Daily Democrat.

THE SEIGNIORAGE BILL.

The following is the detailed vote on the passage of the Bland seigniorage bill in the senate:

Yeas—Allen, Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Blanchard, Butler, Call, Cockeell, Coke, Colquitt, Daniel, Dubois, Faulkner, George, Gordon, Hansbrough, Harris, Huntoon, Irby, Jones of Arkansas, Kyle, Lindsay, McLaurin, Martin, Mills, Mitchell of Oregon, Morgan, Pasco, Peffer, Perkins, Pettigrew, Power, Pugh, Quay, Ransom, Roach, Shoup, Stewart, Teller, Turpie, Vest, Voorhees, White, Wolcott; total, 44.

Nays—Aldrich, Allison, Brice, Caffrey, Carey, Chandler, Cullom, Davis, Dolph, Frye, Gallinger, Gibson, Holman, Hale, Hawley, Higgins, Lodge, McMillan, McPherson, Manderson, Mitchell of Wisconsin, Morrill, Murphy, Palmer, Platt, Proctor, Smith, Stockbridge, Vilas, Washburn, Wilson; total, 31.

Pairs—Camden for, with Gray against; Hill for, with Dixon against; Jones of Nevada for, with Hoar against; Vance for, with Sherman against, Squire and Cameron did not vote. Yesterday Squire voted in favor of the bill and Cameron was paired in its favor.

The bill will be sent to the president tomorrow. Whether he will sign it remains to be seen. The belief is he will, though some hint he will allow it to become a law without his signature.

From this it will be seen that 30 democrats, 11 republicans and 3 populists voted for the bill, and 22 republicans and 9 democrats voted against it.

The silly goose who presides, (or pretends to preside,) over the editorial columns of the Populist, seeks to save its party and party leaders from fair criticism on the part of the DEMOCRAT by making a personal attack upon the editor of this paper. It is hardly necessary to say that such puerile efforts will meet with deserved failure. It is evident that that species of journalism is the only kind for which the editor of that paper thinks himself peculiarly fit and the public generally agree with him. It might be said as a matter of news that that paper is edited, not by a single person, but by an "association of disgruntled gentlemen so-called" who have a strong bent of purpose to traduce one whom they imagine in some way has stood in their way to political preferment. But this style will not work. The campaign will have something else in it besides the mere personality of the editor of any newspaper..

The New York Mail and Express' Washington special says it has become well understood that the president intends to permit the silver seigniorage. The silver senators who have during the past few days called upon him, with a view to ascertaining his position toward the measure, have received evasive replies, but have told their colleagues in congress that there is very little doubt that the president will simply permit the bill to lie upon his desk until the constitutional 10 days have elapsed, when it will become a law without his signature. Cleveland pursued this policy in 1887, when the bill was passed for the redemption of the trade dollar.

Delegate Josepha, of New Mexico, will endeavor to rally his his forces Monday to pass the long deferred bill admitting New Mexico to statehood. It is anticipated party lines may be sharply drawn on the admission of this new state and republicans expect to raise the point of no quorum as a means of deferring the passage of the measure. To meet this emergency Josepha is using every effort to have the democrats attend Monday, and is hopeful of having a necessary quorum, exclusive of republicans.

Notwithstanding Taubeneck, chairman of the national committee of the peoples party recommends the populist state convention now in session at Oregon City to nominate Governor Pennoyer as the populist candidate for the United States senate it is clear that it will not be done. The governor is to shrewd to permit that step. He would much rather take his chances after the legislature is elected than become the conspicuous target of the campaign.

D P Thompson seems to be the coming man for republican nomination for governor. It is said republicans regard him as a stronger man than he was before. Joe Simon and the Oregonian are both for him and this would seem to settle the matter in advance.

Dispatches from the son of Chairman Wilson, now in the city of Mexico, are far from reassuring as to the condition of the latter. He is suffering from despondency, the result of his enfeebled condition.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

THE FOOLISH LORDS

The political situation in Great Britain has reached the gravest crisis that has occurred since the revolution of 1688. Then the hereditary principle in the monarchy became subordinate to the will of the nation expressed through the Commons. Now, the hereditary principle in the legislative branch of the Government is threatened with destruction. The monarchy has remained in the Hanoverian family, but its power has been exercised under well-understood limitations beyond which no rational titular head of the Empire would dream of going. The House of Lords has also retained its place in the economy of the Empire on sufferance, but now it has challenged the judgment of the nation as to its future existence.

No one who understood the trend of modern politics can be doubtful of the ultimate issue of the struggle between the people and the peers. The House of Lords is one of the most archaic and the most incongruous political institutions in the world, for it is essentially a survival of a democracy. Therefore, whatever may be the result of the general election which is soon to be held the House of Lords is doomed.

The Lords have invited the Isses with their eyes open, for the Duke of Devonshire, who has not so long left the Liberal party that he has forgotten the sentiments of the British public, did his best to save them the contest. By refusing to yield to the Parish Councils bill the peers have made the case against themselves as strong as possible. They would have had the sympathy of the English people in their action on the Home-Rule bill, and they might have carried the Kingdom on the issue made on the Employers' Liability bill. Mr Gladstone was never shrewder than when he yielded until the Lords took their stand on the measure intended to reform ancient wrongs and to give the people of the parishes control of their own affairs. Owing to their own blind obstinacy the Lords have now placed the principle of hereditary legislation in deadly peril.
