Astoria is to have a purely literary paper, The Leader. It is to be patterned after the Argonaut of San Francisco.

We may have hard times; but we never have cyclones and blizzards, and our crops never fail. Some difference from the East.

When you want anything in the grocery line do not forget that A B McLain's is the place to get it. See his price list in this paper.

The Flying Wedge has reached our office. The gidron is Linn county, the center town is the county prohibition committee. The opposing team intemperate.

A B McLain is receiving his new goods. It is strictly a Willamette valley line and when this fact is thoroughly laid before our merchants they will no doubt patronize the line more than ever.

Members of the A O U W should not forget the entertainment to be given by the Degree of Honor at the A O U W hall on Friday evening. It will be open to all members and invited friends.

Dr Alfred Kinney received a dispatch this morning from Mr Stanton in New York, saying that Mr Cambell had repented favorably to eastern capitalists in regard to the building of the Astoria railroad and that the money will be ready.

The picture of Neal Dow exhibited on the platform at the anniversary exercises last evening was the work of Miss Winnie Chamberlin. It is on crayon, and displayed great talent in this line of work.

Yesterdays Guard of Eugene finishes its foot ball item as follows: The game was enjoyed, especially by the students. The new team at the University of Oregon proved themselves good, all round amateurs.

PERSONAL

G W Gray and son of Salem, were in the city this noon.

Mr Leo Cohen has returned from his trip to the Midwinter fair.

Joseph Luppens, ex-chief of police of Portland, died in that city yesterday.

Bishop William Dillon, D D, of the United Brethren church, arrived this noon, and is the guest of Rev L S Fisher.

Mr and Mrs Oliver Murphy are in the city the guests of the formers partner recently in Corvallis, Mr Geo F Fish.

Walter Biddle, a member of the Albany foot ball team, stayed over Sunday to visit at the residence of his father, Dr G W Biddle, Miss Bertha Day, who has also been visiting there, returned to her home at Albany this morning.—Eugene Guard.

R N Morris and family of Albany were in Salem last evening. Mr Morris is agent for the steamer Elwood at that place and is going to Portland on a business and pleasure trip. His wife is a daughter of Levi Harren who resides on the Turner road.—Stratzean.

A Portland exchange says: Eugene Protzman, the recently appointed postmaster of Portland, began life as a news boy in Indianapolis, selling papers that contained an account of the firing upon Fort Sumpter. Then he entered an office as a printer's devil and eventually became a full fledged type setter.

A new cigar is named Bob Ingersoll, and the papers are all being original by remarking that it must burn well.

How dear to our heart is Cash on subscription. When the generous subscriber Presents it to view; But the man who doesn't pay—We refrain from description For, perhaps, gentle reader, That man might be you.

In the Inter-Ocean of March 4th Siegel, Cooper & Co, one of Chicago's largest dry goods houses, advertise to sell groceries, wines, liquors and cigars, and teeth extracted free. Their savings bank pays four per cent interest, and is conducted without the usual requirement of a sixty-day notice previous to a withdrawal of deposits.

Some years ago four sons of a Connecticut farmer were married in the same month. The old gentleman, like the father in the fairy tale, called them all up and promised $5,000 to the one who would first present him with a male grandchild. At the present time the eldest son has four daughters, the second son is childless, the third has three daughters, the fourth two. The old man has raised the bounty to $10,000 for a boy, and the results are eagerly awaited by a large circle of friends.—Ex

ORVILLE.—The Tangent correspondent asks. Is this a Christian nation or is it so called? We object to the answer. If this nation was truly a Christian nation it would be impossible to elect bad men to high positions. Are our rulers true Christians? Are our laws in accordance with God's law? No they are not. Senator Ingalls, once said: "The law of Moses and the Golden rule should have no place in the laws of this nation." Now, if we do away with these, where will we go for a standard of justice. Were the law of God lived up to more perfectly we would have no need of so much law making, and if this were the case there would be more equality in mankind (not so many millionaires nor so many beggars.) How can men pray to God "Lead us not into temptation" and yet vote to put temptation in the way of the youth, if men would vote as they pray the saloon could not exist. A. Y. SMITH.

THAT CORVALLIS SENSATION.—A Corvallis dispatch says that Dr J M Applewhite, a member of the board of regents and treasurer of the Oregon state agricultural college, and Mrs Charles Kenyon were arrested yesterday on a warrant issued March 11th, during the absence of the defendant in California. The complaint charges them with adultery and was sworn out by Charles Kenyon, husband of Mrs Kenyon. Both were bound over in $500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury.
