WILEY PREPARES IDEAL FOOD BOX FOR BELGIUM

Following an announcement that the parcel post will hereafter assist in the collection of food supplies for the starving Belgians, the Woman's Section of the Commission for relief in Belgium has perfected a plan to gather food supplies in small lots from the larders of America.

The plan of "Food Boxes for Belgium" was originated by Mrs. Joseph Darling, of Washington. Mrs. Darling, like millions of other American women, had been knitting stockings for European war sufferers until the idea occurred to her that she might put her brains to better account. She went to Dr. Harvey Wiley, the pure-food expert, and had him lay out the contents of three ideal boxes—one for infants, one for convalescents, and one for adults.

The Woman's Section of the Commission, of which Mrs. Lindon W. Bates, of New York, is chairman, has taken up this plan nationally. Its workers in the various collecting centers throughout the United States will, within the next fortnight, see the local grocers, arrange to have such boxes packed at wholesale cost price, and will place them on sale throughout the principal cities. The commission is gathering and shipping all food supplies without cost to the donor, and the purchaser of such a box need have no concern with it after he pays over his money.

Box A for infants (green band) and Box C for adults (red band) are made up as follows:

- Box "A" for infants (green band)
20 1-lb. tins sweetened cond. milk
2 1-lb. tins potent barley flour
2 1-lb. cotton sacks of rice
1 3-lb. sack rolled oats
1 3-lb. sack yellow corn meal
1 2-lb. sack salt
1 can opener
1 box.

Net weight of food, 30 1-2 lbs.; gross weight of box, packed, 36 1-2 lbs. Size 18x12x6 1-2 inches.

This will support one infant for four weeks. Wholesale price, $3.25.

- Box "C" for well adults (red band)
3 No. 3 tins beans,
3 No. 1 tins pink Alaska salmon,
1 5-lb. cotton sack rolled oats,
1 5-lb. cotton sack yellow corn meal,
1 5-lb. cotton sack yellow split peas,
1 2-lb. cotton sack granulated sugar,
1 3-lb. sack 70/80 California prunes,
1 7-lb. cotton sack wheat flour,
1 1-lb. cotton sack salt,
1 can opener,
1 box.

Net weight of food, 38 1-2 lbs.;

gross weight of box, packed, 48 lbs. Size of box, 17-12x11 inches. This will keep a family of four for two weeks. Wholesale price, $2.50.
