MISTITS

If the Albany fire department wants the best support of the citizens of Albany they must elect reliable men, of judgment, to fill the positions of chief and assistant chief engineers. The Man About Town hears some pretty emphatic remarks on this sub-icet.

The Eugene Goard takes advantage of the light vote polled at our election Monday and boasts as follows: Albany papers are always claiming that town to be about one-third larger than Eugene, but it is only a "claim." Yesterday that city had a very exciting election and the total vote polled was 690. Eugene at its last city election. April 3, 1893, palled 752 votes. Comment is unnecessary.

Bill Anderson the well-known scloon keeper of Salem publishes a card signed by 57 men, admitting that they were at his place on Thankegiving and ate tarkey, etc. and drank egg-nogr, which they found to be good in every respect. The mane of the man who died from too much egg-nogg and others who were made sick are not on the list. The case is assuming a peculiar assuect.

People who have been claiming foot ball be the most brufal game in the world sould read the following from the Rose-arg Leview: Will Leanis bells us that the should read the following from the Rose-burg Review: Will Learnis tells us that the people of Wilbur witnessed a cayote fight yesterday. Geo Short's bounds overhauled the animal after a 15-mile run and it was brought down to Mr Short's place and turned lose in a pen with the dogs, in the presence of a large audience, when a ficree battle ensued, enting in the death of the sheep slayer.
