Services will begin promptly at 10:30 a. m.

THE JOES AND DAVIDS.—Several weeks ago the Joes and Davids, of Corvallis, were held for the grand jury of Benton county on the charge of misappropriation of funds in their hands as bankers. The grand jury on investigation failed to find a true bill and they were discharged. They had a branch bank at Yreka, where a case was brought before the grand jury of the Circuit Court in session there last week, and last evening a true bill was found against them, and Dr. Davis, who had charge of their Yreka bank, it was thought the case would be tried this week. A big fight will be made on both sides.

THE LIGHTS WENT OUT.—It rained Wednesday like and times, nearly everybody said were dull, but Alvin Joslin filled the room with light and the people with laughter. In fact they laughed so much right from the start that they blew the electric lights out, at least they stopped shining for fifteen minutes and kerosene was used. But the fun continued. Joslin, with his weakening voice, in imitative and original. His support is good, if the audience doesn't laugh 189 times they get pretty close to it.

GATHERED IN.—George Belshaw, the German wheat raiser of Lane county who recently received five World's fair premiums, as well as premiums at the Centennial, New Orleans and Paris, died at Farmington, Wash., yesterday morning, at the age of 75 years. For twenty-five years he made wheat raising a specialty, and took the lead in his exhibits wherever they were shown. Oregon has lost a good citizen, whose services were of great value in advancing the interests of Oregon. He was sitting at the home of a son when he died.

STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—County School Superintendent G. F. Russell is a recipient of a circular letter from State Superintendent McElroy calling attention to the State Teachers Association to be held at Portland December 26th, 27th and 28th. All railway lines will give reduced rates to attending the association and the department of superintendence will be held in connection with the state association. Programs will be prepared and sent to all the teachers of the county. It is Mr. Russell's desire to see a large number of the teachers from this county attend.

FAMILY CASES.—The case of the State against Charles Spaght was called before Justice Newport this forenoon, a jury was drawn and the case was ready for trial; but the prosecuting witness Frank Spaght failed to appear, whereupon the defendant was discharged and the costs taxed up to the prosecuting witness. It is peculiar of most family cases that when the trial is called the prosecuting witness repents and the case is dropped, a fact that makes its own suggestion.

THE DOCTORS COMING.—The distinguished and eminent specialists of the London Institute, 719 Market St., San Francisco, will be at the Revere House Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 6th and 7th, when they can be consulted free in reference to all chronic, nervous and private diseases. Their advertisement published for the past month will give a complete idea of their treatment. Full course of medicine only $5.00; trial bottle, $1.00. Remember the date.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—The following officers were elected by Laurel Lodge No. 1 K of P at their meeting Monday evening: G. W. Wright, C. C. J. R. Wilson, V. C. H. A. Leininger, P. L. M. Carl, M. of W. W. A. McClain, M. of F. L. Gottlieb, M. of E. Q. E. Pratt, K. of R. and L. P. R. Kelly, M. of A.

ATTENTION SIR KNIGHTS.—The next regular meeting of Albany Tent K. O. T. M. will be held in the new hall over the Bank of Oregon. All Sir Knights requested to be present.
A. L. Lamb,
Sir Knight Commander.

IT'S A SERIOUS MATTER. this question of who does your laundry work. Think about it, digest it and act in the right way by sending your clothes to the Albany Steam Laundry. How would you like to have the Celestials running things in your line of business. It wouldn't set well would it, and no wonder. Then send your clothes to Richard & Phillips who do the best work.

VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.—Miss Hattie Warner, a graduate of the conservatory connected with Gates College, Neb., is prepared to give lessons in vocal and instrumental music to single pupils or classes, at reasonable terms. Miss Warner has had a thorough education and is an experienced teacher. Her references are: Prof. H. A. Shorey, William & Trow and Mrs. Jennie Lee.

At the meeting of the city council to-night the salary of the city marshal for next year will be fixed. It should be sufficient to insure the election of a competent man.
A peculiar case occurred in Salem. A man named Maynard took a ring from the finger of a married lady in fan, and was arrested for larceny. A trial was had resulting in the acquittal of the defendant.

Roy and Elmer Raber, of Corvallis, passed through Albany yesterday on their way home from a trip to Idaho, where they thoroughly demonstrated the ability of their machine to save gold where all other processes failed.

Mrs. E. J. Thompson has been confined to her room with sickness for the past two weeks, but is somewhat better at present, we are pleased to state. We are sorry to learn that A. W. Thompson, formerly of this city, now of Avon, Wash., is suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia. At last accounts he was somewhat better.—Corvallis News.

JEWELRY
Is not bought for temporary use, but as a permanent and serviceable ornament. There is often as much value in the make as in the material. Will & Stark of this city keep the largest and finest line in the valley, making a specialty of good goods. Their line of gold and silver watches is a superior one, and in silverware they take the lead in the central Willamette Valley. If you would get the best in their line call on Will & Stark, the leading jewelers.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Bishop Gros came up from Portland this noon.
Thos. and H. L. Black, of Salem, have been in the city.
Mr. and Mrs. Millard Hayes were in the city today on their way to Silverton.

Miss June Dickinson and two blind school mates came up from Salem this noon.
Mrs. J. W. Savden left last evening for Jacksonville on a visit with her parents.
Editor Humphrey, of the Jefferson Review, is in the city. Mr. Humphrey is giving Jefferson people a good paper.

Mrs. M. I. Train, commissioner of women's work for the Midwinter fair, has been in Portland attending to the business of the office.
About a dozen Old Fellows came to Albany from Jefferson this noon to attend a big meeting at the O. F. Hall tonight. There will be more from other places.

E. E. Hammett, one of the U. S. grand jury, returned home today to remain until the 6th. The time of the court will be taken up with the smuggling cases until then.
Miss Ida Vallance, who took the part of Alvin Joslin's wife last evening in such an able manner, received a dispatch yesterday noon that her father had just died in the Soldiers Home at the prison, Wash. She was greatly affected over the news, and yet she was able to carry out one of the liveliest parts in the play with great spirit as a matter of business, a requirement that probably occurs in no other business.

MINUTE.
The Prairieville news tells the following interesting incident: "We saw an intoxicated man meet a little innocent child on the street the other day. He hailed the little one in a fatherly way, drunken as it might have been, asked its name, its age, and its place of residence. Then he gave it a dollar, with kindly given instructions to use the money in the purchase of good books. Then, as he parted with it, he murmured something we could not hear. But it sounded like a blessing, tenderly spoken. And we saw tears flowing from his blood-shot eyes."

H. J. Hopkins went to Salem this noon to do some figuring on the new Soldiers' home, for which a Salem man received the contract.—Albany Democrat. The Democrat is off. Hopkins came down to look after his contract for the galvanized iron work on the new wing at the Reformatory school. Mr. Knighton's plans for the new Soldiers' home were chosen by the trustees but no action as to letting the contract will be taken for a few days. The plans are not yet completed.—Statesman. All the same the Democrat was right. Mr. Hopkins went for just the purpose stated.

Katie Putnam, whose name is a household word will give one performance at the opera house Tuesday Dec. 5th. To all lovers of genuine comedy the announcement of Katie's coming should be sufficient to fill the house. She has an excellent company both dramatically and musically and many new and entertaining songs and dances will be given by Katie and the company. An exchange says the opera house was packed with an enthusiastic audience, which had been drawn to see "Love Finds a Way," acted by the popular little favorite, Katie Putnam. The piece is very interesting, full of fun and with a plot so constructed as to afford very strong situations. As Cay Roward in "Love Finds a Way," Miss Putnam outdone all her former efforts in this city and kept the audience alternately in tears and laughter during the entire evening. The singing and dancing specialties she introduced were new and were most acceptable. The supporting company is stronger this season than last and it may well be doubted if any cabaret on the road is better surrounded than is Miss Putnam this season.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS:

Tuesday evening, Nov. 28th.
Present—Mayor Cowan, Recorder Henton, Marshal McFeron, Street Superintendent Morris, and Councilmen Whitney, Stewart, Pfeiffer, Burkhardt, Marshall and Wheeler.
The following bill was ordered paid: N. J. Henton, $21.30.
Further time was granted on four fire department bills.

The committee on streets and public property recommended that an electric light be placed at Second and Broadalbin streets, and no where else at present. Adopted.
License was granted H. L. Cranor to sell liquor for six months, and bond approved.

The matter of fixing ford of ditch at 4th and 7th streets was continued, with suggestions on the propriety of building a bridge.
The matter of the salary of the city marshal for the next year was brought up, and a meeting called for Wednesday evening, Nov. 29, to arrange for the same, so that in the coming city election, the candidates will know what they are getting.

MARRIED
WILLIAMS—FARRELL.—On Tuesday evening, Nov. 29, 1912, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farrell, by Rev. E. E. Prichard, Mr. M. E. Williams, of Roseburg, and Miss Annie G. Farrell, of this city. The groom is a brother of Mrs. Wm. A. Croxton of this city and a former resident of Albany, now an employee on the Southern Pacific. The bride is a popular and accomplished young lady, a teacher in Albany and other schools of the county. Mr. and Mrs. Williams left on the overland for their new home at Roseburg, taking the best wishes of many friends.

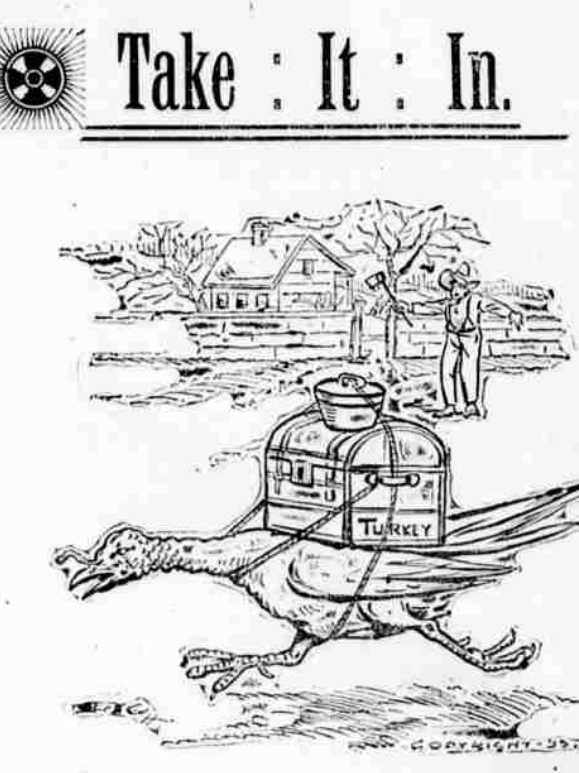

SMITH—BRIDGES.—At the residence of J. T. Bridges in Drain, Sunday, Nov. 26, 1912, Mr. Norman W. Smith, and Miss Amanda T. Bridges, Rev. E. E. Prichard officiating. The groom is a popular drug-gist of Lebanon, Linn county, and the bride is the accomplished daughter of Daniel Bridges and wife of Shelburn in the same county, and sister of our townsman and popular merchant at whose residence the wedding took place. These worthy young people have the best wishes of a host of friends in this vicinity, as they launch out upon the sea of matrimony. Lebanon will be their future home.—Review.
