At the Parish Hall on Ninth and Ellsworth the Visitation Society held their regular meeting recently. The members have commenced the study of Catholic Art, and the research for notes is proving a gratifying occupation. Mrs. Price has read a preliminary sketch for the study, the capable handling of which won for her much praise. If all the papers show as much familiarity and thoroughness as the first paper the members will be quite well informed on Catholic art at the end of the season. Miss Katherine Barrett read a second paper which has kept up the record and consequently the members are very anxious for the monthly meetings.
