A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Mrs. P. D. HALL, 217 Genessee St., Lockport, N. Y., says: "Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was

and had decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a teaspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."

Experience of an Ex-Chaplain
Athletes and men who take ordinary outdoor exercise such as walking, running, bicycle riding, jumping, swimming, tennis, etc., are often the subjects of acute troubles. The experience of an ex-chaplain walker will be of interest to all who are afflicted. Harry Brooks writes: "No. 324 East 19th St., New York, April 2, 1893. Numerous statements relative to the merits of different plasters having been brought to my attention, I take this opportunity to state that I have used Alcock's Porous Plaster for over 2 years and prefer them to any other kind I would furthermore state that I was very sick with catarrh of the kidneys, and attribute my recovery entirely to Alcock's Porous Plaster."

The Genuine And The Sham.
Every good thing has its host of imitators; every genuine article its counterfeits. The imitators always choose the most valuable and popular article to counterfeit, so that when they claim their sham to be equal, or as good, or the same as "So-and-so's," the public may depend upon it that "So-and-so's" article is the best of the kind. The sham proves the genuine merit of the thing it copies, and never has this been better illustrated than by the imitations of Alcock's Porous Plaster.

Alcock's Porous Plaster is the standard of excellence the world over, and its imitators in their cry that theirs is "as good as Alcock's" are only emphasizing this fact and admitting "Alcock's" to be the acme of perfection, which it is their highest ambition to imitate. The difference between the genuine and these imitations, which copy only general appearance, is as wide as that between copper and gold.

The only safe way for purchasers is to always insist upon having Alcock's Porous Plaster. They are the only perfect plasters ever produced.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

AT MEAL TIMES do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It might be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your tea, coffee, sugar, baked goods and innuumerable other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the prices of the best and the worst that it does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy. The best is always the cheapest, because the most satisfactory and durable, and the very best of everything in the grocery line is kept at Parker Bros.

If religious beliefs perplex you, and you desire a faith at once reasonable and uplifting, send for free liberal religious reading to postoffice mission, 376 Yamhill street, Portland, Or.

Thousands of lives are saved annually by the use of Ayer's Pectoral. In the treatment of croup and whooping cough, the Pectoral has a most marvelous effect. It allays inflammation, frees the obstructed air passage and controls the desire to cough.

Self Praise.

Self praise is no recommendation, but there are not times when one must permit a person to tell the truth about himself. When that he says is supported by the testimony of others, no reasonable man will doubt his word. Now, to say that Alcock's Porous Plaster is the only genuine and reliable porous plaster made is not self praise in the slightest degree. They have stood the test for over thirty years, and in proof of their merits it is only necessary to call attention to the cures they have effected and to the voluntary testimonials of those who have used them. Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Alcock's, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

Fatal Accident.

PENDLETON, Or, Dec 25.—James P. Dushes, of this city, Masonic grand lecturer, who has been engaged in official duties in the Willamette valley for several months past, while returning home this morning on the east bound Union Pacific train to pass Christmas with his family, in some unaccountable manner was thrown from the steps of a chair car, striking on his head, killing him instantly, while the train was just entering the city limits. It was some hours after the accident that the body was found. It is supposed ice and frost on the platform caused him to slip, his head striking the ties and rails.

Stanford Won.

TACOMA, Wash, Dec 25.—Before a holiday crowd numbering thousands the Vivenda Club's football team met the famous eleven of the Lelan I Stanford, on the Eleventh street grounds. Those who attended the game were well repaid, for the best players did much better than their most sanguine friends had expected, holding the very strong Stanford team down to less than 50 points, which, everything considered, was doing remarkably well. The score was 44 to 0 in favor of Stanford.

The Right Way.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 25.—The Salvation Army here attempted today to carry Christmas cheer into San Francisco's darkest houses and to gladden the hearts of thousands in the city who have no homes or shelter. In a former dive on Grant avenue, recently transformed into a Salvationist station, tables are now arranged to seat 450 people. In this place over 3500 hungry men and women were given their Christmas dinner.

The Snugglers

PORTLAND, Dec 25.—Nat Blum, having been released from custody on $17,000 bonds imposed by Judge Bellinger on Saturday, will after a brief stay with his family at La Grande, tie him direct to the national capital, with the avowed purpose of interceding for Jackling, Garhorne, Sweeney and Berg (and, incidentally, for himself) at the democratic throne of political and judicial grace. That he will succeed in interviewing the president and Secretary Carlisle is not doubted here for a moment and the outcome of his nervy venture will be watched with profound interest.

Mulkey, who was convicted of conspiracy to smuggle Chinese, was also allowed to go home to spend Christmas, and left for Tacoma last night. Dunbar and Bannon, the other two convicted, are in town, but have not been released since the trial, and are on their original bonds. Lotan and Reid Bart, as to the conviction of whom the jury disagreed, are under the same bonds as before.

A Big Fire

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 25.—At 11:30 this morning a fire broke out in the block bounded by Clay, Commercial, Sansome and Leidesdorff streets and in a few minutes one of the biggest fires of the year was raging. The block was composed of some of the oldest brick buildings in the city. It is now estimated that the damage will reach half a million. The principal losses are: Valentine & Co., printers, loss one hundred thousand; insured for $25,000.

A Child Enjoys

Supplemental flavor, gentle action and soothing effect. Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be unable to attend to the child, the most gratifying results follow its use; so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle of it.

Our readers do not need to be told what the Century Magazine is. It is a great work in any sense. For 1894 it will be greater than ever. 2000 pages of choice literature with 1000 illustrations. There will be a new novel by Mark Twain, important expeditions, hunting of fierce game, artists' adventures, tramping with tramps, unpublished essays of James Russell Lowell, etc.

The St. Nicholas is the prince of children's magazines, the best of all of them. A feature of the 1894 number will be Tom Sawyer Abroad by Mark Twain, a natural history series, a series on American authors, stories of India by Rudyard Kipling, recollections of wild life, papers on the government and some beautiful serial stories, as well as the famous Brownies.

The price of the Century is 35 cents a number, $4.00 a year; of St. Nicholas, $3.00 a year. Any subscriber of the DEMOCRAT in good standing may secure the Century for $3.50 or the St. Nicholas for $2.50, by leaving the money at this office. We will do the rest.
