The Queen of Hayti.

The Musical Farce Comedy, "The Queen of Hayti" has been booked for one night Friday, October 4th, and from the recommendations and press comments received from the company, they will give us an evening's enjoyment seldom seen in the town of this size. They are recommended by all the city papers as well as personal letters from city managers who have played them. This is an entirely new departure for colored performers, and to say that they are good, does not half say enough; they are by far the best company ever coming to the coast, and if you care to forget all your troubles, the blues, or the rheumatism, come and hear them. There will be a free band concert and fire parade at 7:15 p. m. This fire parade is a very pretty thing and will pay you to come and see it. The Butte, Montana, papers speaking of this company says The Queen of Hayti Co filled the Grand Opera House last night to the doors and everybody was well satisfied. The show is new, clean, and the people are the cleverest ever appearing on a Butte stage. They certainly proved that they were capable of a try and speaking parts, in a way to leave no criticisms, except for the good, and if they should return here, they can bank on a full house again.

I. O. O. F.—Work this evening in the first degree. All members requested to be present by order of the N. G. H. BARNER, R. S.

The student body at the college elected officers yesterday morning as follows: President, Edgar Tully; vice president, Byron Mayfield; secretary, Miss Orla Thompson; treasurer, Prof F Berchtold; sergeant at arms, John Buster. The body unanimously voted for a tax of a dollar per student for athletics.

OAC students are to have athletics this year. President Gatch has prescribed a set of rules eliminating professionalism, and OAC men can enter contests with college teams that are governed by the same rules. The Athletic association held a meeting Friday afternoon and elected Prof Cordley, president, Rachael Applegate secretary, and A J Stimpson, manager.

The complaint on which Haskins was arrested charges him with "wilfully wounding, killing, maiming and injuring" the horse of another. The penalty for the offense is three months in jail to two years in the penitentiary or a fine of $50 to $1,000.

The Salem Statesman says the Passion Play presented in that city was a rank fake. A good many who saw it in Albany said the same thing. The DEMOCRAT man was fortunate in not seeing it, from reports.

Several prominent Episcopal ministers from different parts of the United States passed through the city yesterday noon on their way to San Francisco to attend a meeting of the house of Bishops. They were a bright looking lot of men, easily distinguished by their clothes. Among the prominent men who will be present is J. Pierpont Morgan, the great trust manipulator and Chief Justice Fuller.

A GOOD LECTURE—The first of a series of lectures to be given under the auspices of the choir of the Christian church was presented at the Christian church last evening by Dr F A Boyer of San Jose, Calif. "What time is it and where are we," was the up-to-date theme, and it was handled eloquently and logically, a splendid presentation of an interesting subject.
