GOOD EVENING.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs Katherine Callahan died suddenly this noon at her home at the corner of Calapooia and 7th streets. Her son James, who resides alone with her saw her in good health on leaving the house this forenoon. On going home at noon he found her lying on the floor, slightly against the door, in his bed room, dead, but yet warm, showing that she had only fallen a short time before. Dr Hill was called and pronounced it heart disease.

Mrs Callahan had been a resident of Albany nearly twenty years coming here from Portland in 1871. She was a pioneer of California, leaving that state for Oregon in 1858. The deceased was a member of the Catholic church, and was highly respected. She leaves three children, James, of this city, Thomas, son-in-law of Judge Burnett, of Corvallis, and Miss Nellie, of Portland. Her age was about 64. The children were all telegraphed for, and will be here for the funeral, arrangements for which had not been made at press time.

MERITORIOUS MUSIC.—Prof J M Wood's concert last evening was one of much merit, and was greatly appreciated by the fair audience present. Prof Wood was a resident of Albany for four or five years at one time and a gentleman, Mr J O Bushnell, sitting beside a DEMOCRAT man, remembers hearing him play in 1866 in this city. His pieces were of the character that pleases, though some were difficult of rendition. The "Poet and Peasant Overture" was given by him and Prof Lee with rare skill, a grand production. Miss Lilly Farrell was heard twice in vocal solos. She always pleases. Miss Hattie Warner sang the difficult piece "Waiting" in a manner to show culture as well as an excellent voice. Miss Eva Cowan's accompaniments for Prof Wood's violin were of a high order, and were specially complimented by Mr Wood. Miss Bertha Ellis, looking beautiful in a costume of red, sang "Springtide" well. Miss Farrell and Miss Warner were heard in a well rendered duet, and Prof Wood closed the entertainment with several violin and guitar solos of a "taking" character. Perhaps the selection most appreciated by the audience was the violin and piano duet, "Breslauer," by Prof Wood and Miss Cowan.

SOME QUESTIONS.—A subscriber to the DEMOCRAT living in Los Angeles, Cal, asks the following questions:

Who was the first mayor of Albany? J C Powell, elected in 1865.

In what year was Albany incorporated? The law was passed Oct 24, 1864.

What was the first marshal's name? John Cleaver.

How many children were born in Albany in the year 1860 and what are their names? No record of births have ever been kept hence we have no means of knowing.

What is the oldest paper printed in Albany and who was the editor and when was it established? STATES RIGHT DEMOCRAT. James O'Mera. It was established in 186?

HADLEY HOME.—Receiver Hadley, of the Oregon Pacific, was in the city today on his way home from his trip to New York City, where he has been to arrange for the sale of the road on the 14th. The exact condition of affairs will not be known until that day; but look out for continued rumors and reports. It is safe to predict the sale of this road.

ATTEMPTED WRECK.—Yesterday afternoon as the Roseburg local approached the long trestle a mile and a half from Harrisburg a rail, taken from a pile near the track, was discovered across the track. The train was stopped before it was reached. Who did it?

AT MEAL TIMES do you ever conside the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It might be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your tea, coffee, sugar, baked goods and innumerable other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the prices of the best and the worst that it does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy. The best is always the cheapest, because the most satisfactory and durable, and the very best of everything in the grocery line is kept at Parker Bros.

PRICES REDUCED.—The undersigned proprietor of the Pioneer House desires to inform the public that he has reduced the price of board without lodging to $3 per week, with lodging $4 per week. Single meals 25 cents. The public is invited to call as I keep good beds and set a good table. Have fir wood for sale. Corner of Broadalbin and Water streets.

JACKETS.—The Ladies Bazaar have just received per express today direct from the manufacturers another new line of jackets for ladies and misses. Call early and get first choice for this will be the last chance this season.

VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.—Miss Hattie Warner a graduate of the conservatory connected with Gates College, Neb, is prepared to give lessons in vocal and instrumental music to single pupils or classes, at reasonable terms. Miss Warner has had a thorough education and is an experienced teacher. Her references are: Prof H A Shorey, William L Trow and Mrs Jennie Lee.

The A O U W have rented the third story of the Oregon Bank Building, which will be rearranged and occupied by them in a few weeks.

Don't forget the hour and place, Prof W W Davis' vocal class at the Evangelical church Tuesday evening 7:30. Twelve lessons for one dollar.

Charls L Davis as Alvin Joslin, The funny old Yankee farmer, has a part that he has made distinctively original and unlike any other actor's portraiture of that class. Opra house Nov 28.

Alvin Joslin seems to be one of the attractions that "age cannot wither." The funny old farmer, in the hands of Charles L Davis still draws excellent houses and the play is one of the paying attractions of the season. Opera house Nov 28.

Prof W W Davis will organize a vocal class on Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the Evangelical Church; all are invited. The Prof will devote two hours in instructions, one hour for beginners and one hour for advance students.

Hon Beal Gaither has taken formal charge of the Siletz reservatino as agent and Hon T Jay Buford retires to private life after four years of arduous official life, Mr Gaither has make no appoirtments as yet except clerk, which position is taken by his son James Gaither.

At a meeting of the board of fire delegates last evening it was decided to hold a ball on Christmas night for the benefit of Chemical Engine Co No 3. M D Phillips, Fred Blount and W E Gillet were appointed judges of the firemen's election to take place on Dec 11.

The Portland Sunday Mercury is being completely quashed. The last issue was seized and it is proposed to stop its publication. Such papers are a disgrace and it is time the public regardless of the law in the matter stopped its support of rotten concerns like it.

Saturday morning Marshal Eastland arrested Geo G Holt, wanted by Sheriff Kemp, of Goodland, Sherman county, Kansas, to answer the charges of embezzlement and perjury. Holt arrived here Friday, and as a description had preceded him he was promptly arrested while inquiring for his mail at the postoffice. He claims it is malicious.—Eugene Guard.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

O A Cheney, of Mill City, was in Albany today.

Hon C J Shedd, of Shedd, went to Portland this noon.

Mrs Nellie Brush and son went to Independence this noon.

Mrs W E McPherson and children have returned from a trip east.

Hadley, Mulcahy and Wardlow, of the O. P., were in the city this noon, the former coming up the road.

Mr Arthur Gamber, who has been teaching school near Harrisburg, has completed his first term and returned to Albany.

The Albany Social club gave its first party Saturday evening. About sixty were present. Whist was the order of the evening.

National Commissioner Wilkins of the great World's fair was in the city today. Mr Wilkins continues to wear his badge, probably for the Midwinter fair.

On account of the illness of Mrs C E Wolverton, with whom the C L S C was to be held, the circle will meet with Mrs D H McCullagh tonight. Quotations from Pacific Coast authors. All interested in good reading will be welcome.

Mrs Talt has taken the agency for The History of the World, by Jas D McCabe. It is one of the most complete published, an elegant work that deserves to be in the hands of every boy and girl. A splendid Christmas present. Buy your children good literature. Nothing can be found better than this.

LETTER FROM ARKINSON.

LA CROSN, Arkansas, Nov. 10, 1893.

Editors Democrat:

When we read an article in a newspaper we suppose the article to be original, unless there are quotation marks to indicate otherwise, so I would ask your readers to please consider these notes inclosed with quotation marks.

I reckon the people of North Arkansas are the happiest people in the world, and especially at this time of the year. Their new crop is now ready to use, and the opossums are fat, so when they have plenty of sweet 'taters and 'possum they are happy.

It would be a very dull people, indeed, that would not gather some new ideas about some things in a period of twenty-four years. I see some improvement on their farming implements and also in their mode of travel.

There does not seem to be that difference between the rich and the poor here that there is in the west. A rich man here will do homage to a beggar as quick as he would to one of his equals.

Religion is of the old style here, the kind that is spoken of in the Bible. When they go to church they do not have a kind of a program or formality to their worship, but they speak as the spirit gives them utterance. It makes one think of the old man that found the model church. The young folks do not say, in speaking of their seniors, the "old gent," or "old man" or the "old lady" or "old woman." They say "father," "pap," or "pa," or "mother," "ma," or "mam," or "uncle" or "aunt" as the case may be. I speak of the rule and not the exception. Of course there are a few here, like a great many of those westerners, they regard neither God nor man.

Schools in the country districts are very much neglected. The school tax is not sufficient to keep the schools going long enough at a time, and then parents do not think they can spare the children from work in the fields during the making and gathering of their crops. They have very good schools in the towns, (though the towns are not so plentiful here as they are in the Willamette valley.) If one is able to send his children to town he can give them a very good education. There are colleges here where one can fit him or herself for any sort of business.

Times are said to be as good or better here now than they have been for a long time. They say all they know about hard times is what they read in the newspapers. Money seems to be tolerably plenty, and not very many mortgages.

They are divided on the silver question, though I think a majority favor free coinage. Mr Cleveland to the contrary notwithstanding.

Politically Arkansaw is democratic. There are some republicans, though they are tolerably quiet. There are a few cranks here commonly called "Populists" that do the most howling and barking, though their barking does not amount to any thing here. The people know they are the sore heads of the two old parties, so they conclude that no good thing can come out of so much corruption.

General remarks about this country must be very brief, for me thinks the editor is now saying "boil down sir, boil down."

It does an Oregonian good to visit this country and see them heat gunpowder in a red hot oven, or see one of those light nights when the moon is shining bright and about eighteen inches of snow on the ground and the woods afire. I think that is about the grandest sight one could see any where. If I were to advise the young men at all in this country, it would be the old adage, "Go west young man, go west."

is not bought for temporary use, but as a permanent and servicable ornament. There is often as much value in the make as in the material. Will & Stark of this city keep the largest and finest line in the valley, making a specialty of good goods. Their line of gold and silver watches is a superior one, and in silver ware they take the lead in the central Willamette Valley. If you would get the best in their line call on Will & Stark, the leading jewelers.

MISFITS.

A poet writes that "a man who is always settling down very seldom settles up." Think of this and apply it in a business way.

An item in the DEMOCRAT yesterday read, "How is it that this year Christmas and New Years do not come on the same day." Some of our readers could not see through it. It is plain enough. Christmas comes on Monday, while New Years came on Sunday.

Some interesting reading is a Linn county dead beat book, containing names under the head of "Slow" and N. G. There are names under the latter head that would surprise some more than others. The man who does the best he can can always be forgiven; but the man who deliberately dead beats his way should be scorched in the matter of credit.

THE CENTURY AND ST NICHOLAS.

Our readers do not need to be told what the Century Magazine is. It is a great work in any sense. For 1894 it will be greater than ever, 2000 pages of choice literature with 1000 illustrations. There will be a new novel by Mark Twain, important expeditions, hunting of fierce game, artists adventures, tramping with tramps, unpublished essays of James Russell Lowell, etc.

The St Nicholas is the prince of children's magazines, the best of all of them. A feature of the 1894 number will be Tom Sawyer Abroad by Mark Twain, a natural history series, a series on American authors, stories of India by Rudyard Kipling, recollections of wild life, papers on the government and some beautiful serial stories, as well as the famous Brownies.

The price of the Century is 35 cents a number, $4.00 a year; of St Nicholas, $3.00 a year. Any subscriber of the DEMOCRAT in good standing may secure the Century for $3.50 or the St Nicholas for $2.50, by leaving the money at this office. We will do the rest.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died.—At her residence in Albany, Oregon, at 12:10 o'clock a. m., Nov. 2nd, 1893, Mrs. Margaret C. Hunt.

Whereas, Divine Providence in His Infinite wisdom has removed our beloved sister, Margaret Hunt.

Whereas, It is but just that a fitting recognition should be made; therefore be it

Resolved, By Beulah R D lodge, No 35. I O O F, that while we bow with humble submission to the will of the Most High we do not the less mourn for our sister who has been taken from us.

Resolved, That in the death of Sister Hunt this lodge laments the loss of a sister, who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid and the voice of sympathy to the needy and distressed; an active member of this society whose utmost endeavors were exerted for its welfare and prosperity; a friend and companion whose upright and noble life was a standard of emulation to her associates.

Resolved, That we, as a lodge, tender our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved husband and motherless child in the hour of their affliction and commend them to our Father in Heaven.

Resolved, That the charter of this lodge be draped in mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of this lodge and copies be furnished the city papers for publication; also a copy under seal of the lodge be transmitted to the bereaved family.

ALBANY - AND - LEBANON.

Make your selections early while they have a large assortment,

BLAIN CLOTHING CO.

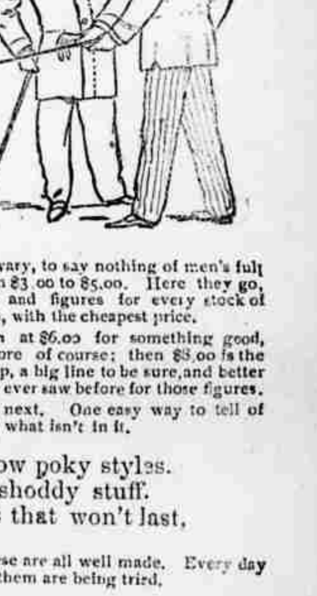
Cold cherry mornings,—
Clear invigorating afternoons—
Moonlight and starlight from evening till dawn—

Hence demand for warm sensible clothing increases. Some new lots received this week--just from the makers.

Some say trade's quiet, not that people don't need, but they can't afford to buy at high prices. We've cut off all but a shade of the profits—for cash.

Just rearranged.

More than 12 long counters piled high, all assorted, over 150 styles of goods, colors and shapes.



Prices vary, to say nothing of men's full suits from $3.00 to $5.00. Here they go, —tickets and figures for every stock of garments, with the cheapest price.

Start in at $6.00 for something good, worth more of course; then $8.00 is the next jump, a big line to be sure, and better than you ever saw before for those figures.

$10.00 next. One easy way to tell of this—say what isn't in it.

Old slow poky styles.
Mean shoddy stuff.
Colors that won't last,

but these are all well made. Every day more of them are being tried.

What kind of a suit for $12 ?

Close to 300 suits to pick from—goods, some imported—some Eastern—some Albany and Brownsville, cheap at $17.50—they're wonder provokers—haven't time to tell much more—fine Cheviots, Meltons and worteds—nice enough for dress—good and warm enough to withstand real zero caperings.

Then $14.00 to $20—$2.00 at a jump—makes four more lots.

Look at your last year's coat—than these—finer, better, tastier—the prices sell them.

'Comparisons are"—

Well, you know what. That's why stocks that are old and out of style, called and high in price suffer when compared with our bright new natty goods.

We've no complaint. The public always wise, sees here the assembly of clothing that outstrips all rivalry.

The responsive sales are gratifying.

Short talks for pant buyers.

1000 odd pairs, one-tenth as many patterns, $1.50 is cheap enough for a good pair—then short jumps to better and best.

Great overcoat weather.
The taking styles—the new styles—the choicest shades.

Warm Wooley Worsteds.
Choice Cheviots.
Mouse Colored Meltons.
Dressy Clay Worsteds.

They are worth more than is asked, but they must go.

Too little time to tell what we have for the old and young. We havn't said a word about Underwear, Shirts, Neckwear, Head wear, Footwear and the rest of many many things we buy and sell.
