GOOD EVENING.

ON Mr. Hood.—Prof. Schmitt, of the college, has returned from a trip to the top of Mt. Hood, which he recently made with a party of sixteen, including several Portland people, a Stanford professor and Misses Annie and Ora Finn of this city. He was greatly pleased with the experience, which though perilous and tedious was grand in its character, one for a life time. The box on top was frozen under so that it was impossible to register their names. The Misses Finn proved excellent mountain climbers. As the ascent and descent has to be made in places in niches cut in the ice almost straight up, the experience is one that might well make one shiver. The day before the ascent was made by Revs. Hood and wife, Revs. Henderson and Hervey, and Miss Mae Pollock, of this county whom the guide declared were the most frightened of any party that had been up.

LADIES AID SOCIETY.—The regular meeting of the Ladies Aid Society will be held at the home of Mrs. A. H. Martin on Thursday the 4th of August at 2:30 p. m.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Schultz and children went to the Bay this noon.

State printer Lee's and family went to the Bay this noon.

A. L. McFadden the Corvallis populist lawyer, was in the city today.

Emperor Norton, an old time Oregon editor was in the city today.

Mr. Pete Ruetner will go to Kings Valley tonight to do some work.

Mr. Chandler Bloom, with Moen & Washburn, of Portland, was in the city today.

H. M. Grant, the well-known insurance man of Portland, has been in the city.

B. F. Irvine, of the Corvallis Times, has gone to San Francisco to have his eyes doctored.

Miss Hortense Griffon, of Corvallis, has been in the city on a visit with Albany friends.

Mr. A. M. Hamner left this noon for southern Oregon, to look after a mine he is interested in.

C. M. Johnson a former Roseburg drayman, has just returned from the Klondike with $80,000.

Hon. T. J. Black went up to Halsey yesterday to look after the warehouse there. He will run several warehouses this year.

Hon. S. A. Dawson attended the funeral of Judge Baber at Forest Grove yesterday. He was a relative of Mr. Dawson.

Miss Blanche Wrenn, of Portland, a sister of Mrs. A. R. McCoy, of this city a few days ago was one of the party to make a successful ascent of Mt. Hood.

Charles Bamford and John Morrison have made arrangements to enter the soldiers home at Los Angeles, California. Mr. Bamford left today to visit in the country before going and will be joined in a few days by Mr. Morrison.

Mr. J. A. Weaver returned today from the Klamath hot springs, where he has been bathing in mud for a couple of weeks, and also a course of massage treatment of Dr. Wagoner of Portland, who was there, and is greatly improved in health.

Mr. John Isom, Sr. and Frank Wood and family have returned from a trip across the mountains, going by way of the Lebanon road, visiting the Warm Springs among other places and returning by way of the Mackenzie, along which they met several Albany people.

Conductor Walter Bariges spent last night in Albany. He got left on his own train. He stopped at the Y to put on an extra coach but the engineer forgot the situation and went on without him. Another conductor was put on for the trip at Corvallis.

There was a heavy of Albany belles and their beaux in our city Monday night. They came upon a load of hay which was fitted up for the occasion with blankets and chinese lanterns, and they made the midnight hour merry with music. The party in the hay wagon consisted of Misses McJee, Ross, Stelmacher, Vandran, Nelly and Anna Ash Messers, Tait, Stelmacher, Pollock, Dindinger, Hoyne and Dr. Trimbell.—Corvallis Times.

Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Haven, of near Oakland, Calif., are in the city for the afternoon while on their way from the national council of the Congregational church of which Rev. Haven is a member. Eighteen years ago Mr. Haven was one of Albany's best read lawyers, he was then a member of the orphan's club, and has a good many old friends here who are glad to see him. Then his beard was as black as a raven, now it is nearly white. Of his fellow boarders only two L. E. Blain and F. M. French, out of twelve or fifteen are now residents of Albany. Mr. and Mrs. Haven are the guests of Judge Hewitt.

R. J. Hendricks, of this city, recently appointed appraiser of merchandise for the port of Portland, has been ordered to be in the city of New York August 23rd, to attend a meeting of all the local appraisers of the United States. By his request, he will be accompanied by J. A. Beard, the oldest examiner, in point of service, for the Portland office, and the one who makes the classifications. These meetings are held by order of the secretary of the treasury, in order to secure uniformity in appraisements. The last one was held in 1895, from January 14th to the 24th, inclusive. Messrs. Hendricks and Beard will start about the 15th.—Statesman.

By all means improve the court house even if cost a few thousand dollars more than was expected. It is practically a case of necessity.

Art Holt's girl mentioned last week proves to be a boy. We make correction so that when the boy gets old enough to resent it the record will be right.

Binger Hermann is the McMinnville manuscript candidate for U S senator. If Mr. Hermann really would like the place he had better stop being the candidate of any paper for senator.

What will the people of Albany do towards getting a new opera house. Certainly the city should have a public building where entertainments and shows can be held. It is a matter that should be attended to at once.

Mr. Geo. D. Goodhue, editor of the Oregon Poultry Journal, says of Mr. C. A. Emry, who is to judge the poultry at the Oregon State Fair: "The selection of Mr. Emry as judge cannot but please the poultry fraternity of our state. He is a capable judge and is well and favorably known as such throughout the United States. Every poultryman should rally around the Oregon State Fair poultry show and give Mr. Emry a royal welcome."

It will be seen, according to notice elsewhere, that a meeting will be held for the closing up of the business of the Albany Building Association, better known as the opera house company, at which time an order will be made for the distribution of the funds of the association and the sale of the lot. Should it be desired to form a new company for the building of an opera house on the lot it can be purchased at the original cost of the lot.

A Professional Sneak Thief.

The following from the Telegram indicates that Harry Evans, against whom the last grand jury of Linn county found "not a true bill" on the charge of burglarizing the residence of D. P. Mason, is a professional sneak thief.

In the capture of Henry Evans, Detective John Cardano succeeded in getting a very clever sneak thief out of the way.

This noon Mrs. Etie L. Kiggins, of 328 Fourteenth street, filed an information against Evans for stealing a gold watch from a room in her house, at 9 o'clock a. m. from which she was absent a few moments only. Besides the watch was lying $5, which the thief overlooked in his hurry to get away.

His other robberies also were conducted by daylight. It is charged that he also entered the houses of Mrs. William Conn r, on West Park and Seventh St., and Henry Diamond, 26 North Sixteenth street, during the momentary absence of the occupants and helped himself to what was nearest at hand.

This afternoon Evans came before Municipal Judge Hennessy, and waived examination on each count. He was held to appear before the grand jury in the aggregate bond of $900, which he failed to furnish.

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON graduated last June the largest class in its history. The class numbered thirty. The fall term will begin September 19th. Students who have completed the tenth grade branches can enter the sub-freshman class. No examinations are required for graduates of accredited schools. Reasonable equivalents are accepted for most of the required entrance studies. Catalogues will be sent free to all applicants. Persons desiring information may address the president, Secretary J. J. Watson, or Mr. Max A. Plum, all of Eugene, Oregon. The courses offered are those of a good university. There are departments of modern and ancient languages, physics, chemistry, biology, geology, English, elocution, advanced engineering, astronomy, logic, philosophy, psychology, mathematics and physical education. Music and drawing is also taught. The tuition is free. All students pay an incidental fee of ten dollars yearly. Board, lodging, heat and light in the dormitory cost $2.50 per week.

MISFITS.

Hon. M. C. George, of Portland, is being actively mentioned for U S senator, with pretty good prospects of being elected, notwithstanding Joe Simon.

Kid McCoy and Jim Corbett are to fight at Buffalo in August. It will be the greatest contest of the year, as the men are supposed to be evenly matched. While not particularly interested it is the opinion of the DEMOCRAT that McCoy will win.

The Seattle P. I. figures out over $12,000,000 already brought down from the Klondike this year since the first of July. As a matter of fact the amount is considerably less than $5,000,000. The round figures don't go down with people any longer.

The Royal Baking Powder Co., has refused $12,000,000 for its business. This is a tremendous testimonial to the value of advertising. The business has been built up from a modest beginning to present gigantic proportions by the judicious use of newspaper advertising columns.—Ex.

The Independence West Side under the heading "free advertising," sums up the Portland Exposition as follows: "Advertising space in the Oregonian, $800; same in 135 county papers, $400; postage on sending notices to county papers, $11.30; printing passes for 135 county editors, $5; total, $816.20." Our neighbor is correct on the proposition. The country press is the means of Portland reaping several rich harvests annually while the Oregonian receives a big rake-off at their expense. When the paper men from the "cow counties," cease being a lot of "gulls" the metropolitan "push will learn to respect them—and not before. McMinnville Transcript. It is the same principle displayed by a great many people at home, that of getting their advertising free.
