SATURDAY NIGHT THOUGHTS.

The principal feature of the Eastern situation is the brutality displayed. It seems to be catching. Losing all sense of honor exhibitions of cruelty are reported horrible enough to freeze the equator over.

Like all the troubles with Mexico of recent years the present disturbances are being gradually smoothed over as they should be, there being no occasion for anything else by people calling themselves Christians.

U. S. had a little catastrophe of his own, the loss of the submarine by what was evidently an accident, over in the peaceful waters of the Pacific.

Albany's much talked about sales-day got big enough this week to have the governor with us. Often with Albany people in another capacity it is always pleasing to have the chief executive in the doings of the city.

This salesday is proving a fine thing and a worthy event in the life and business of the city, deserving of all the attention it has received.

Among enterprises there is nothing that promises better than the proposed fruit union, creating a market for our products, the lack of which on the proper scale has been the greatest drawback to development this part of the state has experienced.

MISFITS

This is such a wide awake age that even ships are being fitted with ears, so acute that they can hear the approach of a submarine a mile or two away.

The average actor slops over. In Peg O' My Heart they did things as natural as life, leaving a sweet taste that will last

The trouble with amateurs is overdoing, not underdoing.

Here's a very neat little poem, handed Misfits by a discerning Albany man:

Here, you discontented knocker, Growlin' 'bout the country's ills, Chloroform your dismal talker: Take a course of liver pills; Stop your dern eternal howlin'; Chaw some sand and git some grit;

Don't sit in the dumps a-growlin', Smile a few and boost a bit. Fall in while the band's a-playin', Ketch the step and march along; Stead of pessimistic brayin' Join the hallelulah song. Drop your hammer, do some rootin', Grab a horn, yon cuss, and split Every echo 'with you're tootin', Smile a few and boost a bit.
