GOOD EVENING

Got Excited.—The Guard says: The football team of the Albany Collegiate Institute, after arriving home Monday, telephoned back to the U. of O. managers an invitation to play a return game at Albany next Saturday. They offered to pay the expenses of the team and give one-half of the gate receipts besides. The U. O., who obtained so easy a victory last Saturday, have gallantly decided to play no more football games this year. It has been suggested that the reason for this discourtesy, is a misapprehension. They fear upon going to Albany and playing the other team on their own ground, they might possibly get beaten by a score of 42 to 2, and then their victors would gather together a procession of friendly college students, secure the loan of a dozen or so silk ties from some enterprising Albany merchant, and lead their vanquished visitors about the city with a great hurrah of victory. Brave boys.

The Second Lecture.—A long link boy with big hands and feet lying on a bed of leaves in a log cabin would not suggest a future president of the United States; yet so familiar is the story that you already know who is meant. At the M. E. church last evening Rev Grannis told about the development of this boy into the president who was closest to the hearts of the American people. The speaker gave many incidents in the life of Abe Lincoln showing his great heart and wonderful honesty. They were well presented and held the closest attention of the small audience for an hour and a half. This was the second lecture of the course. The third lecture will be given on Wednesday evening of next week by Rev Edward Locke, of Portland, on "Every Inch a Man."

Artistic Work.—The Man about Town to-day saw at Fortmiller & Irving's four faces in water colors painted by Mrs G W Simpson, which display a talent probably not surpassed anywhere, being perfect in execution. This is saying a good deal; but even a connoisseur could hardly come to any other conclusion so soon as the merit of the work. Mr and Mrs Simpson will leave to-morrow for San Francisco to spend several months and will take the pictures with them.

Base Ball.—There will be plenty of base ball in Albany this summer among the amateurs. The ball was sent to the air last evening by the reorganization of the Willamettes. Fred Westbrook was elected captain; Dorris, secretary; Roy Bentley, treasurer. Green and purple was selected as the club colors, and the suits will be those of last year. The club will meet every second Wednesday of each month for business. As soon as the weather permits they will be ready to play any amateur club in the valley of their age.

Into The Willamette.—This afternoon quite an exciting scene occurred at the wharf while the cargo on the Elwood was being unloaded. A deck hand was wheeling a box containing about 900 pounds of plow shares and a sack of wheat off the boat, when he accidentally hit a board and tipped the load off into the river, going with it. He sank out of sight, but quickly got out of the water by assistance of the crew. Of course the plow shares sunk and the wheat went down stream. The truck caught on the gang plank where it hung.

Anniversary.—The program to be given at the celebration tomorrow evening of the first years history of the Y. M. C. A. in their new building will be an attractive one, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, followed by brief reports of the association and auxiliary. The evening's enjoyment will be closed by toasts by Mrs W A Frow, Mrs T J Wilson, Miss Mary Cundiff, Mr C E Wolverton, Prof W J Crawford, Mr M O McFarland, F P Nutting and Prof C T Howland.

HOME AND ABROAD

County Clerk B F Mulkey, of Dallas, was in the city yesterday.

Yesterday wheat took a jump of three cents in Chicago. The cold snap did it.

A dispatch received at noon announced the fact that the President had vetoed the seigniorage silver bill.

Ball's health preserving corsets, "Need no breaking in." Yield to every movement of the wearer. If you value your health and comfort try them. S E YOUNG.

The Oregon Pacific will give excursion rates to parties of five and over. The road will push the excursion business this year. It is to be hoped there is none of Mulcahy's foolishness, though.

The Roseburg Review says: It is now reported that the S P Co will put on the freight trains laid off some time ago, on the first of next month. The business is already too heavy for their present train facilities, and is rapidly increasing. Many of the boys have been out of work for several weeks past and are very anxious to get back on the road again.

Oregon's climate is more appreciated by persons who have resided in the east, than by native Oregonians. A lady who recently arrived from the blizzard country where the thermometer has been ranging about 30 degrees below zero, wrote to her husband that she could not walk alone enough here to keep cool. Her husband who is in the east replied, by stating that he could not walk fast enough to keep warm. What a contrast. Why do people live in a cold country while there is room in Oregon for thousands of families. Three Sisters.

Rev J R N Bell recently delivered in Baker City a lecture entitled "Hamlet," with such success that his auditors begged for another, with a change of subject, and in response Bro Bell delivered on the 13th inst a second lecture entitled "A Glimpse at the American Poets," and an analysis of Poe's Raven and how he came to write it.

Ladies Auxiliary will meet in the Y M C A rooms, Friday March, 30th, at 3 o'clock. The following program will be given. Devotional exercises. Study for the month, Nathaniel Hawthorne: Biography Mrs Abbott, Questions on personality of Hawthorne. Solo, Mrs Nutting. Poem written by Hawthorne before entering college, by Mrs Trow. His College Life Mrs Goff. Selection from the Scarlet Letter. Mrs Litter. Questions on Works of Hawthorne. Quotations.

Corvallis.—The following items are from the Corvallis Times:

John Crawford, one of Albany's solidest citizens was in town Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Carl Hitebens, who recently engaged in the millinery business in Albany, returned to Corvallis Monday to reside permanently. She has disposed of her half interest in the Albany business to Mrs W R Bilyeu, formerly Mary Goldson.

P Bryant, well known in the old days of staging between Corvallis and Yaquina bay when he kept the midway stage station, is in town to day, and will soon leave for Huntington his home. Popular caterers Mr and Mrs Bryant were, and those who remember them regret that a sad chapter of separation and estrangement has come between the couple in their old age.

In a few days Woods Jackson leaves for Salem, Marion county, Illinois, and the home he left behind when 41 years ago he turned his face westward and started with an ox team across the plains bound for California and the gold mines. A few years later he landed in Benton county without any gold, and here he has resided ever since, respected and respectable.

Yesterday Rev P A Moses was busily engaged in raking up the dead leaves and putting things in shape around the old Methodist college grounds, and seemed to be in an unusual jolly mood. On inquiry it was learned that his happy frame of mind was caused by the visit of a donation party Saturday evening, who surprised Mr Moses and his family with a generous supply of provisions and a liberal allowance of silver.

Prevention is better than cure, and you may prevent that tired feeling by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will keep your blood pure and free from acid taint and germs of disease.

Hood's Pills do not purge, pain or grip, but act promptly, easily and effectually. 25c.

Spring Millinery.—Mrs W R Bilyeu has purchased the millinery store of Mrs W A Euell, and proposes to give the citizens of Albany a first-class stock of goods in the millinery line to select from. This week she will receive from New York an elegant line of pattern hats, for the inspection of the ladies of Albany and vicinity. An expert milliner has been engaged. Those desiring the latest styles at reasonable price will do well to call on Mrs Bilyeu.

PERSONAL

Mr J M Ralston went to Portland this noon.

Hon Jeff Meyers was in the city this noon.

J O Writaman went to Salem this noon on business.

Mrs Matilda Pollard, a pioneer of 1847, died in Prineville last week.

Mr C P Burkhardt returned several days ago from a trip to California.

Mr Ed Fronk, who has been attending a business college in Portland for several weeks, has returned home filled with ideas about business. Hon Chas Nickel of Jacksonville, prominently mentioned for Congress on the democratic ticket, passed through Albany this noon for home after a trip to Portland. The Prineville News says a former Albany man the following compliment: Prof Liggett, the worthy principal of our public schools, is the biggest man in town. He weighs 244 pounds. Mr Liggett's intellectual weight is about as heavy as his corporeal ponderousness. He is one of the best educators in our county.

A JOKE.—An Oregon City gentleman and his wife visited the fair a few days ago. They "done" the architectural mansions and all the other buildings, investigated most of the concessions—in short, came day after day to see all that was to be seen. However, one startling feature the cautious husband avoided taking his better half to see. That was the "muscle"-dancing Turkish girls in the street of Cairo. One day the husband announced to his wife that he thought they had better rest that day, as they were both pretty well tired out with the fair. "Besides," the gentleman said, "I have some business to do down town, and you might as well take advantage of my absence and do a little shopping today."

The dutiful wife agreed to the proposition very cheerfully—so cheerfully that the husband felt uneasy. But he thought no more about it, and a couple of hours later he found himself in the company of two jolly acquaintances. Of course it had been previously arranged, and the trio immediately set out for the exposition. The first place they entered was the theater in the Turkish village. In the midst of the entertainment an i the boisterous glee the Oregon City man heard a familiar laugh in a rear row. He turned about only to meet the astonished stare of his wife. Then his two friends looked — there were their respective wives. As they all passed out the first wife, very red in the face, said: "By my, Jan — I thought—"

And the embarrassed husband said: "I thought so, too."—Telegram.

A great many tax payers are holding off in the hopes that the time for declaring taxes delinquent will be extended, but there is no probability of that, unless the sheriff decides to keep the books open a few weeks to make payment easier. The court has been petitioned to have the time extended, but they have no more power to do that than to declare that horse stealing is not a crime.—Eugene Register.

Mrs. Judge Peck Tells How She Was Cured

Sufferers from Dyspepsia should read the following letter from Mrs. H. M. Peck, wife of Judge Peck, a Justice at Tracy, Cal., and a writer connected with the Associated Press:

"By a deep sense of gratitude for the great benefit I have received from the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, I have been led to write the following statement for the benefit of sufferers who may be similarly afflicted. For 15 years I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and Heart Trouble.

Almost everything I ate would distress me. I tried different treatments and medicines, but failed to realize relief. Two years ago a friend prevailed upon me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The first bottle I noticed helped me, so I continued taking it. It did me so much good that my friends spoke of the improvement. I have received such great benefit from it that

Cladly Recommend It. I now have an excellent appetite and nothing I eat ever distresses me. It also keeps up my Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures
