● lie Chaplin.

● Hartley."

The Rolfe theatre presents an unusual bill tonight and tomorrow with Catherine Countiss heading the cast in "The Idlers." Miss Countiss is well known to Oregon theatre goers, for she was leading lady with the Baker Stock company in Portland for several seasons. She is an actress of unusual ability and the past two years has been a great favorite in metropolitan centers. She is a co-star in "The Idlers" with Charles Richman, is supported by such excellent players as Claire Whitney and Stuart Holmes.

"The Idlers" is a Chas. Froman production, which is enough of an endorsement in itself. The author, C. Madden Chambers, a well known dramatist, places this play as one of his greatest pieces, and it had a long run in New York before being presented in moving pictures. It is a strong play and has drawn big houses everywhere.

Besides "The Idler" the Rolfe is offering the inimitable Charles Chaplin in a screaming comedy "Gentleman of Nerve."
The second episode of the "Black Box," E. Phillips Openheim's great story, is the main feature at the Hub tonight. The first installment of this mysterious detective story was well received here. "The Hearts of the Bradys," a story of friendship in the gold fields, written and played by Sydney Ayres, and a Sterling Comedy, "The Butler's Busted Romance," make up the balance of a good bill.

The Globe tonight presents "Sentimental Sophie," with Margaret Joslyn and Victor Poppel. "A Night's Adventure," "The Misjudged Mr. Harley" and "Father's Adventures of Sammy Orpheus" fill out a big night's bill. Wednesday and Thursday will be seen Chas. Chaplin in his reorganizing Essanay production, "His New Job."

MEETING OF VALLEY BALL CLUBS NOT HELD SUNDAY

The proposed meeting of the managers of the six baseball teams that are slated to form the Willamette Valley League, that was to have been held in Salem yesterday did not take place owing to the fact that but two of the managers were in attendance.
C. M. Small went down as the representative from Albany, and with J.
D. Turner, of the Salem team, were the only ones present.

It is not decided whether or not there will be a league, but most of the valley towns will have teams and some good games will be scheduled.
The Salem manager is showing his confidence by proceeding with the erection of a grand stand, fence, etc., on land that he has leased for ten years, and will let the contract for putting the diamond in shape this week. The plant will cost over $1500.
Mr. Small states that next Sunday a big workout will be held on the field near the depot, and that the week following a benefit game will be played. Tickets will be placed on sale this week and efforts made to raise money to finance the start of the season. Prospects are bright for a strong team here, for besides the old players residing here there are several good men in near by towns that have signified their willingness to wear Albany uniforms this year.

FOR RENT—Two or more acres in North Albany. A man with a team could exchange work for part rent.
