

SOPHISTRY.

That sophistry must be resorted to to maintain the doctrine of protection for the sake of protection is no longer a disputable proposition, as it crops out in every serious effort to support the policy with an argument.

A good illustration of the operation of a tariff is shown in the case of hides. By representations of New England manufacturers of boots and shoes, and with the aid of free trade votes in congress, hides were put on the free list a few years ago.

We are still selling Dress goods and Capes and Jackets at greatly reduced prices for cash.
