

GOOD EVENING

WANTS AN OFFICE FOR CAP.—The Pendleton E O says: F P Caviness, father of W W Caviness, is in the city today...

THE STREET CAR LINE.—The loss by the recent fire which caused the destruction of the street car plant has been adjusted...

BETTER SLEEPY THAN DEAD.—The Corvallis Gazette, a paper in a dead town gets off the following after a desperate effort...

BIG HUNTING.—The Oregon city Courier tells of some hunting that makes quite an item: "W G Clark, an adventurous hunter and trapper, who used to shoot Indians with Buffalo Bill, has been spending a year at the headwaters of the Clackamas and Molalla rivers hunting elk and deer and trapping."

FOR CITY OFFICERS.—At the meeting of the city council tomorrow night there will be an election for three night-watches, two being also engineers, a street superintendent and a city attorney.

A GRAND BALL.—A Grand Uniform ball will be given by F Co, Second Regiment O N G, at their hall on 2nd St Wednesday evening Jan 16, 1894.

AN ANGRY MAN.—Why? Because his flannels were returned to him all shrunken up. Then send yours to the City Laundry, they wash them without shrinking or making them rough.

C E Brownell, the grocer, is in his new and commodious quarters in the P O block, where he is prepared to give satisfaction to the first class trade of the city.

Clean towels to every customer at Vierck shaving parlors.

My fall line of MACINTOSHES and RUBBER COATS, including many novelties, ladies, misses and children, is now on sale.

HOME AND ABROAD

Pennoyer has not made a cranky move for several days. What is the matter? A Rainy Day club has been formed in Salem. This simply means short skirts in wet weather.

The Elwood and Modoc are fighting the Altona for river traffic. The result is some very cheap rates on the Willamette.

A hunter on one of the mountain meadows near Camas prairie killed five cougars in one day. The largest was nine feet long.

Although Roseburg already has a republican paper a movement is on foot to start another one. Some people have peculiar ideas of long felt wants.

Agent Fronk has received a supply of Midwinter fair tickets, which will be put on the market when the fair opens, which will occur some time during 1894.

Ladies Aid Society meets to-morrow afternoon with Mrs L E Blain at half past two o'clock, for the purpose of electing officers for the year. Let all members be present.

City warrants still bring $5 cents and no sale. State warrants are at par, county warrants are at 95 cents, school warrants are received as collateral security.

Frank Morrison and Colonel J B Fithian have purchased the Portland weekly Dispatch from Tony Nolter, and will continue its publication on the same lines as heretofore.

Saturday the O P train ran into a couple feet of snow at Detroit. Several trees fell across the track this side, thus blocking the train, which was unable to return to Albany until yesterday afternoon.

A circular from Albro Akia shows that in 1893 the world brewed 137,000,000 barrels of beer; used up 1,632,000 bales of hops, produced 907,000 bales, leaving a shortage of 125,000 bales.

C W Lamson, cashier of the defunct bank at Junction, is out of luck. A few months since he opened a racket store in Forest Grove, and last week he was forced to close the same on account of a number of attachments.

Gray's river has a world heater in the fat woman line. She weighs 350 pounds and she has to stay at home because she would swamp any of the small boats which furnish the only transportation facilities the settlement affords.

The Salem Statesman says that the state tax levy for this year will probably be $15 mils. Last year it was 23-25 mils together with a special tax of one-seventh of a mill for the support of the state university and one fifth of a mill for the support of the Oregon national guard.

The history of 1893 will be the history of the darkest epoch of the nation's life since the civil war. The fire losses in the United States it is believed will reach a total of $160,000,000, a figure greater than that of any former year except 1871, the year of the great fire, when $100,000,000 buildings were burned in Chicago with a loss of $192,000,000. It is always darkest just before dawn and the sun of prosperity for 1894 has already begun to rise above the industrial horizon.

PERSONAL

Mr Frank Staff, of Salem, spent Sunday in Albany.

Miss Nora Zeiss has returned from a trip to Chicago.

Dr J W Thomas, of Wolalla, is in the city the guest of Mr E A Parker.

COLLEGE Y M C A

Saturday afternoon Prof Lewis of Pacific University led a half hour's devotional meeting, subject "The Holy Spirit."

The topic of "Committee Work" was taken up. J R Johnson of Pacific College, E E Washburn of Portland University, J A Dummett, and Mr Brown of Portland, Mr Handaker of Monmouth, Mr Dougherty of Corvallis and others spoke on the subject.

"The relation of the gymnasium to the association" was presented by J R Weatherbee of Eugene, followed by Prof Powell of Forest Grove and others.

It was urged that the College Y M C A should take some active part in bringing about inter-collegiate athletic contests. The time has fully come for such contests in Oregon and if the College Y M C A does not take the matter up other organizations will, and thus our associations will lose a grand opportunity to get hold of the boys, who are interested in athletics but who are not interested in Y M C A work.

An interesting question box was presided over by Mr Dummett.

The evening session was opened with a song and praise service, followed by prayer led by Rev Frow of the Congregational church. Mr E J Hunt made appropriate remarks. Dr McClelland of the Pacific University was introduced as the speaker of the evening and spoke on the subject of "The central aim of College Y M C A Work." The lecture was thoughtful and was appreciated by all hearing it.

Yes-day's services began with a consecration meeting at 9:30 o'clock, led by J A Dummett, closing with a circle and the song "Blessed be the tie that binds."

At 10:30 Mr Hunt spoke at the Presbyterian church, and Mr Jacks, of the Portland Y M C A at the U P church. The latter showed how men's sins lead to their poverty in time like these, and called attention to the fact that you do not find Christians among the beggars and tramps of the day.

At 4 o'clock Dr Driver spoke at the opera house to a large audience on Social Parity. While the Doctor wanders some from his text he strikes hard blows that should be digested.

In the evening the farewell services were held at the M E church, before a packed house. J A Dummett presided. The committee on resolutions reported expressing thanks to all who have so well assisted in making the convention a success. The following were called for and responded with short remarks: Carlton Sox, president Stanford University Y M C A; Rev Riley Little; Rev J T Abbot; E W Emmett, President Albany College Y M C A; Mr Templeton, President of Y M C A State University; Prof Powell, of Pacific University; Mr Brown, President Willamette University Y M C A; Prof Lewis, of Forest Grove; Mr Williams, President of McMinnville College Y M C A; Mr Brown, President of Portland University Y M C A; Prof Loyt, of Pacific University; Mr Handaker, President Monmouth Y M C A; Mr Dougherty, President Agricultural Y M C A; Prof Hawley of Willamette University; Noel H Jacks and Mr Hunt. The convention closed with the circle and blessed be the tie that binds, Dr Driver giving the parting remarks.

THE RESOLUTIONS. We your committee on resolutions, beg leave to submit the following report:

1. Resolved, That we return thanks to the Almighty Father for his manifold blessings during the sessions of the convention, and upon our work among the colleges of Oregon, and with his continued blessing we go from here with a renewed zeal for the work, and with increased energy to prosecute our labors in this portion of the Master's vineyard.

2. Resolved, That our thanks are due the Southern Pacific R R Co for reduction in fares to delegates.

3. Resolved, That our most hearty thanks are tendered the Apollo Club and others for furnishing us with music during the convention.

4. Resolved, That we hereby extend our thanks to the Herald, Democrat and Telescope, newspapers of Albany, and other papers giving space to reports of the convention.

5. Resolved, That we render our special thanks to Professor Lee, of Albany College, for his able and efficient leadership of the convention.

6. Resolved, That our hearty thanks are due Dr I D Driver, of Eugene, Pres Thomas McClelland, of Pacific University, Pres C H Chapman of the State University, Pres E N Condit, Albany College, Prof Lewis, of Pacific College, and Prof F L Campbell, of Monmouth State Normal, for their valuable assistance in our program.

7. Resolved, That we heartily appreciate the wise counsel and inspiration of the State Secretary, J A Dummett, and also the assistance of Noel H Jacks, secretary of the Portland Y M C A.

8. Resolved, That we heartily appreciate the kindness of the International committee, in New York, in sending to us the International College Secretary, E Lawrence Hunt, whose presence and inspiring words have been a great help in our meetings.

9. Resolved, That we render our heartfelt thanks to the many kind families of Albany for the hospitality of their homes, and the very great kindness with which we have been entertained.

10. Resolved, That we record our appreciation of the courtesy of the Albany College in granting us the use of their building, and of the work of the entertainment committee for the completeness of the provisions made for our reception and entertainment.

H. S. TEMPLETON, A. E. PESKEN, D. C. WILLIAMS, H. F. ALLEN.

MISFITS

Nowadays a man has to make a fool of himself to receive notoriety.

Dr Driver says the matter with Job was that he had small pox. The Doctor is at least original.

One of the largest dry goods houses in the city informs the Welcome that its holiday trade this year exceeded, by several thousand dollars, that of 1892-3. The management found a whole lot of people provided with "sufficient means of support."—Portland Welcome.

A wonderful anniversary, the 100th, of the marriage of Mr and Mrs Jean Szathmary, is reported from Hungary. This appears to be a circumstance which is entirely impossible, but the marriage of this aged pair is duly and officially recorded as having taken place in May, 1793, at which time, according to the record, they were of marriageable age.

As in Hungary at that time a bridegroom must have reached the age of 29 and a bride that of 15, the pair must now be at least 129 and 115 years old.

PRAYER MEETING.—At the W C T U Hall on Wednesday, Jan 10, the day in the week of prayer set apart for temperance and kindred reforms, at 2:30 p m, a meeting will be held for prayer and conference. A cordial invitation is extended for men and women, whether allied in any way to the W C T U or not, to be present and take part in this meeting. John G Woolley was asked for an expression of opinion concerning the temperance movement. He replied, "There is no temperance movement; there is very much temperance sentiment, but no movement." Am I my brothers keeper? Fellow Christians, can you not be with us at the W C T U hall, Wednesday at 2:30 p m. Com.

COYOTE SCALPS.—Thirteen coyote scalps have recently been presented the county court for the regular $5 bounty. They were all rejected for the reason that the indications were strong that the scalps were brought from over the mountains and were not killed in this county. There are no coyotes in the part of the county where it was claimed the animals were gotten.
