Coming Events.

Dec 22 —Nevada, by local talent.
Dec 25 to 30—Carnival of Nations.

PERSONAL.

A J Bilyeu, of Scio, was in the city today.

Hon. L. Bilyeu, of Eugene, was in the city today.

Rev Wooley came down from Eugene this noon.

Sam May, the Harrisburg merchant, came down to the city today.

Mrs E E Davis and children went to Harrisburg today to spend Christmas.

Joseph Blakely, ex sheriff of Gilliam county, and uncle to Mrs G W Wright, has been visiting in this city.

Conrad Meyer and F L'Kenton, two Albany grocers, are confined to their homes by illness.

Dr C U Chamberlin left on last nights' overland for San Leandro, Calif. to spend the holidays.

Otto Bannlee and wife, of Albany, spent Sunday in Lebanon, visiting the family of S M W Hindman.

C O Lee left today for Polk county to spend the holidays. Mr U G Hale begins his duties tonight as engineer and watchman.

Miss Mildred Barmester returned this noon from a several months residence in Portland, where she has been the guest of Judge Bellinger.

It is reported that Hughes and Clark, the Blair men, will advertise to buy receiver's certificates. They will find plenty of sellers if they do.

A telegram received today announces the death of Geo Shott, father of Mrs Chas Heffer, of this city. Mr Shott died at Kentown Pa., at the age of 80 years.

Dr Geo S Wright, of McMinnville, will be at the Revere House on Tuesday, Dec 26 and remain several days. Those wishing teeth painlessly extracted will do well to call on him.

Mr Arch Allen, fomerly in the grocery business in this city, now of Dayton, Wash. arrived in this city last evening to spend the holidays. Mrs Aller has been here several weeks.

Judge Duncan, County Clerk Payne, and Assessor Deakins returned last night from Salem, where they appeared before the State Board of Equalization. The latter also attended the Assessors convention.

Messrs Hughes and Clark, the representatives of the Blair faction, who bid in the Oregon Pacific at $200,000, arrived in Albany last night and have gone to Corvallis to prepare for the confirmation contest on the 26th. It is the prevailing opinion that a settlement of the current indebtedness, amounting to about $400,000, will be made and the sale confirmed.

ALL RIGHT.—By request, on account of the distorted versions, the DEMOCRAT yesterday did not publish the items from the Salem papers about Dr. E. L. Irvine. As one of these versions has been given in the city, we present one from last evening's Journal directly to the point: An unsuccessful attempt was made yesterday to have a prominent medical man of this city committed to the insane asylum. Three Salem newspapers have three different accounts of the matter and all are wrong. Dr E L Irvine, of Gervais, was formerly second physician at the state insane asylum, under Supt Lane. He was brought to Salem, accompanied by his wife and before County Judge Hubbard, Drs. Jessup and Cartwright, passed a very critical examination upon him, and he was discharged. All the officials at the court house agreed in pronouncing him perfectly sane. E J Harding did not make the complaint as reported.

THE ASSESSORS.—The state board of assessors yesterday passed the following resolution: That we, the assessors of the state of Oregon, believing it to be to the best interest of the masses of the people of the state, do most heartily recommend that the next legislative assembly of the state enact a law, providing for the deduction of indebtedness, where a corresponding credit is assessed and providing for the assessing of mortgages, and for collecting taxes on the same.

VACATION.—College students left their desks today for their homes to spend the holiday vacation, an event long looked forward to. A number of Monmouth students arrived on the Modoc and hastened to the depot. The noon train from Corvallis brought a large delegation of Agricultural college students, who gave a live salute as they stepped from the train.

The Examiner says Court Mihaly, of Hungary is in the Oregon Insane asylum; but none of the officers know any thing about it.

The easiest way to get a fortune is to have it told to you by the fortune tellers at the Carnival of Nations next Tuesday evening.

Make your wife a present of a carpet sweeper. S E Young carries Bissell's "Superior" sweepers.

It is said that Clark and Hughes had $351,000 on hand expressly for bidding on the Oregon Pacific, a fact that indicates a settlement with the employes.

The Oregon Pacific is not employing any more hands than it needs, outside of eight or nine head men whose task could be done by five men at a fourth of the present wages. If run all right the road will pay expenses.

Lebanon lodge, A F & A M, Saturday evening elected the following officers: E E Hammack, W M; W B Donaca, S W; J W Burkhart, J W; E M Miller, Sec; J Wassom, Treas; G T Cotton, Tyler.

The money distributed by the county school superintendent, as given elsewhere, will materially benefit school matters through the county. Prof Russell's promptness in the matter is very commendable.

This is the shortest day in the year and the moon is now full. The combination was peculiarly noticeable at Yaquina where the tide reached its highest point, at Nye creek sweeping over the bath houses, on the bank at the mouth of the creek.

Christmas festivities will begin tomorrow night with trees at the Presbyterian and M E South and a social at the Congregational church. On Monday evening the Baptist and M E churches will have trees and the U P Sabbath school an arbor with Santa Claus.

The Oregonian says: R E Mulcahy, general superintendent of the Oregon Pacific, yesterday closed arrangements to accept the management of a railroad on the Sound. He will enter upon his new duties early in January. Mr Mulcahy will not state at present the road he has accepted a position with.

Following are the new officers of the lodge of Pythian Sisters of this city: Mrs Mary McClain, M E C; Mrs Mary Parker, E S of T; Mrs Alice Richards, E J of T; Miss Olga Hewitt, M of T; Mrs Julia Farrell, M of R and C; Mrs Clifton, M of F; Mrs Maggie Harris, P of T; Mrs Florence Conn, G of O T.

Sunday, the marshal arrested Frank Clevenger for violating the city ordinance, and put him in the calaboose. His father, W H Clevenger, came up and put up $11.25 as bonds for Frank's appearance for trial the next day. Frank appeared at the hour set for trial and plead guilty to the charge and was fined $5 and costs, making $11.25 in all. The recorder, in whose hands the bond money had been placed, just applied that money to pay the costs and the fine. Before the trial Mr Clevenger requested the return of his money as he only gave bonds for Frank's appearance and did not intend to pay his fine, but his demand was refused, and suit will be brought to recover the money.—Lebanon Advance.

Carnival! CARNIAAL!! CARNIVAL!!!

MISFITS

A California man in 1884 named a new born son Grover. Now he is mad, and has changed the name to Sylvester Pennoyer. Will the boy live it out.

Councilmon Wright, of Tacoma, reports that for $1600 spent by the street department of that city for manual labor, $1100 were required to pay superintendents and bosses.

Some of the Salem papers are getting up New Years editions, which will contain biograhical sketches of prominent men, paid for. The Independent says that just as soon as New Years is past it will publish correct sketches of such men not paid for. A great scheme.

A valley paper down the river with three contemporaries boasts of more want adds every day than all the others combined. It had two or three, while in one of the others were several times as many. It doesn't take the public long to catch on.

A majority of Salem's city council reported in favor of one driver, the Chief engineer to act as driver; two policemen, one day and one night, the street force to be cut down two men, that hobos be kept in a rented room instead of the county jail, that supplies be on a requisition. They can thus save $4,800 a year.

The state board of equalization generally goes on the plan of taking the highest pro rata assessment and bringing all the counties up to it, a wrong basis. If approximately correct the assessment should stand, or the board should establish a rate previous to the assessments and then act on that basis.

A California paper says: "Oregon appropriated $60,000 for her exhibit at the World's fair and she made an exhibit and a good one which will send thousands of settlers to the state, and be worth millions of dollars. All this is not so very surprising although the money named would scarcely be enough to send one of our public functionaries on a pleasure trip to the fair."

Yesterday a settlement was had in which fourteen or fifteen different debts were paid, and only in one case was a small balance paid in cash. The matter terminated with an aggregate indebtedness due one man instead of several. The affair is very suggestive of what a few dollars put in circulation does for a community. Let the O P men be paid and the Linn County Bank send out 35 per cent of its deposits and thousands of dollars of debts would be settled and affairs appear flush for awhile.

Elmer Montague's old mare died last night of la grippe. She was buried this morning in funereal style.
