

SAM GARLAND WANTS GOVERNOR'S MEASURE

Have you taken the measure of your governor and at last have come to the conclusion that you can make him pliable as putty in your hands? This was the question Senator Garland threw at Senator Moser when Moser's bill providing that all persons holding appointive positions shall hold them for an indefinite period and may be removed at the pleasure of the appointive power was up for passage in the senate last night, says the Journal. Senator Moser stated that the purpose of the bill was to enable the present administration to remove their stead persons of the governor's choosing.

Senator Garland pointed out that this was a companion to another bill, which takes from the state board of control all authority to make appointments and places it in the hands of the governor. "Some time ago when the prohibition bill was coming up I urged that we give the governor more power over district attorneys and sheriffs so he could see that the laws were enforced," said Garland. "Senator Moser and others said I would make a czar of the governor. They did not trust their governor, and I did."

"Now you want to give him more power than I ever suggested giving him. That is why I ask if you have taken his measure and have come to the conclusion that you can make him pliable in your hands. "If the politicians of Portland would leave him alone he would probably use this power wisely. But they will not leave him alone, and no governor, having this power, will be able to resist the influences, insinuations and threats of the politicians. You will wreck his administration so one of you can step in and take the office befoiled for him."

"In his eagerness to build up a political machine here and provide offices for those who want them, Senator Moser has drawn a bill so broad that it even includes the school teachers, for whom he has been introducing bills and standing as their champion. It is so broad that if a vacancy should occur in the supreme court and the governor should appoint a judge he could remove that judge at his pleasure if the decisions of the court did not suit. The same thing will apply to circuit or county judges."

"We Have Her Scalp," Says Moser. "One object to the bill is to get the scalp of Fern Hobbs, who has been hounded from one end of the capital to the other. You are after the scalp of that little woman who has made a name for womanhood in this state. I would as soon see her scalp hanging to the bloody belt of a savage as at your belt, Senator Moser."

"We already have her scalp," interrupted Moser. "I thought I would smoke you out and make you admit you were after her scalp," retorted Garland.

CENTENARIAN IS GLAD WILSON'S A GRANDPA

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 22.—Mrs. Elizabeth Hall De Camp, who remembers Cincinnati's town pump, celebrated her 100th birthday today. She called it her debut. On Jan. 14 she celebrated her eightieth wedding anniversary. Ninety years ago she lived in a log cabin on Race street near the present scene of high metropolitan skyscrapers. She saw busy Fourth street as a cowpasture.

Scores of friends today paid their respects. The new centenarian is an advocate of President Wilson. She was overjoyed recently when Frances Bowes Sayre, Jr., came to the White House and made the president "Grandpa."

Dental Institute Opens.

Philadelphia, Feb. 22.—With impressive exercises at which prominent and eminent scientists from France, Germany and England took part and addresses by prominent dentists from this section of the country, the million dollar Thomas W. Evans Dental Institute of the University of Pennsylvania was dedicated today. The building is one of the largest on the university campus and was designed by John T. Windrim. It is the gift of Thomas W. Evans, who died in Paris in 1897.

Cherry Tree Day, Today.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Today is the birthday of the "Father" of the United States.

Washington celebrated the day quietly but a program of speaking has been arranged for tonight and senators from many states will speak. Senator Jones, of Washington; Kenyon, of Iowa and Weeks of Massachusetts, were scheduled.

This meeting which was held under the Sons of Veterans' auspices was also to commemorate the birthday of President Lincoln.

Thaw Goes on Trial Tomorrow.

New York, Feb. 22.—Harry K. Thaw will be brought to trial before Justice Weeks in the supreme court tomorrow at the charge of conspiracy in his escape from Matteawan.

Deputy Attorney General Kennedy will move for the trial of all of the defendants together with Thaw, when the case comes up for hearing. Those indicted for conspiracy with him are Richard J. Butler, Eugene Duffy, Michael Keefe, Thomas Flood and Roger Thompson, the latter his chauffeur.

To Discuss Neutrality.

Philadelphia, Feb. 22.—America's neutrality in the present war will be discussed by Charlmange Tower, ex-United States Ambassador to Germany, who will be the principal speaker tonight at the annual dinner of the alumni of the University of Pennsylvania at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel. Other speakers will be Governor Brumbaugh, Murdoch and T. Lane Bean.

REV. WHITE RETURNED FROM EUGENE CONVENTION

Rev. W. P. White returned this morning from Eugene, where he had been to take charge of the religious study work of the convention, delivering two or three addresses. He reports the convention a great success, splendidly attended, with some good speakers on the program, men with messages for young people. The Register speaks of Rev. White's last address as follows:

In opening the session yesterday afternoon, Rev. W. P. White of Albany, in no uncertain tones derided the carnal Christian and pleaded with the young people not to tie themselves up in their respective churches, but to work for Christ. "I am not working for members," he said. "I do not care if my congregation leaves me so long as the work of Jesus Christ goes on. If some other church gets all my members it is alright. Trouble in the church shows just the opposite of the true Christian spirit and you will usually find those making the trouble, the babies of the church—they do not want to live true Christian lives. Go back to your homes after this convention with this one resolve in your minds at least, that I am working for Jesus Christ and no one can say then that you are of the Paul crowd or of this crowd or that. I have been in Albany for 14 years and if any other church gets my congregation they can have them. If you have the spirit you are crippled and cannot have the true spirit of God. Do not be ruled by the innerman but let the spiritual take full possession."
