

The State Fair.

The fair closed last Saturday evening. The week was a wet one, and yet the attendance was good, and the races were carried out on soft tracks.

The last days races were the best of the week. Freddie C won the 2:11 pace, making two heats in 2:14 1/2 and the last in 2:18.

The last day was pioneer day and a good many old timers were present. At night a concert was given with Hallie Parrish Hughes as the leading performer.

Recorded.

- Deeds: Perry Hyde to Wm Murdock, 1 lot, Harrisburg, $100. O P Hyde to Wm A Murdock, 2 lots, Harrisburg, 450.

A Downward Career.

Clarie McGee, a tough character, and a hoodlum, was arrested yesterday on a charge of vagrancy. With him, also on the same charge, was arrested a young girl, about eighteen, by the name of Bertha Severe.

The Queen of Hayti.

The Portland Oregonian in speaking of the Queen of Hayti Company, who appear at the Armory Hall Friday, Oct. 4th, says:

This is the best all-round colored attraction ever playing Portland, and that is saying a good bit in favor of this clever company, still when you come to think about it why shouldn't they give a good entertainment.

CLERK COURT.—A new suit is Bessie E. Creswell agt. J. A. Creswell, for divorce. G. W. Wright, attorney for plaintiff.

The standard at the O. A. C. has been slightly raised. An eighth grade certificate will no longer admit one to the freshman class.

Homer Davenport, the celebrated cartoonist, the best in the world, is in Silvan on a visit with his father, who was recently injured in an accident.

Mrs. Edna Weathered is doing some great work for Oregon in the east. She is very popular and is thoroughly loyal to the greatest horticulture state in the union.

Bob Johnson, the moving spirit in the world's biggest prune dryer, was in the city this noon. He reports a few prunes cracked by the rain but the bulk of those cracked are in prime condition.

Tomorrow shot and powder will be let loose on the O. A. C. in this valley. The outlook is exceedingly dubious for the too gamy bird. Men are here from different parts of the state to get a first ferret shot at his bird's nest.

OUR NEW BRICK.

A gentleman said to the DEMOCRAT Man: "You and the Oregonian are the only paper in the state doing business in their own brick block, why don't you get in and cross about it."

The building has been well constructed by Cox & Chamberlain and the DEMOCRAT Man is pleased at being in new quarters of brick, though of comparatively small dimensions, particularly on account of the convenience, everything being on the ground floor in compact shape.

The first man to get his name on the cash book in the new building was a subscriber to the weekly, Mr. J. B. Burch. When a boy we disliked seeing the lurch brought around, but there was no such sensation at this time.

Everybody is welcome. One front room in the new brick, 22x28 is for rent and will make a good place for a small store or suite of offices.

A Live Runaway.

The team of A. C. Miller, who resides on the Hulbert place ran away this afternoon starting at the Magoolia laundry and stopping at the Young corner. The horses ran into Al Saylor's dray and that was enough to bring them to a stop.

GRAFTS.

The hay dealer does business on a large scale.

As a man grows older he swaps his ideals for ideas.

The less we have the easier it is to share it with others.

Life seems to be made up of ardent desire and vain regrets.

Some men don't have to travel very far when they go to the bad.

It doesn't pay to be a prodigal son unless you are partial to veal.

If you want to hear a hard luck story ask a man for money he owes you.

Many a married couple could save money out of what a bachelor spends.

It is better to be imposed on occasionally than to doubt indiscriminately.

Fine feathers may not make fine bird but they are apt to make costly hats.

Men listen when money talks. Probably that is why we sometimes hear lush-money.

An Ohio girl who is unable to speak above a whisper has had 47 offers of marriage. A word to the wise, etc.
