SALEDAY WEEK.

Albany will have another saleday this week, next Saturday, the third one. The previous two were successes, paving the way to a permanent establishment of saledays here. It is filling a want. Heretofore one of the great troubles in the valley has been the marketing of the things people have to sell, whatever their character. This is helping to meet it. It at least has the basic idea, which, when developed, will accomplish the object in view. If kept up new ideas will develop until saleday shall mean a great deal. It already is helping materially to stimulate business here. Saleday week is now the best one of the month, because it brings extra business here, without detracting from the regular business between times. Whatever stimulates the people of the valley to trading gradually creates a feeling of confidence, necessary to healthy business conditions.

COMEDY WANTED.

Comedies are what the people want," says a moving picture man. It is not difficult to figure out. Every day life is full of the serious, with plenty of life's tragedies. People who spend the day strenuously, in hard study or hard work of any kind, when evening comes, feel as if they would like something that will take their mind off work and give it a rest, and that is what a live moving comedy does. The mind needs a change like everything else, and it is often invigorated by one's seeing something of a humorous character. We have to take humanity as it is, not as we would make it, with high ideals, and this will enable one to appreciate the fact why many people like to see a comedy at the shows full of snap. Some of them may be foolish enough, but they are restless after one has been in the midst of figures and business for eight or ten hours. The Capital Journal tells of something along this line:

A man's business failed, and for all his efforts he could not get hold again. The ill luck that pursued him was persistent, inexorable. His wife, who had graced his prosperity, was quite helpless to redeem his distress and saddled him with blame and complainings. His daughter made an undesirable marriage, and his two sons, instead of being a help and hope to him, ungratefully relieved him of what little property he had left.

Friends who met this man on the streets experienced that kind of embarrassment which one has in speaking to a person about a heavy bereavement. But such embarrassment was really unnecessary and uncalled-for. The man's laugh was as light, his face was as free from lines and his step as springy and eager as in the days of his palmy prosperity.

"I've got a half dollar in my pocket," he said to a friend, with a slap on his thigh, "and I'm off to see the vaudeville."

And off he went like a boy without a care.

It is no made-up story, but is an everyday affair.

Contrasted with it we see dozens of men every day, flush with prosperity, who can hardly summon a smile.

The world over, the heartiest laughter is heard not in the avenues of the rich but in the little side streets.

MISFITS

Whatever you have have it circulated.

Saleday week is circulation week.

Everything in nature is crying prosperity. Keep up with nature.

So far all the signs point to bumper crops of all kinds, from the ground to the top of the trees.

Albany will have to hustle to keep up with its suburbs.

We are loyally neutral in this great war, with good friends on all sides. And there are two sides to the question.

Lots of pretense in this world. Some pretend to be rich, some poor.

Great Britain is not through with the suffragettes. They have issued another letter saying they haven't quit, just resting.

Pretty quiet times in theatricals when Uncle Tom's Cabin fails to arrive.

More Thaw agony for a long suffering people, and on top of it the Barnes-Roosevelt damage suit has been begun.

If the latter lets some cats out of politics the meowing will be worth hearing.

Never expect everything in a paper to suit you. Mighty few things in the world suit everybody. The man who tries to please everybody is a jelly fish.

Over from Scio—

Geo. P. Warner, of Scio, was an Albany visitor, coming over to see his son, W. H. Warner, and daughter, Mrs. Riley Waller, and families. Mr. Warner is with his son in the Scio flour mill.

An Editor Went—

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Moore, of Corvallis, passed through the city on the Shasta Limited for San Francisco to attend the fair, and also visit relatives. Mr. Moore is editor of the Gazette-Times, and always keeps things on the move. N. R. stands for Never Rust.

Bay Time—

It is time to go to the Bay. Col. Hofer is there, at his Agate Beach, also the big waves, and the ozone, and Editor Matthews and Sam Irvine. Sure signs of a big crowd this year.

CHARLES SOUTH TO BE HEARD FRIDAY

Charles South, violinist, assisted by Annette Stoddard, will be heard at the Christian church Friday evening. The program will be varied and interesting and will consist of pieces by the classics, romantic, and modern composers. Sarasate's famous Faust Fantasia with the brilliant Faust Valse will be included on the program and this number invariably appeals to the concert going public.

Mrs. Stoddard will do a group of piano numbers and she plays with great skill, delicacy, and finish.

Mr. South is a native of Oregon but his musical education has been received largely in the East and in Europe. When he made his debut in Vienna a leading Vienna newspaper said of him, "Charles South, the young American violinist, greatly astonished his listeners. He has a big full sympathetic tone, and that he does not lack temperament was clearly shown in his rendition of Viennese Ballade and Polonaise."

To Visit in Indiana—

Mrs. Ada Deatley left yesterday for Indiana where she will visit with relatives.

Reddy Rupert's Team—

Reddy Rupert, a former Albany boy, again has a base ball team in the field at Portland, the Westsiders. They evidently have the pep, for they defeated the Maroons, heretofore undefeated this year, 11 to 5.

A Birthday Reception—

After the Bible class last night, at the U. P. church, a reception was tendered Dr. White by the members of the class in honor of his fiftieth birthday, occurring the day before. About one hundred and fifty were present. A social time was had and ice cream and cookies were served. One of the presents of the birthday season was a bouquet of fifty pinks. Most of the ministers of the city were present besides the regular attendants of the Monday evening class.

A Busy Corner—

First and Lyon streets is a busy corner. Brick laying under Mr. Stewart is in progress on the new Terrill block. Brick from the Wallace building is being used for the filling, with new brick for surface. When completed and filled that corner will be a bee hive of business.

Mr. Cameron Better—

A dispatch from Los Angeles reports that M. J. Cameron, of this city, there in a hospital, was better. His physician says he has passed the crisis, and that there is now no immediate danger. Saturday evening it looked as if he would be unable to make it. Now the indications are good for his recovery.

VILLAGE NEWS.

The Congregational parsonage is being reshingled, giving it a Spring time hat.

A new walk has been put down at Calapooia and Seventh. It is cement.

The boys out at the chair factory just before opening hour, for half an hour play good old fashioned quoits, sometimes three or four games going at once.

Horsechestnuts are blooming beautifully. Also lilacs; also about everything else.

Clark Price has the distinguished honor of being the pioneer jitney man of the town.

The boys are playing ball on all the commons around.

The young people of the court house yesterday took an automobile ride through the streets.

The swimming hole is now open for business.

There's going to be a wedding soon.
