A very pleasant surprise party was tendered the members of the Albany Social Club Saturday evening by about 20 of their lady friends. It was a genuine surprise. A very interesting program was rendered, after which a fine lunch and general sociability were indulged in.

Mr Bryant, disciplinarian at the reform school was in the city this noon looking after a couple boys who had escaped from the school, one from Yamhill county, the other from Portland.

Goldsmith, Childs and Heyden, three Portland grocery drummers were doing Albany today. The man about Town had the pleasure of hearing them compete in telling how stories, leaving just as Goldsmith's turn came around, no doubt missing the biggest narrative of the trio.

Mr J H Chapman, President of the Young People's society of the Baptist church of the U S and Canada, arrived in Albany this noon being met by a large delegation of young Baptists. He spoke at 3 o'clock, and tonight will address a public meeting at the Baptist church, Mr Chapman is a Chicago business man, and is worth hearing.

D D Prettyman, of Turner, is lying dangerously ill, without prospect of recovery. Mr Prettyman is well known all over Oregon, having for many years made collections of fruits and cereals for the Oregon state fair and Portland exposition. A TRAIN LESS.—Beginning yesterday there will be one freight train less pass through Albany over the Southern Pacific road. Instead of running daily freight trains will operate only five days, viz: No. 32 will run from Portland to Junction City on Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, going south. Train No. 31 will run between the above named cities, going north, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. From Junction City to Ashland freight trains will operate on a tri-weekly schedule. The result is the discharging of about twenty-five men.

FIRE MATTERS.—Albany Engine Co. No. 1 are moving their furniture to the hall of No. 2's, which they will occupy jointly with that company. The recorder will move into the vacated hall this week. Arrangements are also being made by the ways and means committee, to move the No. 1's engine to No. 2's hall, which will be done during the week. The committee on fire and water refuse to act in the matter, having the city's interests at stake.

DESTRUCTION AT MILL CITY.—E L Wheeler, who has a nursery near Mill City came to Albany this forenoon, leaving home without a cent, walking as far as Munkers, and riding the remainder of the way, the conductor permitting it rather than to put him off. He says matters are in a very bad shape around Mill City, and that destination actually exists, giving facts that leave no question as to the correctness of the statement.

THE NEW TIME TABLE.—O P trains are now running under the new schedule, beginning to-day, as follows: The mixed train leaves Detroit at 6:30 a m; arrives at Albany at 10:55 and leaves Albany at 12:35 for the Bay arriving there at 7:30 p m. THE CHINESE MUST GO.—No more excuse for sending your washings to Celestina Richards & Phillips will now do plain family washings for the astonishingly low price of 20 cents per dozen. This breaks the record, and should bring every citizen of Albany into line. Stand by white labor and patronize home industry. Under this arrangement there must be a fall down to count. It is to be hoped there is not a single resident of the city who sends out washings, who will not patronize the Albany Steam Laundry.

REWARD

ALBANY, Jan. 29.

To any one finding any of the following words or phrases in their Bibles—whether in English, Greek, or Hebrew,—if they will send in the name of the book—in either Old or New Testament—stating chapter and verse. I will pay a reward of $500 and a cow: Immortal soul, deathless soul, never dying soul, disembodied soul, deathless spirit, glorified spirit, spirit world, glory land, upper fold, the brighter home above, the upper and better kingdom, gone to the spirit land, is safe in heaven, has gone to be an angel, the death that never dies, death is the gate to glory, death is another life, the body is only a cage, go to heaven at death, eternal hell, never ending torment, endless misery, ceaseless anguish, eternal sorrow, everlasting torture. Also the same for the passage saying that either Christ or his Apostles ever sprinkled or poured water on the head of any person—old or young—for baptism.

If these things are taught by Bible writers, must not they not be in the Bible? Cannot a Bible Faith be stated in Bible language? If Bible writers never used them is it right for men to do so? (Revelations 22:18-19.) Can a Christian use words that convey a false impression, deceive the minds of his hearers and be guiltless?

What does the Bible say? The soul that sinneth, it shall die.—Ezekiel, 18:4.

The wages of sin is death.—Romans, 6:23.

Man is not immortal by nature. We are told to Seek for glory and honor and immortality, eternal life.—Roman, 2:7.

The Lord only has immortality.—1 Timothy, 6:14-16. To be obtained by the just at the Resurrection.—1 Corinthians, 15:52-54.

Absolute Merit.

No other plaster has been produced which gains so many testimonials of high value as those continuously recorded to Alcock's Plaster, and the only motive for these exceptional commendations is the fact that it is a medicinal and pharmaceutical preparation of superior value. EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN, that on the 16th day of December, 1893, I was duly appointed executor of the last will and testament of Joseph L. Richards, deceased, by the County Court of Linn county, Oregon, and that I have filed my bond as such executor, and that said bonds have been approved by said court; therefore all persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified and required to present the same to the proper vouchers to meet at the office of W E BROWN in the City of Albany, Linn county, Oregon, this six months from the date hereof. Dated the 22th day of December, 1893.

W E BROWN, Executor.

THE O P.

Geo G Bingham gives a new version of O P matters as follows: Col T Egenton Hogg was appointed receiver on the 28th day of October, 1890, by consent of all persons interested in the properties. He was succeeded by E W Hadley March 6, 1893. In twenty-eight months under Col Hogg's management $800,000 of receiver's certificates were issued and the road was also nine months in arrears with its pay roll.

When Mr Hadley took charge of the properties, the road, the rolling stock and equipment were in a very bad state of repairs. It was necessary that an almost immediate expenditure should be made to preserve the property.

The Blair Wharton faction who asked for Mr Hadley's appointment advanced $10,000 which was used toward paying wages due the laborers, and they took as security an assignment of that amount from the pay roll. They represented, and probably in good faith, that they would purchase the road at the sale to take place July 26, 1893, and they wanted the properties of the corporation put in such a condition that the purchaser could operate it without an immediate outlay of money.

With that expectation, quite an amount was expended in the way of necessary repairs to the machinery and rolling stock of the road. Undoubtedly had it not been for the financial stringency of the past season the expectations of Mr Hadley would have been realized.

Mr Hadley's expenditures exceeded his receipts about $6000 a month. Had he not made the improvements and repairs that he did (and they were for the permanent improvement of the plant,) his receipts would have equaled the operating expenses of the road.

Aside from the Hogg indebtedness, the indebtedness of the road I believe to be greatly exaggerated. Excepting the Hogg certificates, the indebtedness of the road at the close of Mr Hadley's receivership was about as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Pay rolls, $148,084.87; Voucher accounts, 45,026.23; Sundry persons accounts, 9,057.43; Legal expenses of T E Hogg's receivership, 38,528.50; Preferred insurance certificates, 15,081.00; Unadjusted stock claims, 1,500.00; Total, $267,876.59.

Taxes—Lincoln county, 4,334.00; Benton county, 4,410.65; Linn county, 3,216.27; Marion county, 6,822.67; Total, $18,783.59.

Messrs Fay and Gest were the attorneys of the Blair-Wharton faction, and on the appointment of Mr Hadley at his request they were appointed as attorneys for the receiver. The court did not make the selection. They have charged as attorneys for the receiver, $2000 which probably has been paid, and they have a charge of something over $4000 for traveling expenses.

They have now pending a suit against Blair, Wharton and Brown to collect attorney's fees amounting to $49,000 dollars for services rendered—not to the road or receiver, but to Blair, Wharton and Brown.

The firm of which I am the junior member represents over seventy of the employes, present and past of the road, who have owing to them about that many thousand dollars for wages, and we have yet to hear of one who is dissatisfied with the court's action in appointing Mr Clark as receiver. Mr Clark is one of the old employes of the road and quite a sum is due him on unpaid wages. He was not an applicant for the position and it was only after the urgent solicitations of his fellow employes that he consented to assume the trust.

Mr Clark has the confidence of all persons whom I have heard express themselves. The records of the court on the management of the road will not substantiate the charge of fraud or corruption since the appointment of Mr Hadley. The records of the court and of the road will show that nearly all the indebtedness of the road was contracted before Judge Fullerton's election.

Mr Vandran, of the depot hotel, will give a social ball at the hotel on Feb. 2. Music will be furnished by the Elite orchestra of Salem, and no pains will be spared to make it a pleasant event. Tickets $1.00; lunch 25 cents.

In the death of Miss Elizabeth P Peabody, all reformatory and educational interests have lost a friend. Miss Peabody passed away at her home in Jamaica Plain, Mass., January 3, nearly ninety years of age. Although enlisted in all departments of education, that of the kindergarten has occupied her attention most largely during the past thirty years. It is said that Miss Peabody's interest in the kindergarten system was aroused by the intelligence of a little six-year old daughter of Mr and Mrs Carl Schurz, and when informed that it was largely due to the Frobel instruction that the child had received in Germany, she decided to make it a study. After reading all the literature on the subject she could obtain, she made two extensive tours abroad in order to study the system at its fountain-head. It is doubtful if any woman has ever lived a more useful, careful life than Miss Peabody, and the world seems the poorer since she has left it.
