GOOD EVENING

PERSONAL

Dr W H Roland has reached Eugen with his catarrh cure and dentifrice.

Mr Engene Prote nan was on yesterday appointed postmaster of Portland, Mr Protenan is a son-in-law of Mrs Margaret Lyle, of this city. The appointment is a good one.

The university football team appeared on Willamette street last Saturday afternoon in fall uniform. They make a fine appearance. They are being drilled regularly now for the game with the Albanys on the 24th inst.—Guard.

Mrs Pref Russell came down from Halsey

Mr Kellegg, nephew of Mr Frank Wood,

Hon E R Skipworth, of Eugene, was in the city today, and went to Lebanon. Dr M II Ellis smiles in the possession of a box containing Marshall Neil, La France, and other reses, violets, etc, fresh from Cal-ifornia gardens, sent by his sister Miss Eertha, who is visiting in that commonwealth.

Geo Will, music dealer of this city received a letter from his brother Alfred, of St Helens, that John Will, their brother, was there and lying at the point of death. He is not expected to live from hour to hour. His complaint is quick consumption. Geo Will went to Corvallis teday to arrange the business of his brother and also to notify the family—a wife and six children.—Salem Independent.

the family—a whe and six children.—Salem Independent.

Last evening quite a number of the friends assembled at the home of Mr Frank Purdom and Mr Homer Phillips and surprised them completely. Cards were the feature of the evening and also other games. Those present were: Mr and Mrs Purdom, Mr and Mrs Phillips, Mr and Mrs Claud Mansfield, Mrs Wm Phillips, Mrs Bessie Swan, Misses Maggie and Jennie Stewart, Myrtle and Edna Miller, Ella and Martha Risley, Lena and Bertha Kieffer, Emma Smead, Nellie Sedgwick, Lena Hobert, Bertha Wallace, Stella Rankin, Rachel Deakins, Myra Westbrook, Minnie Fuller, Sadie Truax, Lora and Pearl Purdom, Messers Will Nolan, Charlie Buelow, Will Hawkins, Ed and Homer Mitchell, Wren and Fred Ross, Frank Walsch, Harry Saltmarsh, Orlando Nesland, Arthur Purdom, Jim Hunter and Jack Warner.

An Oregon Day.—J R Stiles, of Eugene in the Madrid, Iowa, News says; "I was told before I came here that they never had snow, but I find it is a mistake. On the night of the 5th inst three inches of snow fell and it is not all gone yet, but it does not hure anything as it does not freeze. I can look out of the window and see flowers parily covered with snow. I will enclose one in this letter to prove my assertion and you can wear it for a buttonhole boquet, and also a spear of green grass for you to look at when it is 20 degrees below zero. Today the sun shines nice and warm as it usually does on an Iowa May day."

A Lecture.—Dr B F Fuller will deliver his lecture on the Hawaiian (or Sandwich) islands. Giving a full and accurate account of the natives, their manner of living, the products of the Islands, and description of the wonderful Hale Mon Mou or Everlasting Luke of Fire, at the W C T U hall, Friday evening, beginning at 8 o clock. Rev Bryan and wife, both preachers and good ones at that, have been engaged in holding a revival meeting at this place for more than two weeks. They are zealous workers, have caused a rattling among the dry bones of the old church members and warmed them up religiously, and have nearly 50 converts. The meeting closed and I believe their good work will tell through time and eternity. So may it be.

Mrs Annie Eggleston, of Brownsuille, has been spending a few days with the family of 1 S Moses.

The political questions are discussed here every day and there is no place where the people are better informed, there is no one man in Oregon as well informed politically as our postmaster. He has heard the same argument used over and over so often that he can repeat everything layorable to "free coinage of silver," "profection," gold stradard" and "free trade."

Grand and pelit jurors discharged, REPORT OF GRAND JURY.

We the grand jury of the circuit court of Linn county for the March term would respectfully submit the following report:

We have examined the books of the sheriff, clerk and treasurer and found them kept in a neat and business like manner. Also the books of the school superintendent and found that they had been kept in a very irregular manner. We have also examined the jail, it is kept as neat as the construction of the building will permit. We recommend that the jail be made secure. We further recommend that the roof of the court house be repaired.

The following from a London paper about Wm F Cody, is quite spicy: The cablegrams announce that Col. Cody, who will be remembered in London, has been returned as mayor of Nebraska. No better selection could have been made. Col. Cody was the friend of a man named Boone, who discovered Kentucky in 18—. After marrying the granddaughter of a distinguished gentleman known as Sitting Bull Frog. Cody was twice governor of Chicago, and at one time was mayor of the Arkansas legislature. He also served in the confedate army under Ben Butler, who so gallantly defended New Orleans against General Longstreet. The province of Detroit rewarded him for his military services by sending him to congress, where he introduced a bill for the relief of the citizens of Buffalo. It was in this that he got his
