DEATH OF EX-SENATOR NELSON W. ALDRICH

Prominent U. S. Senator and Politician Died Today in New York City.

(By United Press Association)

New York, April 15.--Nelson W. Aldrich, former United States senator, of Rhode Island, dropped dead at his Fifth Avenue home today. He has been in poor health for several months, but his illness was not considered serious. He was 74 years of age.

Senator Aldrich was born Nov. 4, 1841, at Foster, R. I., and spent his life in that state. He received only an academic education, going into business. He started as a city councilman in 1861. He was elected to the assembly of the state in 1876, and to Congress March 4, 1869. In 1883 he was elected to the U. S. senate, serving continuously to March, 1911, for 28 years. He was one of the most prominent members, a stand patter, and a leader in party legislation, the author of several prominent bills.

Weekly Stock Sales.

Thursday, April 15.--The receipts for the week have been: Cattle, 1637; calves, 31; hogs, 1127; sheep, 3340.

Notwithstanding the comparatively heavy runs of cattle the last few weeks the market has been slightly lower to steady, choice steers are still selling $7.50 to $7.75 with other grades at the usual differential.

Demand for hogs seems to over run the light supply of only fair grade of offerings. A few very good loads touched the $6.75 spot Monday.

Shorn sheep are beginning to come to market and although not strictly fat are commanding very good prices. Special spring lambs are lower while other choice lambs are steady at $8.75 to $9.25, for full wools. Shearings, $1.25 less. Other sheep steady.

Arm Broken--

Last Sunday Mrs. I. A. Munkers, of Munkers, had the misfortune to be mixed up in a runaway scrape, in which she was thrown from the buggy, resulting in smashing the elbow of her left arm and otherwise bruising her severely. Dr. Prill was called and found the elbow dislocated and the bones fractured. An injury of this character usually results in a stiff joint. It is hoped, however, that Mrs. Munkers may prove an exception to the general rule--Tribune.

W. R. Bilyeu Promoted--

At the meeting of the grand council of Royal and Select Masters, in Masonry, at Portland, this week, Hon. W. R. Bilyeu, of this city, was elected deputy grand master, being a promotion. Geo. Taylor, deputy master and R. K. Ohling, trustee, were present at the meeting.

The New Moon--

The new moon last night was a marvel. Clear and distinct it lay horizontal, the ends about even, the concave forming a basin which would hold all the water put in it, without a place for any to tumble out unless it sloped over. This means that we will either have very dry weather or very wet weather. Which will soon be known. Whichever it is there will be a "very" to it for sure.

Locals All Over Democrat--

We are trying to make the Democrat as readable on one page as another. Perhaps you have noticed that there is local news all over the paper. The inside is just as good as the outside, as a rule, unless there is a big rush of advertising.

"Candy Shop" Coming--

I. R. Schultz, manager of the Opera House has completed arrangements for the booking of the greatest hit of the season, "The Candy Shop," which will appear here the latter part of April. "The Candy Shop" is on its way to the Panama Exposition and is playing the smaller towns on a guarantee. They have only played six one night stands between Chicago and Butte. Manager Schultz states that while the attractions have not been very well attended yet he is of the opinion that the people of Albany and surrounding territory will support this attraction which will be the biggest thing that has ever been staged in Albany.

Delegates to National Presbytery--

At Salem this week Rev. Wm. McLeod of Mill City, and Rev. W. S. McCullagh, of Lebanon, were elected delegates to the national Presbytery of the Presbyterian church, to convene in Rochester, N. Y., in May.

Left for Pendleton--

Ronald Robnett, son of Dr. Robnett left this morning for Pendleton, to spend the summer at the home of his uncle, who joined him at Salem, where he has been for a few days. The uncle is engineer at the asylum at Pendleton. Ronald took along his base ball bat, ready for whatever comes up.

Mariels of Mariels Here --

C. W. Mariels this morning returned to Mariels, on the C. & E. near Gooch, after a business trip to the county seat. Mr. Mariels is the son of the founder in Mariels, his father locating there in 1885, taking up a homestead, which continues in the family.

Went Anyway--

F. P. Devaney went down to Jefferson this morning. He really wasn't well enough to go, but had told his son Frank P., that he would be there and so went anyway. Mr. Devaney is getting pretty close to 90, but keeps travelling.

Mr. Munkers of Munkers--

I. A. Munkers, ex-sheriff and ex-chief of police, returned to Munkers this morning. He is busy these days farming, with prospects of big crops. Mrs. Munkers, who was unfortunate in having an arm broken in a runaway, is doing well.

S. Dak. People Here--

Lawyer and Mrs. J. E. House, of Chamberlain, South Dakota, left for home this morning after an Albany visit. They were on their way home from the exposition at San Francisco. They stopped off to see their former neighbors, W. H. Heinrichs and family, and Mrs. Dr. B. R. Wallace. Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. House were school mates and chums back in Chamberlain.

Hello Bill--

This cheery Elk greeting will be ringing through the streets of the Capital City next Thursday night, April 22, when Salem lodge No. 336 B. P. O. E. will entertain at their home coming and hobo convention. Salem's hospitality and providing of novel entertainment are well known to all Elk lodges in the state. The fact that Hon. Peter D'Arcy, poet of the Waldo Hills, is on the committee, is sufficient guarantee that a big time will be had.

Albany lodge will attend, having chartered a special train leaving here at 7:15 p. m. April 22 and on the S. P. the "Hungry Seven" have been hired at a great expense. The local committee in charge consists of John J. Collins, A. A. Mickle and Ted Schlosser.

PERSONAL MENTION FROM SHELburn.

Selburn, Or., Apr. 15.--(Special to Democrat).--A. H. Hiron came down from Gates Friday, returning Monday.

Mr. Sullivan and family of Portland, spent Sunday at the home of Frank Bryant.

Mr. Shields passed through Selburn Monday on his way to Detroit.

PUBLIC SALE DAY SATURDAY, APRIL 24TH

All kinds of live stock and farm implements are being entered for sale.

Best stallion of Linn and Benton county will compete for prizes. Special arrangements are being made to make this feature a success. Rules governing this feature, all stallions will be judges by their individuality, breeding and quality. (Soundness, size, symmetry, muscular development, quality of feet and legs, character of movement, to be carefully considered.)

Each breed of horses will be classified and each horse will be shown free from all paraphernalia but the bridle. Judges from the O. A. C. will award first, second, and third prizes, after which there will be a street parade and exhibit of prize winners.

Farmers entering any grade of stock should make their entries on or before the 22nd.

Owing to the large amount of stock to be handled at the next sale the auctioneer will commence selling farm implements, hogs, and chickens at 10 o'clock, a. m.

Come early and help to make the day profitable.

COMMITTEE.

DOINGS OF WORLD.

Great Britain has apologized to Chili for the sinking of the Dresden--

Huerta is back in New York giving his side of the Mexican troubles. But for him there would not have been much fussing.

Voting bonds for some good roads has set things going down at Portland. That was some stunt.
