

Still Thousands of Bargains at Hamilton's GREAT FIRE SALE!

In spite of the tremendous crowds which have filled the store every moment since this Sale started, thousands of desirable bargains still remain! At the rate everybody has been buying, the stock will be closed out before another week.

Domestics, Sheets, Outings, Towels, etc. Mostly undamaged Great Sacrifice

New Spring Ginghams, Percales, and Wash Goods at Fire Sale Prices!

Thousands of pairs of Women's and Children's Shoes. Mostly perfect—less than wholesale cost!

Wool Dress Goods and Silks at your own prices! Don't miss such a chance to buy

Hundreds of articles in Notions at prices that'll astonish you!

Just think of it! Many new Spring garments were included in our stock of Women's Suits and Coats. Fire Sale prices will astound you! Come and see!

Silk and Kid Gloves—mostly in good shape—at next-to-nothing prices!

Women's and Children's Hosiery—practically perfect—goes regardless of price!

Fine Furs saved from the fire—all must go!

New Spring Millinery arrived since the fire. At Fire Sale Prices!

Positively nothing restricted—Our misfortune is your gain.

Hamilton's FIRE SALE!

Rhodes' Building, next to St. Francis Hotel

Miss Mabel Schultz went to Eugene last evening to spend the week end with her friend, Miss Hazel Rolfe.

Miss Zelpha Galloway is in Salem visiting at the home of her father, Judge Wm. Galloway.

CONSERVATIVE

While our Bank aims at all times to be conservative --- yet we are progressive and thoroughly up-to-date in our methods.

We are accommodating and helpful --- with zeal in working for the interests of our patrons

Bank with us.

SOCIETY

Miss Mae C. Tillman
Society Editor.
Home Phone 156
Bell Phone 515-R.

The young ladies of Miss Flora Mason's Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church met at the church Thursday afternoon for the purpose of planting ivy on the west side of the church. Dr. Geselbracht gave an appropriate address for the occasion, after which supper was served in the church dining room to the members of the class and their guests, Dr. and Mrs. Geselbracht, and Mr. and Mrs. George Crowell. Miss Pauline Burch is the president of the class, Miss Helen Hulbert secretary, and Miss Julia Crowell, chairman of the social committee.

Miss Emily Dohnert gave a party on Monday in celebration of her eleventh birthday. The girls enjoyed themselves in the early afternoon in playing games and music at the Dohnert home and at the close, they went down to the Carlton for a dainty lunch. Miss Pansy Colby was the chaperone and the following girls were invited: Delma and Vieta Manning, Salome Cusick, Barbara Pfeiffer, Margaret Cathey, Ruth and Helen Nebergall, Olga Jackson, Florence Fortmiller, Olive Barker, Wilma Doremus, Inez Darling, Wilma Jenkins, Pauline and Emily Dohnert.

On Friday evening, a farewell party for Miss Ruth Keep was given at the home of Lawrence Howard, 627 East Third street. The evening was enjoyed by playing games and music, followed by dainty refreshments. Those present were: Mrs. Gertrude Roberts, Misses Harriet and Olive Millholland, Anita Conn, Velma and Alice Lawrenson, Ustie Levrich, Bessie Hoover, Dale Willis, Ruth Keep, Asa and Roy Eastburn, Henry Bryant, Cecil Froman, Ernest Smith, George Parker, Kenneth Bloom, Clark Crocker, Norman and Lawrence Howard.

rence Howard.

The A. M. A. girls will give a "covered dish supper" tonight at the home of Miss Lee Fortmiller. After supper the young ladies will attend the "movies," chaperoned by Miss Elsie Bain. The members of the club are: Misses Carolyn Wright, Hazel Hockensmith, Ruth Fisher, Inez Lemke, Corintha Hart, Lucile Snyder, Janet Dawson, Mae Ballack, Beatrice Sanders, Eulah Hand, and Lee Fortmiller.

On Wednesday afternoon a few pupils of Mrs. Frances Wilson were heard in a short musical recital in the Wilson studio on Ferry street. The mothers and a few friends of those taking part were guests. After the musicale dainty refreshments were served.

The guild of the Grace Presbyterian church met Wednesday with Mrs. Fraser. The first part of the evening was passed in studying the book, "Child in the Midst," after which a social hour was enjoyed, and refreshments served.

Miss Margaret Gibson left Friday for Corvallis to attend the debate between the U. of O. and O. A. C. on governmental ownership of the railroads and to pass the week end with her cousin, Miss May Workinger.

"Grandma" Stewart celebrated her ninety-fourth birthday on Friday, March the fifth. Many of her friends called during the afternoon at the Stewart home on Sixth and Ferry streets, wishing her many happy returns of the day. She was the recipient of many floral bouquets, as a token from her friends. She is the mother of Mrs. Henrietta Brown and Judge C. H. Stewart of the Commercial club.

Misses Gertrude Bilyeu and Violet Nutting were hostesses this week at a four-course luncheon in the domestic science room in the Albany high school. Violets decked the prettily adorned table and violet place cards marked covers for Mrs. Bilyeu, Mrs. McClain, Mrs. Chandler, Miss Bryant, Miss Heist, Miss Mae Lewis, Mr. Crawford and Mr. Finnerly.

Last night a reception and social was given by the Maccabees of the local chapter to the visiting members, in the Knights of Pythias Hall. Mayor Cull gave an address of welcome, which was followed by several speeches and a musical program and choice refreshments.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Grace Presbyterian church gave a social on Monday, at the home of Mrs. Hub Bryant. A few pleasant hours were passed in music and games, followed by choice refreshments.

ments.

Last night Mrs. Landan of Mashfield, the president of the Rebekah assembly of the state of Oregon, spoke before a large crowd of Rebekahs and Odd Fellows in the hall on First street. A musical program was given by Mrs. Lloyd Marquam and Mrs. Van Nuys, followed by a drill by the Rebekahs and a social hour. At a late hour an elaborate banquet was served.

The Thimble club of North Albany were entertained on Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Kennelly. The ladies brought their fancy-work and enjoyed a social hour together, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. Joseph Ralston entertained the members of the Y. W. C. A. of Albany college this week. Games and music were the diversions of the evening and refreshments served.

The Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church met with Mrs. R. Veal on Wednesday. Mrs. G. T. Hockensmith was the leader and Mrs. Stanford and Mrs. Robson read splendid papers on "Kindergarten work among the foreign countries." Mrs. Bodine gave a talk on the subject, which was exceedingly interesting. After a short social hour, refreshments were served.

Mrs. A. Austin was hostess for the members of the Priscilla club on Thursday. The annual election of officers took place, which resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Fred Ward; first vice president, Mrs. F. C. Pate; secretary, Mrs. McAlpin, and treasurer, Mrs. Riggs. The ladies sewed for a few hours, after which a dainty repast was served by Misses Winnifred Austin, Elsie Bain and Esther McChesney. The honored guests were: Mrs. McChesney and Mrs. O. D. Austin.

Several of the young folks enjoyed themselves at a little informal dancing party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rahn last Monday evening. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. John French, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, Misses Zona Haight, Lora Taylor, Helen Hulbert, Julia Crowell, Blanch Hammel, Winnifred Austin, Elsie Bain, Marion Anderson, Messrs. Buford Payne, Clarence Tebault, Edwin Fortmiller, Harold Wieder, Park Stal-maker, Ralph Reeves (Lebanon), and Frank Barrett (Dallas).

Miss Violet Nutting celebrated her birthday last night, by entertaining the A. B. G. girls at the "movies" after which the crowd gathered at the Nutting home for choice refreshments. Misses Dorothy Lee and Hazel Gilbert were honored guests. The members present were: Misses Marciel Austin, Nathiel Donaca, Lucile Longbottom, Estelle Price, Ethel Bussard, Anna Hoflich, Elizabeth Eagles and Violet Nutting.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Austin were surprised on Monday when a few friends called at their home. "500" was the game played, during the evening, followed by refreshments. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walworth, Mr. and Mrs. Swan, Mr. and Mrs. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hogan, Mrs. Brown and Miss Mae Lewis.

The Pythian Sisters met Tuesday in the lodge rooms. Sewing was the pastime of the evening and at a late hour a dainty collation was served by the hostesses Mesdames G. W. Wright, Jones and A. B. Marshall.

The ladies of the Thursday Tatting club met with Mrs. Melvin Baltimore this week. The members brought their fancy-work and passed a social hour together, followed by dainty refreshments. Mrs. Springer of Junction City was an honored guest.

Mrs. Mary Moensh of 330 Main street was hostess for the Jolly Twelve club on Friday. The afternoon was passed in sewing and a social hour, followed by a dainty repast. The complimented guests were: Mesdames Morgan, Walton and John Bryant.

The Thursday afternoon Study club met with Mrs. Brandeberry on Sixth street, this week. Roll call was responded to with current events. Mrs. Charles Monson read a paper on "Alaska" which was full of interest to those present. After a social hour, refreshments were served.

The senior class of the Albany high school were pleasantly entertained on Wednesday, at the home of Miss Gertrude Swank on West Sixth street. Games, stunts and music were the diversions of the evening, followed by refreshments.

Miss Marion Anderson entertained the Alpha Omega girls at a "covered dish supper" on Thursday. The latter part of the evening was passed in cards.

The Albany Teachers' club gave a banquet at the Carlton on Thursday night.

Mrs. A. J. Rahn was hostess for the ladies of the Royal Auction Bridge club on Thursday. Cards were played at three tables and at the close, a dainty repast was served. The complimented guests were: Mesdames John French, L. L. Swan and S. S. Train.

Mrs. L. E. Hamilton entertained the members of her Sabbath school class of the United Presbyterian church and Mrs. Gaff's class on Wednesday. Games and music were played, during the evening and refreshments served.

Mrs. A. Stark entertained for the ladies of the Acme Bridge club on Tuesday. Cards were played during the afternoon, followed by refreshments. Mrs. O. D. Austin and Mrs. P. R. Kelly were honored guests.

Mrs. Joe Warner entertained the members of the By Thursday club this week, at her home in Sunrise. Sewing was the pastime of the afternoon, followed by refreshments. The hostess complimented Mesdames Thompson and Carnegie on this occasion.

Miss Pera Wilkins was greatly surprised last Monday evening when a number of her friends gathered at her home to join her in celebrating her birthday. The young folks enjoyed themselves playing games and in a social time. At a late hour Mrs. Wilkins assisted by Mrs. Harry Wilkins served an appetizing lunch. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. Reade Dowlin, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Moore, Mr. and Mrs. A. Minton, Willetta Wright, Kate Stewart, Velma Davis, Greta Fortmiller, Christine Pipe, Juanita Hart (Portland), Volena Smith, Mabel Schultz, Louise Wieder, Mae Tillman, Claire Tillman, Pera Wilkins; Messrs. Fred Dohnert, C. P. Stevens, Walter Woods, Gus Abraham, Henry Volstedt, Hiram Torbet, Roy Kimsey, Victor Olliver, Elmer Williamson, Ralph Cronise, Charles Lamb, Ralph Stewart, and Dr. W. P. Cook.

(Continued on page 4)

The Hotel Albany
will serve those high-class Sunday dinners from 5 to 8 p. m.
tomorrow
at seventy-five cents a plate

Musical Program will be given by Professor Esler's Orchestra