The country would be better off if there were more ambitious young ladies and not so many "house-plants"—Owl.

Attraction.

The Nelaun Journal says of the Queen of Hayti to be given here next Friday night:

All who attended the comic opera, Queen of Hayti, at the Grand last night found too much enjoyment in the manner in which the play was presented, and predicted a crowded house for tonight's performance. The company is much larger than is usually seen so far west, and each member seems to be good for some specialty. In fact the plot of the comedy is almost lost in the varied specialties introduced. Favorites among these were Kraton, the hoop manipulator, whose feats are truly wonderful, the Sherrah quartet and the acrobatic performances. The company is made up of artists without regard to nationality, and the singing, whether solos, quartets or choruses was of a high quality.

Colds

You first take cold, then you cough. Then you have a doctor. He says it's bronchitis, and he orders Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It is his favorite prescription for colds and coughs. If he knows of anything better, tell him to give it to you.

"I had a very severe cough for many weeks. Nothing relieved me until I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This rapidly and entirely cured me." J. J. Hargrave, New York City.

Prospectors Drowned.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 27.—News has just been received of a disaster in Presidio County, near the Rio Grande, on the 25th inst., 13 men who were prospecting for cinnabar losing their lives in floods caused by a water-out or cloud-burst. The dead are: William Bolles, George Holton, Henry Carter, Hernandez Castello, Philip Humphrey, Peter Schaffer, Alfred Monter, William Jefferson, Thomas Frezzello, Algernon Bites, Caspar Deutchman, George Alinch and Daniel Carr.

New Railroad Opened.

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 27.—The Salmon River Railroad, a 90-mile branch of the Oregon Short Line, and penetrating a rich mineral belt of Central Idaho, will be completed September 30 and train service will be inaugurated October 1. The road runs from Blackfoot, Idaho, north westerly to Mackay, through the lava beds to the copper districts around Mackay.

McKinley's Will.

CANTON, Sept. 27.—Secretary Cortelou came here today to assist Mrs. McKinley in disposing of matters connected with the late President's estate. After meeting Mrs. McKinley, the question of filing the will was taken up. The trying task of reading it to her was undertaken by the faithful secretary. Mrs. McKinley made a heroic effort to bear up, and succeeded in doing so although the ordeal was hard for her. Tonight she is resting well. Every thing goes to Mrs. McKinley.

Czolgosz Collapsed.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Leon F. Czolgosz, assassin of President McKinley, in the custody of Sheriff Caldwell of Erie county, and 21 associates, arrived in Auburn at 3:15 a. m. The prison is awaiting the arrival of the train was a crowd of about 200 people. Either for fear of the crowd which was not very demonstrative or from sight of the prison, Czolgosz's legs gave out and two deputies were compelled practically to carry the man into the prison.

Disheartened Englishmen.

SOUTHAMPTON, Sept. 27.—The poor showing of Shamrock II, which was expected to be a sure winner at the yachtmen of Southampton, caused disappointment and even consternation here. The fact that Shamrock II could not sail against Columbia in a light breeze, led to the belief that the English boat has little chance of defeating the American.

Brownsville.

From the Times: J. M. Long, who recently sold his large farm south of town, has purchased the old Henderson farm of 100 acres. The purchase price was $2,100. J. A. Cameron, superintendent of the Albany Woolen Mills, spent a couple of days in the city this week inspecting some of the bankrupt Eggle Woolen Mills stock which the Albany company is thinking of purchasing.

W. A. Calder, formerly of this city, and a gentleman named Henry Stott, have purchased of R. H. Chaplain, also formerly of Brownsville, the Rainer Job printing establishment at Seattle.

Fred Brockman is a pretty swift thrower as is evidenced by the fact that last Saturday he picked up a small stone and threw it at a cow broke one of her hind legs. The animal is owned by Will Moore and is a valuable animal. Mr. Brockman was trying to drive her out of his yard when the accident happened.

Meese, J. E. Devine, W. M. Teslo, W. M. Duffra, Bin Anderson and B. H. Kelley, of Albany, who own timber claims on the upper Galapola, outfitting in this city Tuesday and went to their claim, where they will do considerable improvement work. Chub Willson took them as far as Barrett's at the end of the Linn County and Blue River wagon road. He reports the new road in fair condition but is not sure of the stock of the new bridge over the Galapola at the River side. It is almost impossible to get across the bridge on account of the steep grades at each end. The bridge should have been built at least 10 feet higher and thus this difficulty would have been overcome.

Lebanon.

From the E. A.: N. R. Heaman has sold his residence to Emory Stewart and will leave in a couple of weeks for California to spend a year or so. Mr. Stewart will move to town and take Mr. Heaman's place at the paper mill.

J. H. Moist and family will leave in a couple of weeks for Southern California, where they will spend the winter for the benefit of Mrs. Moist's health. Mr. Moist has leased his farm to O. R. Keebler.

Charles Smith, the man who sold a saddle and bicycle that did not belong to him, was brought over from Albany Wednesday and arraigned before Justice Lovelace. He waived examination and was bonded over to appear before the district court. He will remain in the county jail until the meeting of court.

The boys at Stewart's fruit drier say that O. R. Keebler played a mean trick on them last night. They had a nice party, consisting in the forenoon, when Mr. K. surreptitiously and maliciously removed the head and substituted in its stead an owl. The boys say that his action in this matter will not bring upon him a dose of his big Plymouth 10 ka.

MISFITS

Lane county was not in it at all at the state fair, but when it comes to boasting it can beat all of the other counties combined.

In France there is to be a fight between a bull and an automobile. It is to be hoped the fool automobile gets whipped. The sooner the world is cleared of freaks the better.

The Democrat from the beginning never has any cold feet in reference to the race between the Columbia and the Shamrock like a great many Albany people.

Come to Linn County, the prize winner, with the crops to back it. Come to a county that has the snap to make an exhibit that can win.

Linn county "feels her oats" over getting first premium on her county exhibit. But she "will have to hurry" to carry off the prize next year. Her neighbors are after her scalp, to say nothing of the counties in Eastern and Southern Oregon.—Statesman.

Columbia Won.

New York, Sept. 28.—The yacht race between the Columbia and Shamrock today was the prettiest on record. The Columbia won by 35 seconds on account of a 49 second handicap, though the Shamrock was slightly in the lead.

A Horrible Crime.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 27.—At Little York, a town 15 miles south of Cleveland, Mrs. Perry Curtis, 38 years old, the wife of a farmer, today drowned her four small children in a well and then committed suicide by jumping in herself.

The State Fair.

Yesterday was Woodmen day and it was quite an event. The 555 initiation was the event of the day.

Linn county has been doing well in securing premiums. Besides the county exhibit and big butter victory there were several special claims to recognition.

John Huston had the best stallion, Cleveland Bay. Worth Huston took 3rd in Peacheron stallions.

G. A. Westgate had the second best light carriage team.

The floral, art and eopery contests were mostly between Salem ladies.

BACK BACK—Hugh Barr, who has been in Alaska for the last 32 months and who was reported to have died last winter, arrived in Eugene on this afternoon's train. Mr. Barr has been at home for the last several months but owns some very valuable mining properties in the Yukon country in the vicinity of Dawson, to which he expects to return early in the spring. Mr. Barr says he is favorably impressed with that country by the man who has the push and energy. He says the United States laws are very bad at Nome. If one stakes out a claim he is sure to encounter law suits and injure himself.—Guard.

The Rudd-Rieland Wedding.

From the E. A.:

A nice little wedding ceremony took place on Wednesday, the 25th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Power, of this city. The contracting parties were Mr. Z. H. Rudd, of Albany, and Miss Mary Rieland, of Lebanon.

Precisely at 1 o'clock Miss Alma Breckenridge struck the notes of Lohengrin's wedding march, and soon the bridal party entered the room, preceded by little Edith Power, who strewed beautiful flowers as she came. Mr. Davenport officiated, and after a few brief words received the marriage vows and formally pronounced the words that bound them together as man and wife.

The parlor in which the ceremony took place was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The bride was handsomely attired in a beautiful brown traveling suit and the groom in conventional black. The wedding was private, being attended only by the bride's mother and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn, her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Power, Carl and Edith Power, Leonard Vaughn, Mrs. Davenport and Miss Alma Breckenridge.

The bride is a resident of this city and is very highly esteemed by a large circle of friends, and she bears with her to her new home their most cordial greetings. Mr. Rudd is well-known for his many qualities and excellent business attainments. They are both very much respected and high hopes are entertained for a happy and successful married life.
