OBITUARY.—Wm G Montgomery died Jan 1 1894. He was born in Ballard, county, Ky., May 30, 1834. Crossed the plains in 1847, and in 1852 settled on the place where he died. Was united in marriage in Oct 1852 to Miss Mary L Casick. Became a member of the Christian church of the day of his death. He was the father of 13 children, 10 of whom are still living, who with their mother mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate husband and father. Brother Montgomery has always been held in high esteem by those that know him, for honest principles and unwavering integrity. T. P. GOODMAN.

WANTED TO RIDE.—An amusing incident occurred at the site of the street car barn, recently burned, this noon. The car, with its charred top and broken windows, stands in the front of the burnt place, a dilapidated looking spectacle. A couple just from the train, with their hands full of baggage, rushed through the rain for the car, got on the platform and were about to enter for a trip down street, when arrested by the cheers of several who were watching the mistake. They "caught on" to the joke, and hastily fled to the sidewalk and on the scene.

A TRADE TAX.—The city council will have its hands full providing for satisfactory revenue to meet the yearly expenses. A trade tax will not give satisfactory. Business men are the ones who pay the heavy taxes on the regular levy, and they say a trade tax simply adds to the burden, when they have their hands full any way. Hinc ergo should be taxed heavily. The home merchants should be favored, the pedler should pay for his privileges. How shall the revenue be raised. Probably by retrenchment.

ALL TO REGISTER.—No Celestials have yet registered here; but several will. Crawford & Paxton took pictures for two or three yesterday, and some this afternoon. Jim Westfall made arrangements for eight or ten and Sam Wa for about the same number. Westfall says all in the city will register. The Chinese population here is not very extensive, and has gradually been decreasing.

A LAND SLIDE.—A big land slide occurred at Oysterville this morning delaying the passenger train until about 1:30, when the slide was removed and the train started for Albany where it was expected at 4:30 o'clock. The wires were down, the other side of Wrenn, preventing communication with the Bay until about 2 o'clock.

AN HONEST MAN.—The pocket book of Mr Richards at Stayton had a close call. It was lost with some money and valuable papers. Mr A M Brown found it on the edge of a cliff, nearly ready to fall off, and being the honest man returned it to the owner. The man honest enough to return money to its owner these hard times is entitled to the first premium every time.

The reason why Alcock's Porous Plasters are popular is that they may be relied on to cure:

- 1. Lame back, sciatica, stiffness or twitching of the muscles.
- 2. Chest troubles, such as pleurisy, pneumonia, consumption.
- 3. Indigestion, dyspepsia, biliousness, kidney complaint.

The success, however, will depend upon the genuineness of the plaster used. The popularity of Alcock's Porous Plaster has been so great that multitudes of imitations have sprung up on every hand. The only sure cure is to get the genuine Alcock's Porous Plasters.

Patronize the business man who advertises. The advertiser is a hustler who never lets the dust settle on his glasses and obscure his vision. Besides, by patronizing the men who advertise, you help the newspaper publisher, who is thereby enabled to do more efficient work in helping build up the town and promote the welfare of the community.—Ex.

There is no question at all but what theoretically the bridge should be continued a free one. Toll bridges are becoming out of date and are not the modern idea. The only question in the case of the Albany bridge is whether it will be absolutely necessary to have a toll in order to meet the expenses. It should be the last resort. Try retrenchment first.

Because a man has been in the penitentiary should he be kept down all his life. Lionel Stagger, receiver of the Oregon Bank, of Portland is such a man. If he is behaving himself and has atoned for the crime committed he should not be kicked out entirely. Give him a chance to regain his lost character. The world is full of more untrustworthy men than Mr Stagger who were never behind penitentiary walls.

"Bill" Hart, the noted gambler, declares he is out of the game for good. He has experienced a change of heart, though he has not got religious. The newspaper did it. To us his terse expression: "I've come to the conclusion that if I am as big a scoundrel as this paper makes me out, I'll quit." "It is pretty tough, isn't it?" he added. "A fellow doesn't know how much of a low down case he is until he sees it set forth in plain print, and then it knocks him endwise. I'm done. No more poker for me!"
