AT THE THEATRES.

The Rolfe theatre today presents
"The Will o' the Wisp," a Box Office Attraction Co. piece in four reels.
Jackie Saunders plays the title role, and is said to be a big success. She is a dainty little woman, one new to Albany theatre goers. "The Will o' the Wisp," is one of the big things in the moving picture world and has played to advanced prices all over the country. No extra charge is being made here, however. "A Temperance Lesson" and "The Smith-Brown Attack," are two ripping good comedies that accompany the big picture.

At the Globe Theatre Lazen continues to draw big crowds and will hold over for two more days. Tonight he will repeat the coffin trick, where a lady is made to rise from a casket and float in the air. There are many other good tricks that he performs and his magic defies detection.
"A Mad Car Adventure," a two reel sensational drama with Dorothy Kelly and James Morrison, is the picture headliner, and in addition are the Herald-Selig News Weekly and Helena Holmes in "The Open Draw," and "Aurora Floyd," another drama.
Perhaps no melodrama on the American stage outside of Uncle Tom's Cabin has had a longer career than "East Lynne," which is to be seen at the Hub Theatre tonight.
There are 7000 feet of film embracing 122 scenes. The production is staged in London and is said to be a very elaborate one.

Special communication of St. John's Lodge No. 17, A.
F. & A. M. this evening, May 7, at 7:30 o'clock.
Work in the E. A. degree.
Visiting brothers welcome.
