Smith-Boyles Nuptials—

The wedding of Miss Mary Smith and Mr. Earl Boyles was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Smith, 820 West Fourth St., at one o'clock this afternoon. Rev. D. H. Leech, of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a few friends and relatives of the contracting couple. After the wedding a delicious lunch was served. This afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Boyles will leave for Omaha, Nebraska, and will be gone about two weeks.

Shakespeare Club Thursday—

The regular bi-weekly meeting of the Shakespeare club will be held tomorrow afternoon. Members are requested to take their books and meet at the home of Mrs. J. D. Sommers, at 233 Ferry street at 2 o'clock. From there they will go in the Sommers auto truck to the home of Mrs. J. L. Bray, in North Albany, for the regular meeting.

New A. O. U. W.—

The Grand Lodge A. O. U. W. in session at Portland, elected the following officers: Past grand master workman, George T. Baldwin, Klumath Falls; grand master workman,

P. H. D'Arcy, Salem; grand foreman, C. E. Baird, Baker; grand overseer, P. P. Olds, Lafayette; grand recorder, J. M. Dixon, Portland; grand treasurer, R. L. Durham, Portland; grand medical examiner, Dr. D. Walker, Portland.

Came Up to Wedding—

Mrs. Boyle, of Portland, arrived this noon to attend the wedding of her son and Miss Mary Smith, which took place this afternoon. While here she is the guest of Mr. Smith and family.

Fishing With a Banjo—

A man left this morning for up the Corvallis and Eastern, said to be bound for Detroit, or perhaps Hoover, on a fishing trip. He carried a fish pole and banjo. Just what he was going to do with the fish pole was not known, but an ingenious Albany barber figured out that he was going to sit on the bank of the river up there, play the banjo and await results. Now a banjo has a jerky kind of tune, and it was thought the fisherman could thus jerk the fish out without the trouble of taking a shingle and slapping grasshoppers down, or a hoe and hoeing angle worms for the business.

Left on E. O. Trip—

T. A. Farmer left this noon on a trip to Eastern Oregon. He was going to Portland, thence up the beautiful Columbia to The Dalles, from there to Pendleton, Walla Walla and other places, prospecting. Mr. Farmer owns Albany property and also a farm, but his eyes are on Eastern Oregon.

Capt. K. of Lebanon—

Captain Kuhn, of Lebanon, moving picture magnate there, was in town today, coming down with a friend in an auto. Mr. Kuhn is a son-in-law of T. P. Hackleman. He got his title from being with the S. A. several years before going into the moving picture business.

Missionary to India—

Miss Emma Dean Anderson, who has been a missionary to India for the past 34 years, and her sister, Mrs. Montgomery, left this morning for Portland, after spending several days here. She is touring the coast in the interest of missionary work in the United Presbyterian church. While here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hamilton.

Back from Crook County—

E. H. Kelly went to Thomas this morning where he expects to work for a few months. He is on his way down from Prineville. Mr. Kelly says that the stock in Crook county are affected with hydrophobia and over 200 head of cattle have died of that disease during the winter. He reports having seen many dead coyotes on the prairies as he rode around herding cattle.

Gone East With Body—

Mrs. G. M. Pardey left last evening for St. Joe, Missouri, with the remains of her husband's father, G. A. Pardey, who died here yesterday morning.

Dr. Persley will return to Missouri as soon as business affairs will permit him to leave here.

Will Visit in Iowa—

C. R. Gerig left yesterday for Olds, Iowa, where he will visit for a few weeks.

Making a Big Whistle—

Bill Woods, the clever trap drummer and musician at the Rolfe Theatre, has manufactured a large wooden whistle, larger than any speaker in any pipe organ in the city, and will soon have it installed among the many other contrivances for making funny noises with the movies. The whistle will represent large steamship's blasts.

Short Story Hour—

At the Public Library Friday, at 3:45 p. m. there will be an hour with the birds. Mrs. C. V. Littler will entertain the children with her study of birds and bird life. She will dwell especially upon the Oregon birds.

At the Theatres.

The Globe tonight and tomorrow offers "Underneath the Paint," with Helen Gardner, as the headliner. This is the story of a poor and struggling actress who is separated from her fiancé from his rich father. The boy leaves home and the father dies of remorse. The actress becomes a star, and the story of how she and the lover are reunited in a thrilling climax makes a good three reel drama. "The Deputy's Duty" and "The Guardian's Dilemma" are two other good plays. Next Friday and Saturday the Globe will present Miss Priscilla Fleming and Willard Hall, two prominent young society people of Salem, in fancy Spanish and modern dances and songs. Hall has been on a vaudeville circuit, and the pair are preparing to go out as a team.

At the Rolfe today are "In the Twilight," a two reel drama featuring Vivian Rich, "The Deputy's Chance that Won," a comedy, "Who Got Stung" and "The Fatal Black Bean." The bill includes five reels of first class motion picture drama.
