Lectures Interest.

Prof. Alexander gave another of his interesting lectures at the Opera House last night, and the large audience was well pleased. The lectures of Prof. Alexander are free, and every father and mother in Albany is invited to hear him. The subject for tonight is on "How to Read Character by Temperament." Sunday afternoon and Sunday night Prof. Alexander will lecture to men only on "Hereditry," and "Social Problems." Everything free.

Jacob Williamson went to Mill City this morning on business.

SPECIAL

One of the most pleasant children affairs of the week was the All Around Birthday party given by the pupils of the three primary grades at the Academy on Wednesday afternoon from 1:30 to 4:30 o'clock. The little girls being accompanied by their dolls made the affair very attractive. The happy afternoon was passed in telling and dramatizing stories learned at school, singing, recitations, and playing games, between which a most dainty lunch was served, prepared by the pupils, each class taking turn in serving. The honored guests were the Rev. Father Lane and Father Henry.

The New Idea club met with Mrs. Veal on Thursday, two miles east of town. The afternoon was passed in sewing, after which a dainty collation was served. Those present were: Mesdames Bennigan, Dumond, Burkhardt, Dunn, Dicklander, Byron Peabler, E. Peabler, Skeen, Towers, and Veal.
