrow, to which all friends of the deceased are invited.

ATKINSON.—In this city, Thursday morning at 4 a. m., at the residence of Mr W S Atkinson, corner of Third and Montgomery Sts., Geo W Atkinson.

Thus another one of our pioneers has crossed the river of death. Mr Atkinson came to California in 1849, when the city of San Francisco was yet a wilderness, and to Oregon about 27 years ago, and was recognized as one of Eastern Oregon's enterprising farmers and mechanics.

Funeral from the family residence tomorrow at 1 p. m.

NEW YORK LETTER.

New York, October 26th, 1893.

The struggle is over and the best boat has won. In recalling the various events of sensational racing events, which have transpired during the year, one was not included, and although it was not an event of the turf, its importance and sensational features, make it even more prominent. By the close time of 40 seconds, did the greatest and fastest yacht ever built, the Vigilant, defeat the pride of the Royal Yacht Squadron, of London, the Valkyrie. The America's cup has been held by American yachting for forty years or more, and if the Englishmen do not adopt the center-board design, it will remain on our shores for another forty years. The sportsmanlike manner in which Lord Darnley has acted since he has been our guest is recognized by all yachtsmen, and although his Valkyrie was beaten, it was not due in any way through neglect of effort of Darnley, his crew, or lieutenants. But we must not forget that Mr C Oliver Iselin, head of the syndicate, which built the defender, has won universal thanks and congratulations, for his untiring efforts which resulted in the construction and success of the peerless Vigilant, and likewise the retaining of the America's cup. The interest taken in the races, was without bounds and everyone seemed to be talking yacht.

The racing season in this state has closed and the largest winner of stakes and purses was the stable of Messrs J R and F H Keene. Michael Dwyer is second, Richard Croker third, and A H and J A Morris fourth, but the winning of the Keene's stable exceeds the total amount of winnings to the credit of Dwyer, Croker, and Morris. The Linden race track is still open over in New Jersey with good fields, and a fair amount of patronage from New York. Considerable interest is manifested among the followers of the turf in the coming race between Lamplighter, Yo Tambien and Clifford at the Hawthorns Park, Chicago. Mr. Walsbaum has already sent the mighty Lamplighter to the Windy City, and "Fred" Tatal will go on especially to ride the sturdy son of Spendthrift. The race will be run tomorrow, which by the way will be Manhattan day at the Exposition, and if Lamplighter wins the many New Yorkers are sure to celebrate the victory over western horses.

The methods of ring rule and corrupt machine politics, are meeting with a determined repudiation at the hands of the people in the Metropolitan district. The nomination of a man guilty of felony for the Court of Appeals, by the Hill-Murphy-Croker ring, has caused a sensation in political circles in the Empire state. Isaac H Maynard, the democratic nominee for a bench second in importance only to the United States Supreme Court, has been branded and logically proven to have committed a theft in taking from the State Comptroller's office the corrected returns of the Dutchess county senatorial district. The cowardly act resulted in the giving of the legislature into the hands of the Hill democrat, who has been misgoverning it from that time to the present day. Edward T Bartlett, a respected and honorable lawyer of this city has been chosen as Maynard's opponent by the republican convention assembled at Syracuse. The reputable citizens of the state are making a mighty effort to elect Mr Bartlett. Fair and independent democrats are striving also to defeat Maynard while Hill and Tammy are making every effort to elect to this high judicial office, as a reward for his political infamy, Isaac H Maynard.

Wm. F. H. KORSCH.
