APRIL FOOL'S DAY.

This is April fool's day. Just how the day secured its name is not known; but it is a fact that for a very long time April first has been a day in which it is entirely proper to fool other people.

SOME WORLD'S DOINGS.

A heavy snow fell over Kansas, also in Arkansas, and in Philadelphia it was almost down to zero.
A. L. Flynn, of Cottage Grove, continues to live with his pulse at 30. For awhile it was only 13. The case is a puzzle to the doctors.

Before you start to the San Francisco exposition it will be well to provide yourself with a pair of gold field or opera glasses. See them at F. M. French & Son's Jewelry store, m18f

MISFITS

Good evening, April fool.
The man who bites may be the brightest.

Over in Europe one is kept busy looking both up and down, up for the pesky aviators with their bombs, down for the sneaking submarines with their torpedoes.

Over in Seattle they didn't know whether there was a strike or not. Generally they have the evidence promiscuously.

March came in like a lamb and didn't go out like a lion; but there was a slight growl the last day or two.

Now we have a permanent po. building, a good 'un.

Play ball is now heard all over the land, wherever the weather will permit it. Great old game.

Some of the best characters in Shakespeare were fools.

Many a dunce when a boy has landed on top when a man.

After all is said and done, "what fools we mortals be."

A man never feels his weakness so much as when he tries to keep up with a woman talking.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM GATES
Gates, Or., March 28.—(Special to Democrat.)—Uncle Don Smith and William Bevier have returned from a week's trip in the mountains east of Detroit.

The Christie show people came to town Saturday, presented a very good show to a fair sized audience and passed on to Mill City Monday.

J. N. Early who drove the Galena tunnel is preparing to do more prospecting there in the near future.

A. B. Horner has Fred Kasch employed building some sidewalks.

Konrad Miller, the road boss, has a gang of men working on the roads. John Shultie went to Lyons on business.

Harry Dunlap went down to Gold Hill last Friday on business, returning Tuesday.

Camp 14 has shut down some of their rollways, thereby cutting down the number of employes.

Paul Reppetto went to Detroit to work in the buggy camp.

"Potash & Perlmutter."
"Potash & Perlmutter," an "up to date garment in three pieces," made from material in the famous Saturday Evening Post stories of Montague Glass, and presented by Manager A. H. Woods will come to the Albany Opera House on Saturday, April 3, direct from its second year's run at the Cohan Theatre, New York City.

This is the play that created the sensation of the season by its overwhelming and immediate success. No more remarkable and substantial recognition of a play has ever been given than that accorded to this three act comedy. Although it is literally "trimmed with a thousand laughs," as the program announces there is so much of heart interest in the story that many of these laughs come just in time to chase away the tears.
