A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

Mrs. P. D. Hall, 217 Genessee St., Lockport, N. Y., says:

"Over thirty years ago, I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights, I was and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments, I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a teaspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."

TRIBUTE.

While it is over thirty years ago since Allcock's Porous Plasters were first introduced to the medical profession and public, the marked success and unprecedented popularity which they met with not only continues, but steadily increases. No other plasters have been produced which gain so many testimonials of high value as those continuously accorded to Allcock's Porous Plasters, and the only motive for these exceptional tributes lies in fact of their being a medicinal and pharmaceutical preparation of superior value. Additional proof of the true value of Allcock's Porous Plasters lies in the fact that they are being largely imitated by unscrupulous persons, who seek to deceive the public by offering plasters which they claim to be the 'same,' 'equal,' 'as good,' 'better,' 'best porous plaster,' etc, while it is in general appearance only that they resemble Allcock's. Every one of the so-called porous plasters are imitations of Allcock's Porous Plasters.

Avoid dealers who attempt to palm off inferior and worthless plasters that are purchased by them at low rates for the purpose of substitution.

Eruption of the Skin Cured.

Ed Veaney, Brockville, Ontario, Canada, says:

"I have used Brandreth's Pills for the past fifteen years, and think them the best cathartic and anti-bilious remedy known. For some five years I suffered with an eruption of the skin that gave me great pain and annoyance. I tried different blood remedies, but, although gaining strength the itching was unrelieved. I finally concluded to take a thorough course of Brandreth's Pills. I took six each night for nights, then five, four, three, two, increasing each time by one, and then for one month took one every night, with the happy result that now my skin is perfectly clear and has been so ever since."

Self Praise.

Self praise is no recommendation, but there are not times when one must permit a person to tell the truth about himself. When what he says is supported by the testimony of others no reasonable man will doubt his word. Now, to say that Allcock's Porous Plasters are the only genuine and reliable porous plasters made is not self praise in the slightest degree. They have stood the test for over thirty years, and in proof of their merits it is only necessary to call attention to the cures they have effected and to the voluntary testimonials of those who have used them. Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Allcock's, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

The Genuine And The Sham.

Every good thing has its host of imitators; every genuine article its counterfeits. The imitators always choose the most valuable and popular article to counterfeit, so that when they claim their sham to be equal, or as good, or the same as "So and-So's," the public may depend upon it that "So-and-So's" article is the best of the kind. The sham proves the genuine merit of the thing it copies and never has this been better illustrated than by the imitations of Allcock's Porous Plasters.

Allcock's Porous Plaster is the standard of excellence the world over, and its imitators in their cry that theirs is "as good as Allcock's" are only emphasizing this fact and admitting "Allcock's" to be the acme of perfection, which it is their highest ambition to imitate. The difference between the genuine and these imitations, which copy only general appearance, is as wide as that between copper and gold.

The only safe way for purchasers is to always insist upon having Allcock's Porous Plasters. They are the only perfect plasters ever produced.

Thousands of lives are saved annually by the use of Ayer's Pectoral. In the treatment of croup and whooping cough, the Pectoral has a most marvelous effect. It allays inflammation, frees the obstructed air passage and controls the desire to cough.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Rather Sensational.

New York, Jan 12.—The Mail and Express Washington special says: The president's delay in not sending the Hawaiian message to congress this morning with the last batch of the Willis correspondence caused a great deal of adverse criticism at the capitol. Both sides are anxious for the papers. The trouble is the president is not quite ready with his message, and it will take him some hours yet to complete it. He intends to wash his hands entirely of his past actions in the matter, and, strange as it may seem, he will startle congress and the country by recommending congress to proceed at once to establish a protectorate over the islands.

Confirmation.

Washington, Jan 12.—The senate today in executive session, confirmed the following nominations: John M B Sill, minister resident and consul general to Corea; Robert E Preston, district of Columbia, to be director of mint. Indian agents Isaac J Wooten, of Delaware, at Nevada agency, in Nevada; George W Harper, of Georgia, at Umatilla agency, Oregon; Charles E Davis, of Illinois, at Colorado River agency, in Arizona.

Several Drowned.

Long Island City, L I, Jan 12.—About 60 men were thrown into New Town creek tonight by the collapse of a section of a temporary drawbridge over the creek connecting Bradley avenue at Laurel Hill with Meeker avenue, Brooklyn. The following were on the bridge at the time and have not been seen since: Patrick Briody, H Marckey, George Mills, Michael McGubky, James Smith.

La Grippe Did It.

Pittsburg, Jan 12.—J G Hilton, colored, janitor of the United States courtrooms, crazed by la grippe, jumped from a second-story room this morning and ran down the street, firing at everybody he met. His aim was generally bad, though he seriously wounded Isaac Clatty. He then put the muzzle of the revolver to his own mouth, blowing off the top of his head. He is dying.

A Jail Break

Union, Or, Jan 12.—Four prisoners confined in the Union county jail, in this city, succeeded in making their escape at about 4 o'clock this morning. The names of the jailbirds are Ben Masche, held on a charge of stealing cattle; J Longley, for forging a check; Flo Rogers, for stealing horses, and Sid Lansing, for larceny.

Experience of an Ex-Champion

Athletes and men who take ordinary outdoor exercise such as walking, running, bicycle riding, jumping, swimming, tennis, etc, are often the subjects of acute troubles. The experience of an ex-champion walker will be of interest to all who are afflicted. Harry Brooks writes:

"No. 344 East 19th St., New York, April 2, 1886. Numerous statements relative to the merits of different plasters having been brought to my attention, I take this opportunity to state that I have used Allcock's Porous Plasters for over 20 years and prefer them to any other kind. I would furthermore state that I was very sick with catarrh of the kidneys, and attribute my recovery entirely to Allcock's Porous Plasters."

The Century and St Nicholas.

Our readers do not need to be told what the Century Magazine is. It is a great work in any sense. For 1894 it will be greater than ever. 2000 pages of choice literature with 1000 illustrations. There will be a new novel by Mark Twain, important expeditions, hunting of fierce game, artists adventures, tramping with tramps, unpublished essays of James Russell Lowell, etc.

The St Nicholas is the prince of children's magazines, the best of all of them. A feature of the 1894 number will be Tom Sawyer Abroad by Mark Twain, a natural history series, a series on American authors, stories of India by Rudyard Kipling, recollections of wild life, papers on the government and some beautiful serial stories, as well as the famous Brownies.

The price of the Century is 35 cents a number, $4.00 a year; of St Nicholas, $3.00 a year. Any subscriber of the Democrat in good standing may secure the Century for $3.50 or the St Nicholas for $2.50, by leaving the money at this office. We will do the rest.
