NEW YORK LETTER.

New York, December 15th, 1893.

The cloud of discontent which has been gathering over our gallant citizen. soldiers, has at last burst, and resulted in a sensation. The Eighth and Sixtyninth regiments, were disbanded the other day, in obeyance to orders issued by Brigadier General Louis Fitzerland. The news of the disbandment of these The news of the disbandment of these two regiments, spred like wildfire in militia circles. Some thought the step taken by General Fitzerland, to be wise, while on the other hand, the move was denounced by others. Quarrels caused internal dissention, which was the cause of the trouble. In the gallant Sixty-ninth, the action is taken as au insult to the Irish element, as the regiment was composed in the most part of decendants from the "emerald isle."

Since the announcement of the bold

from the "emerald isie."

Since the announcement of the bold attempt made by Valliant the anarchist, to kill M Dupuy in the Chamber o Deputies, the police have been active in New York watching the movements of our own blood thirsty and beer drinking anarchists. Superintendent Byrnes was closeted with his various police captains and a careful watch is being maintained over the resorts on the east side where the long baired, lazy, and contemptible anarchists gather to indulge in a condemnation of human society, and a scooner of beer. Former experiences have been demonstrative of the fact that the polic of New York, are fully able to defeat the petty schemes of the alleged anarchists.

A prominent feature in New York this petty schemes of the alleged anarchists. A prominent feature in New York this week, is the three cornered billiard match, at the concert hall of the Madison Square Garden. The honors of victory are being sought by the three leading billardists in the country, Jacob Shaefer, "the wissard," George F Slosson, "the student," and Frank U Ives, "the young napolian." napolian."

At Abbey's new theatre, on Broadway, Mr Henry Irving, the celebrated English tragedian, has been appearing for four weeks, supported by that most charming and talented actress, Miss Ellen Terry. Under the management of Messra Abbey's handsome theatre, are so high that only those well to do can afford to witness a performance of one of Mr Irving's plays. To be explicit the outrage of asking $1.50 for the cheapest seat in the house, is almost barefaced robbery. Allowing that Mr Irving is a special attraction and that being from Europe, the prices of seats should be increased, it is nevertheless a fact that the management for Mr Irving, has asked a price which is simply extortion. Not many years ago we could witness a performance either of a Shakesperian, or modern tragedy, at a cost which was within the means of the majority of the people, and played by a man who was superior to Mr Irving, it can be said that Edwin Booth as an actor and interpreter of Shakespeare, was decidedly superior to the English tragedian. As plays produced by Irving and his strong company of companion players, nothing but the highest praise can be given to the able English sctors, "Beckett" by Lord Tennyson was the first play produced by Mr Irving and the London Lyceum company. Altho very successful in a literary sense, it lacks the dramatic force which an audience always enjoys, when seeing Mr Irving. "The Bells" and "Louis XI" were also produced and in both these plays Mr Irving is in his glory and perhaps is without a rival. The revival of Shakespeare's comedy "Merchant of Venice" was a most enjoyable success, both for Mr Irving and Miss Terry, "Shylock" was played by Irving, and as Portia Miss Terry again demonstrated that she stands alone as a perfect Shakespearian interpreter, of this most charming role. Mr Irving's characterization of Shylock was forceful and artistic but it lecked that eloquence which marked the memorable portrayal of Booth's "Shylock." The finest production of all was that of the historic play, from Shakespearian
